Judge Brothers Becomes Chief of Criminal Court

Judge William V. Brothers of Evanston was officially inducted Tuesday as the new chief justice of the Criminal courts of Cook county.

He took the oath of office Monday and observed the formality by opening and closing court in the Criminal court building, Chicago. He succeeds William J. Lindsay, who has held the office for the last year and returns to the Circuit court.

PROSSER IS HONORED

Illinois Knights Templar Elect Him Deputy Grand Commander

Put in line for the title of high eminent commander, the highest office the state has to offer in the Knights Templar, Aubrey Prosser, 1001 Sherman avenue, Evanston, was elected deputy grand commander of the Illinois Knights Templar at closing sessions of the annual conclave at Rock Island last week.

Mr. Prosser is prominently identified with local Masonic organizations. In addition to being a member of the commandery, he is Most Wise Master of Gourgas chapter, Rose Croix of the Oriental Consistory.

Chicago has been chosen for the 1928 convention of the Commandery. Edward A. Glad of that city was elected to its chief office for the new year.

Harriet Mons, 157 Woodstock avenue, Kenilworth, entertained a few friends at the Vista del Lago before departing for college. She is leaving Sunday evening, September 11, to enter her freshman year at Dennison university at Granville, Ohio.

Miss Clarabelle Russ of 307 Melrose avenue, Kenilworth, entertained a group of young people at a dance at the Vista del Lago last Friday night.

In what ways does "Selected" Milk Excel ?

"Selected" milk excels in many ways. Most noticeable to the milk drinker is its sweet, natural TASTE.

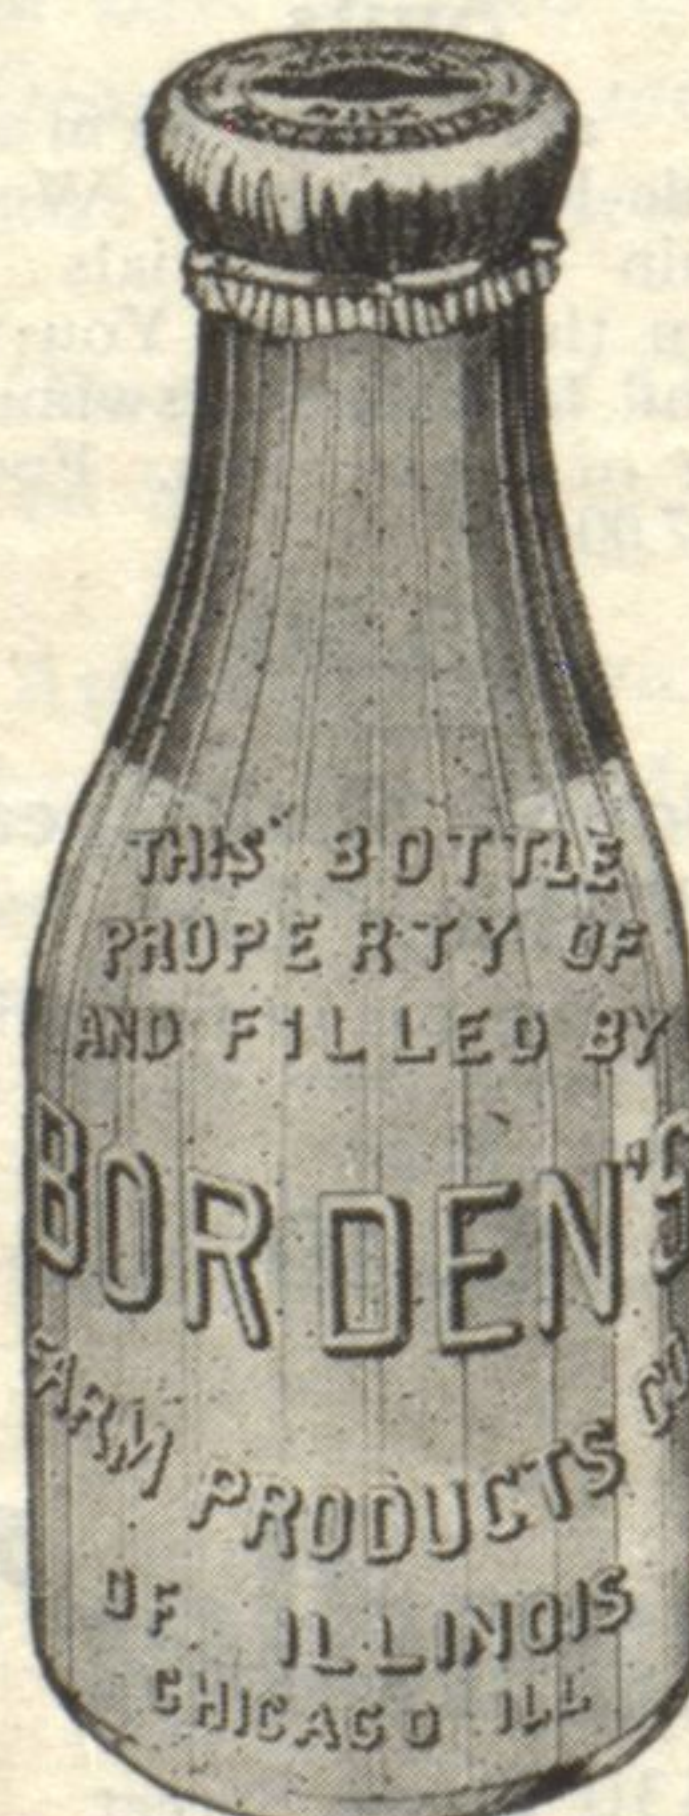

This famous taste is due to the extra care and supervision given this better drinking milk from the instant it is produced on the farm.

Good milk must be kept good, so "Selected" milk is cooled instantly to less than 18 degrees above the freezing point. This is 10 degrees colder than the usual requirement.

If you wish to know more about Chicago's better drinking milk ask the Borden Milkman or phone or write for details.

Your children will be quick to appreciate the sweet, natural taste of "Selected" Milk. Let them enjoy it tonight. Call in the Borden Milkman in your neighborhood and arrange for service.
