Scout Leaders Arrange Fall "Training Stampede"

The committee on leadership personnel and training of the North Shore Area Boy Scout council announces that a "Training Stampede" covering eight sessions will be held early this fall for the benefit of present and prospective leaders of Boy Scout troops. A special section of each evening's program will be for the benefit of fathers of Scouts who may not plan to become Scout leaders but who desire to better understand the plans and purposes of the Boy Scout work, and the nature and needs of boys.

CARS CRASH

Cars driven by Milton J. Klee of 1045 Meadow road, Glencoe, and Sanborn Hale, cashier of the Winnetka State bank, collided at the Lincoln and Elm street intersection last Sunday evening. The Hale car was considerably damaged.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. M. Miller of 936 Elm street returned Saturday from a long trip to Detroit, London and Hamilton, Canada, Niagara Falls, Buffalo, Rochester, New York City, Boston, Atlantic City, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Richmond, Gettysburg, Harrisburg, the Allegheny mountains, Louisville, and Indianapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Zimmerman and their children, Billy and Jeanne, of 337 Sheridan road, left August 19, to spend about a week at the North Woods club, near Marquette, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis E. Hinkley and their daughter, Dorothea, of 1204 Scott avenue, have returned to Winnetka from a three weeks' visit at Black Hawk lake, Land O' Lakes, Wis.

