Skokie Musicale to Include Program by Sextette, Contralto

BY JEAN TEN BROECK

Sunday afternoon music programs at Skokie Country club have been a source of delightful pleasure since their inception several years ago for members of the club and their guests. Because Skokie's membership reaches into several of the villages, this music hour, with all the charming informality of Sunday afternoon affairs, draws together many north shore residents eager to grasp the opportunity the club offers to hear fine artists and splendid programs.

Six members of the Little Symphony Orchestra of Chicago, Herman Felber and Carl Schulte, violinists; Theodore Du Moulin, 'cellist; Jan Anderson, pianist; George Foeller, flutist; and Lillian Poenisch, clarinetist, together with Mrs. John Hansel of Winnetka, contralto, will give the program comprising the following selections:

- I Overture from "Mignon"..... Thomas

 The time of the musicale is 4:30 o'clock, Sunday afternoon, September 11.

Parties Begin in Honor of Margaret Williams

Among the affairs to be given for Miss Margaret Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stalham Leon Williams of Winnetka, formerly of Wilmette, whose marriage to J. Lester Badenoch, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Badenoch of Evanston, will take place Tuesday, October 4, are the pantry shower and bridge given by Miss Helen Badenoch at her home in Evanston Wednesday, August 31, and the bridge to be given next Wednesday afternoon at which Mrs. Willis Hunt and her daughter, Miss Elizabeth, will be hostesses at their home in Winnetka.

Miss Badenoch, the bridegroom's sister, and Miss Mary Louise Scheidenhelm of Wilmette, will be in Miss Williams' wedding party, the former as maid of honor, the latter as one of the bridesmaids.

The Ladies' Aid society of the North Shore Methodist Episcopal church will hold an afternoon meeting Tuesday, September 13, in honor of Mrs. Aaron B. Moe, 835 Vernon avenue, Glencoe, commencing at 2 o'clock. Each member is asked to bring her own sewing.

The Oak Street circle will meet Tuesday, September 13, at the Tucka-Way Tea room for 1 o'clock luncheon and a program following. The hostesses will be Mrs. John Eldridge and Mrs. Albert Weisner.

Bride of Today

One of the large and beautiful weddings of the summer will be that taking place Saturday evening, September 10, at Christ church, Winnetka, when Miss Marion Fulton becomes the bride of Lawrence BeBout, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard BeBout of Loudenville, Ohio. The Rev. E. Ashley Gerhard will read the marriage service at 8:30 o'clock, and immediately after the ceremony a reception will be held in the garden of the home of the bride's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Frank David Fulton, 884 Hill road, Winnetka. Miss Olga Menn will sing twice during the wedding, at 8:15 o'clock, and again just before the wedding party enters. Dr. Ellis Chase will be at the organ.

The bride is wearing ivory satin with a veil of rare old lace and she will carry a shower bouquet of gardenias and lilies of the valley. Her maid of honor, her sister, Miss Helen, and her matron of honor, her cousin, Mrs. George E. Snyder, and the bridesmaids, Miss Betty Schwartz, Miss Louise Shriver, Miss Helen Anderson, and Miss Jane Hawley, and the flower girls, Marjorie McNie and Margaret Cobb, will be gowned in three shades of peach. The bridal attendants will carry shower bouquets of fall flowers and the two flower girls will carry sheaths of larkspur and gladioli.

Russell Bill will serve as best man, and the ushers will be George E. Snyder, Max Whistler, Jermyn Downey, Winslow Thompson, Wesley Hawkins, Harvey Baily, Curtis Clifford and Edmund Fulton.

The many affairs given in honor of Miss Fulton and Mr. BeBout include the miscellaneous shower given by Miss Louise Shriver, the kitchen shower given by Mrs. Theodore Andrews, the linen shower given by Miss Eleanor Calkins, the luncheon and bridge at the Club Vista del Lago, with Mrs. F. E. M. Cole the hostess, the trousseau shower given by Mrs. Frederick Ward, the kitchen shower given by Mrs. Erskine McCloud, the five and ten cent store shower given by Miss Margaret Cobb, and the dinner party given by Mrs. Lester Ogilvie.

During the past week those who have entertained for Miss Fulton, Mr. BeBout, and members of their wedding party, are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fulton, who gave a dinner at their home Wednesday evening for the bridal party and the twenty out-of-town guests who have come on for the wedding. Miss Marjorie McNie enter-

Eva May Johnson Still Is Golf Champion at Skokie

The woman's golf championship at Skokie club remains with Miss Eva May Johnson of Winnetka again this year. Miss Johnson defeated Mrs. Paul Chace of Glencoe in the final round played off last Saturday morning. Mrs. Ernest P. Bartlett of Winnetka was winner of the second flight, with Mrs. W. R. Watson of Highland Park, runner-up. Mrs. G. N. Tunnell of Glencoe won the third flight championship, by defeating Mrs. Merritt H. Dement of Kenilworth. Mrs. B. B. Clover of Glencoe won the non qualifiers flight, with Mrs. S. P. Carson of Glencoe runner-up. At the time of going to press the consolation flight was still to be played, with the contest between Miss Florence McGuire and Mrs. George Schnur.

Friday's match at Skokie was a best ball foursome.

Jane Naugle Guest at Prenuptial Parties

Among the parties given in honor of Miss Jane Naugle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald T. Naugle of Chicago, prior to her marriage to Billings McArthur, son of Dr. and Mrs. Lewis L. McArthur of Chicago, were the luncheon and matinee party given by Mrs. Willing D. Kirk Wednesday, the luncheon given by Mrs. Alba J. Irvin of Chicago on Thursday, and the luncheon at the Blackstone yesterday with Mrs. Raymond Carleton Dudley of Winnetka the hostess.

The marriage service will be read on September 15, in St. Chrysostom's church, in the presence of only a few intimate friends and relatives. A small reception will follow at the Naugle apartment. The Naugle family left Winnetka recently after a summer's stay.

To Tell of Experiences in China at Church Tea

The Woman's society of the Winnetka Congregational church is to be hostess at a tea given in honor of Mrs. Paul Reynolds at the home of Mrs. Frank Ferry, 391 Sheridan road, from 2:30 until 5 o'clock on Wednesday, September 21.

Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds have recently returned from the missionary fields of China, and are spending the week beginning September 19, with friends in Winnetka.

The members of the church and the society will have an opportunity at this tea to hear Mrs. Reynolds tell of their experiences during the very critical times in China, tales which should be of great interest to everyone.

P. T. A. Gives Drive

The year of 1927-28 for the Winnetka Parent-Teacher association opened Thursday of this week when the social chairmen of the association, accompanied by a few of the mothers, were hostesses to the twenty-eight new teachers for a drive around the village and the north shore. After the drive, the group returned to the home of Mrs. Hobart P. Young, 708 Prospect avenue, for tea.

tained the entire wedding party at luncheon at her home in Winnetka Thursday, and in the evening George Snyder was host at a dinner at the Edgewater Beach hotel for the bridal party. Friday noon Miss Louise Shriver and Miss Betty Schwartz entertained the bridal party at luncheon and bridge at Sunset Ridge club, and Friday evening Mrs. John Chandler Cobb, Jr., gave the bridal dinner at her home in Winnetka.
