Troops in Full Swing Again

Summer, with its stress on camp and hikes and other outdoor Scouting events, is over and troops are getting back again to their regular schedules. Troops have one meeting each week. During the next few weeks, a large part of many meetings will be held out doors. The adult leaders of the various troops are busy mapping out the year's program.

Library Installs Pamphlets

To aid the Scouts of Wilmette's nine troops, the Wilmette Public Library has installed a set of Merit Badge Pamphlets for the reference of Scouts and others. There are seventy-two vocations covered by these pamphlets and their addition to the library will be a welcome bit of news to Wilmette Scouts and leaders.

Junior Officers Rally September 24

On the fourth Saturday of each month the boy officers of the north shore troops meet in conference for two hours, mapping out ways and means of putting across their work more effectively. The September J. O. C. will be held on September 24 at Glencoe.

Scoutmasters' Round Table

The adult leaders of Scout troops hold a monthly round-table dinner on the third Monday of each month. The September session will be held at the Central Cafeteria, Wilmette, on Monday evening, September 19, at 6:30 p. m. All Scoutmasters, Assistants and Troop Committeemen are invited.

Scouts Return from Camp

Last Saturday evening seventeen Scouts and one leader returned from the final period at Camp Checaugau. The return trip was made on the steamer "City of Grand Rapids." These boys came away from camp with many honors, among which was a pennant awarded to the tent in camp winning the most points in all activities during the two weeks period. The group who won this was composed of Edward Loewenstein, Troop 31, Highland Park, tent leader; John Betak, Troop 22, Glencoe; Donald Huges, Troop 22, Glencoe; Leonard Simon, Troop 21, Glencoe; John Stringer, Troop 21, Glencoe; Walter Roberts, Troop 21, Glencoe; Philip Swabacker, Troop 3, Winnetka, and Cameron Brown, Troop 22, Glencoe.

Three north shore boys received the high rating of Honor Camper—Morton Traub, Jr., Troop 31, Highland Park; John Betak, Troop 22, Glencoe; and Brainerd Chapman, Troop 31, Highland Park. Also four other boys received the rating of Satisfactory Camper, which really means that the Scout receiving this award has been above the average as an all around camper. Those receiving this honor were Edward Loewenstein, Troop 31, Highland Park; Sidley Chapman, Troop 33, Highland Park; Donald Huges and Cameron Brown of Troop 22, Glencoe. Other north shore Scouts who participated in this period of camp were: Walfred Miller, Troop 32, Highland Park; Bob Phelps, Troop 32, Highland Park; Robert Crawford, Troop 2, Wilmette; Lowell Mueller, Troop 61, Northbrook; Phillip Meyer, Troop 61, Northbrook. William Clore, Scoutmaster of Troop 61, Northbrook, spent one week at camp this period also.

Much advancement was made in Scout tests during this camp period. Two boys completed their second class work; one completed first class; and fifty merit badges were passed, covering a wide variety of subjects.

Sorority House to Open With Two Card Parties

One of the beautiful new sorority houses just completed at Northwestern university may be inspected by interested friends on September 14. The Gamma Phi Beta sorority, occupying the new building on the southeast corner of Emerson street and Orrington avenue, announces for its formal opening and housewarming, two card parties. One will be given in the afternoon at 2 o'clock. The other in the evening at 8, will include men guests as well as women.

Prizes will be given for each table and refreshments will be served. The parties are sponsored by the Gamma Phi Beta alumnae and tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Cyrus H. Williams, 1446 Asbury avenue, Hubbard Woods.

Illinois holds third place among the states in the art of lithographing. Forty plants employ 1,916 persons; salaries and wages, about $2,540,000 yearly; value of products, approximately $10,100,000. New York and Ohio rank first and second.