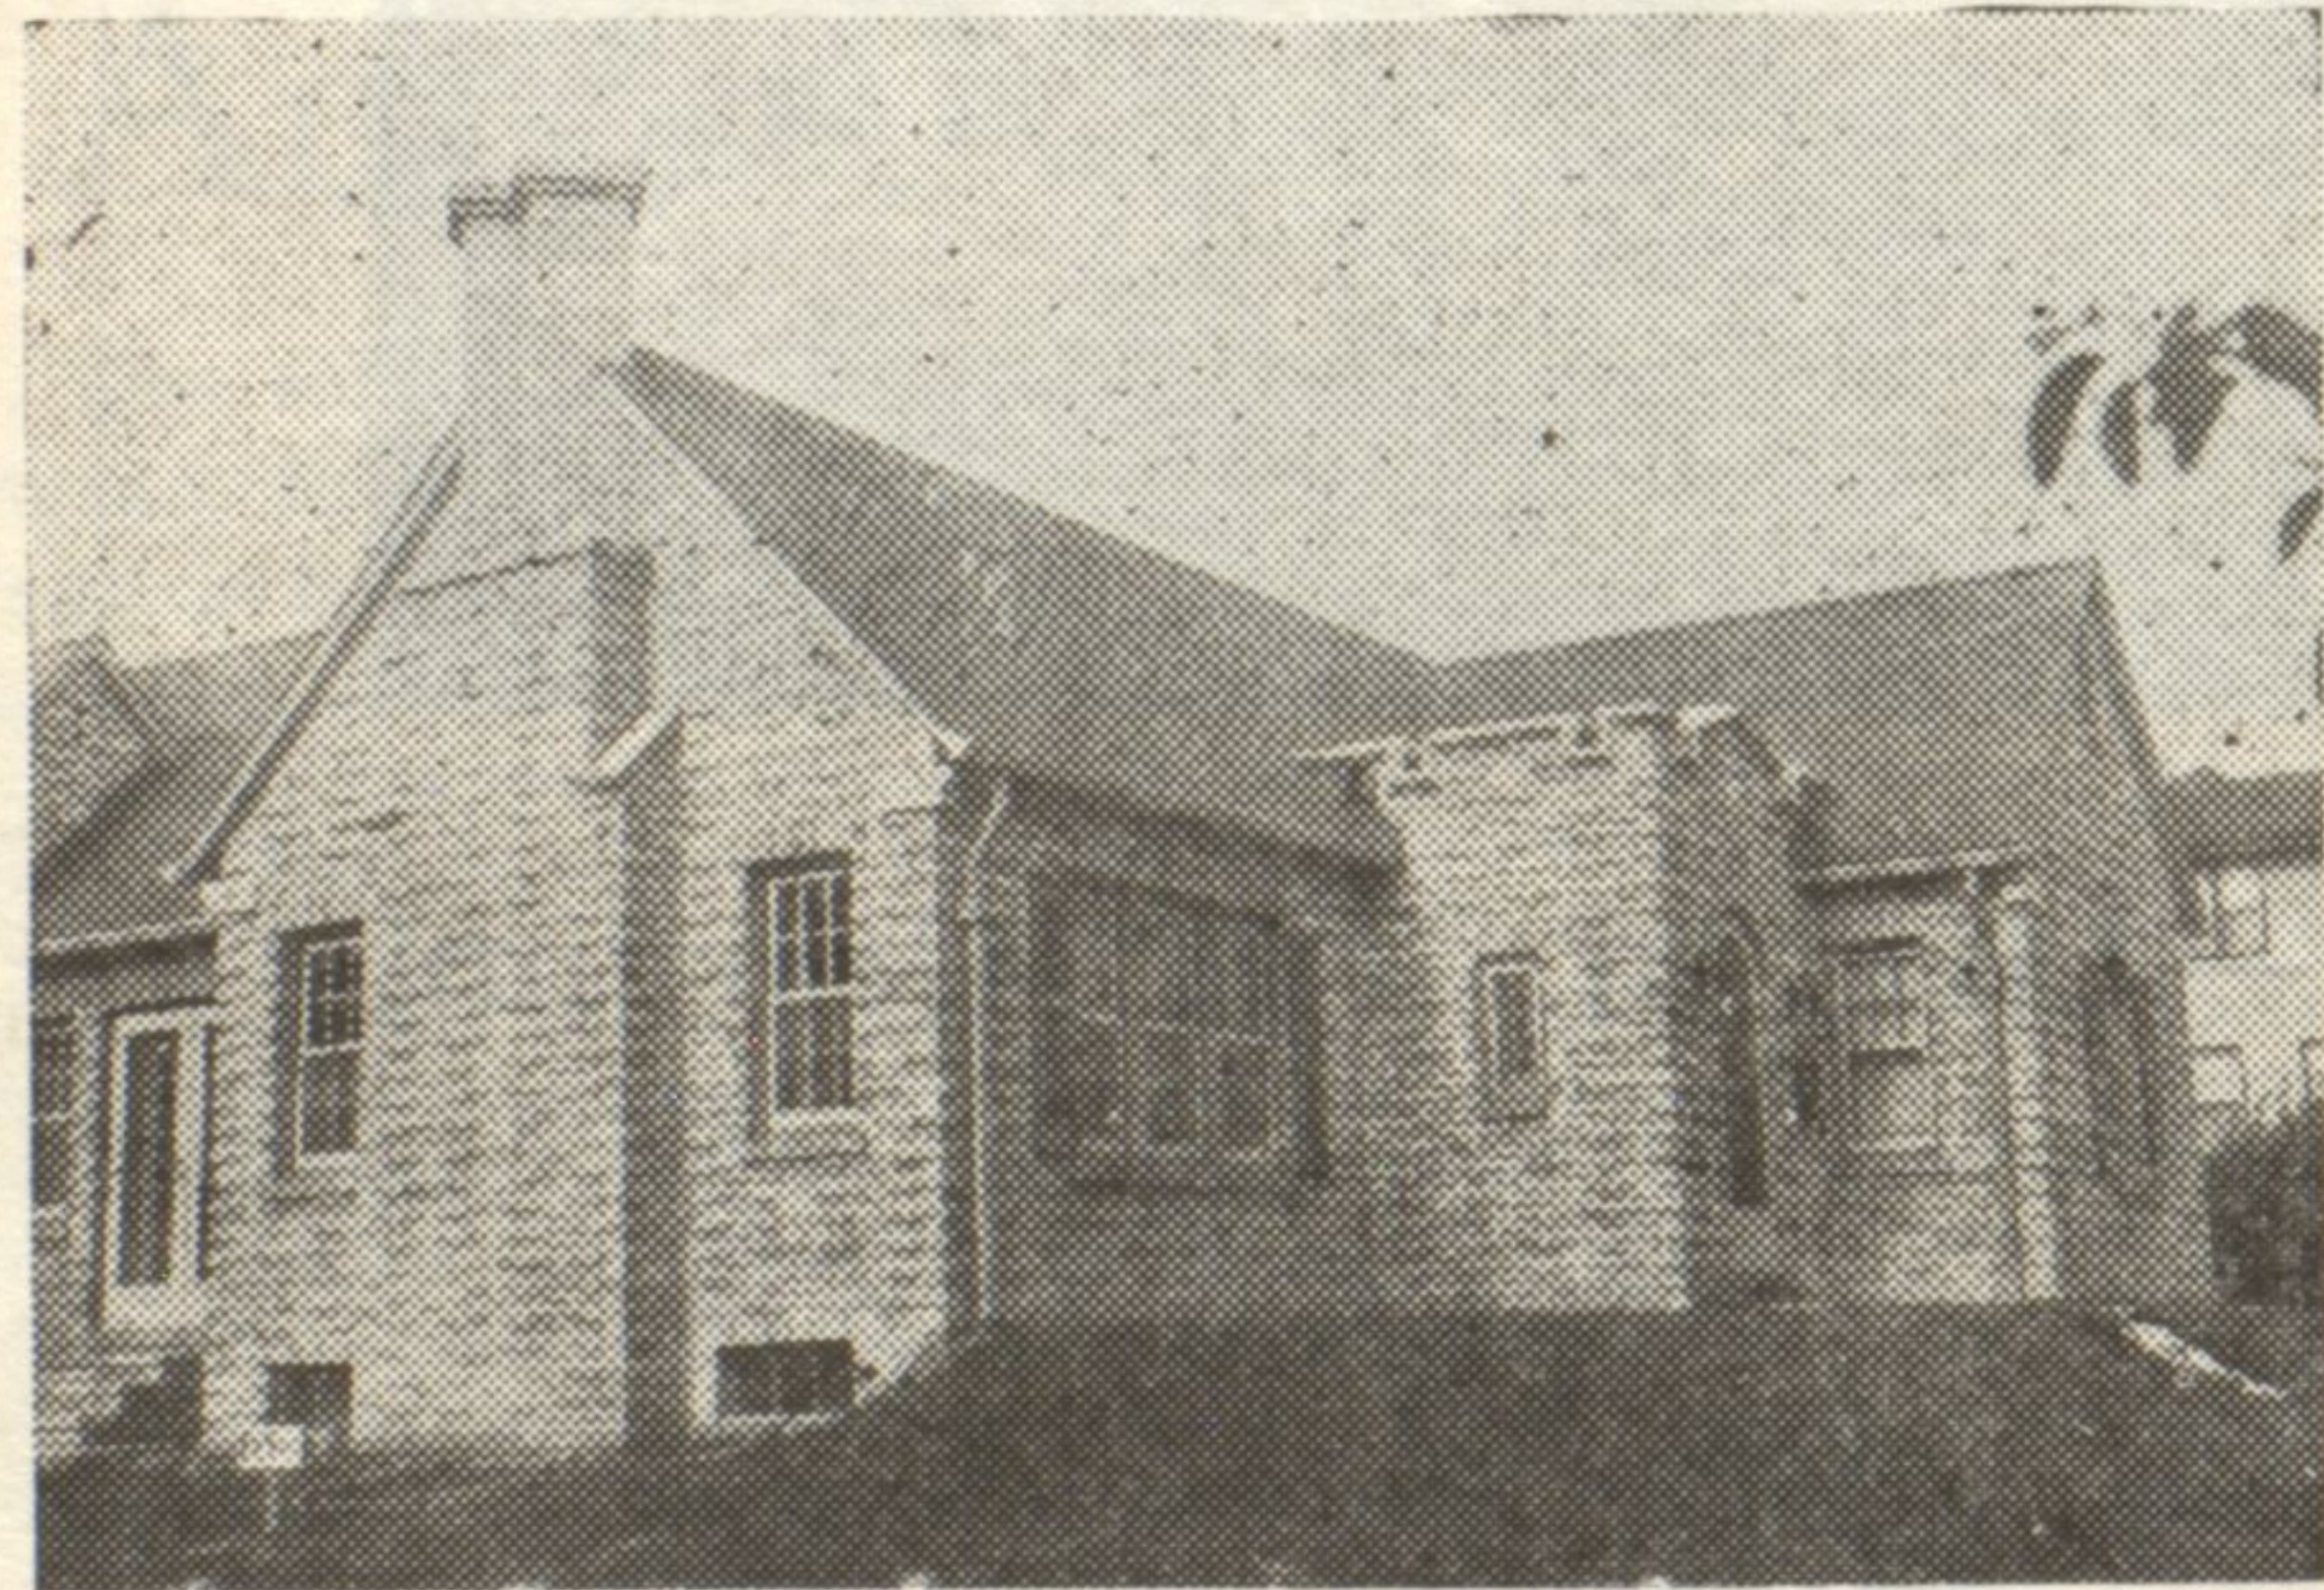

Indian Hill Area Residents to Get Own Coach Service

Bills Realty, Inc., have just purchased a 15-passenger Studebaker parlor coach which will be used exclusively for the transportation of Indian Hill residents to trains, schools and churches in Wilmette, Indian Hill, Winnetka and Kenilworth. This coach is to run on schedule time beginning October 1—the trip from Indian Hill Estates to the North Western and North Shore stations being made in four minutes—it will likewise take the children of Indian Hill residents to the Howard school in Wilmette and to private schools of Roycemore and the National Kindergarten college, and to the Country Day school in Winnetka. In addition to meeting all trains, it will make scheduled shopping tours to all north shore suburbs.

TO LEAVE KENILWORTH

Kenilworth will be sorry to say goodbye to Mr. and Mrs. Irving B. Babcock and their children, of 229 Essex road, when they leave here in a few weeks to make their home in Detroit. Mrs. Babcock returned recently from Detroit, where she was staying with her sister, Mrs. Salisbury, while she was looking for a home in that city. When she returned to Kenilworth she brought with her her children who had been staying in Detroit for some time.

The Chicago Woman's club committee on prohibition law enforcement gave a luncheon last Saturday in honor of Senator Robert L. Owen. The guests of honor included Miss Elizabeth Gemmell and Mrs. B. F. Langworthy.

BRAND NEW SOLID BRICK ENGLISH COTTAGE

Owner going south must dispose of this charming home. There are three light, airy bedrooms and two tile baths and a solid brick garage. All walls and ceilings are lined with Celotex, and all closets are lined with cedar. Weather-stripped throughout. Price includes new range and ice chest. The house was built for a permanent home, as indicated by the solid brass nicked hardware, beautiful, expensive fixtures, and superior construction.
