

The Environment of a Magnificent Home

AS you enter THE ORRINGTON you see no clerk's desk or office. Broad marble stairs lead you up into the beautiful palm court pictured above, with its reception rooms, elevator lobby, luxurious rugs, tapestries, paintings and well chosen furniture.

There is a friendly feeling of home, of comfort and good taste. You observe the quality of the furniture, draperies and lamps by Fields. You note the beauty of the coffered ceiling and already feel the urge to share this elegance with the many who make THE ORRINGTON their permanent home.

Every Room Is An Outside Room, large and well designed, with woodwork and walls finished in unoffending colors.

Living at THE ORRINGTON is not expensive—the cost is actually less than maintaining a private home.

A visit to THE ORRINGTON will reveal the full story of the elegance, the comfort and good cheer of this delightful place to live.
