

Dine and Entertain at The Georgian

FRANCIS, at The Georgian, has become as well-known to those who dine out from Lake Forest to Chicago as Oscar, the world's once famous head-waiter. His courtesy and quiet efficiency in managing every kind of social affair, from an intimate bridge luncheon of four to a large wedding reception, have won him a loyal and ever-increasing group of smart North Shore hostesses whose successful entertaining has been directly due to him.

BUT Francis' successful reign in the dining room must be shared with Jules in the kitchen—Jules, the power behind the throne! Formerly connected with hotels famous the world over for their cuisine, he has been Chef de Cuisine at The Georgian since early summer marshaling his forces of efficient specialty chefs for the coming season. Jules knows the importance, to your appetite and his own reputation, of preparing delectable menus—once satisfied you will repeat your visit.

AS a result of this successful combination of Francis, Maitre d' Hotel, and Jules, Chef de Cuisine, The Georgian with its exquisite appointments offers the finest facilities obtainable for successful entertaining.

WE cordially invite you to visit us. The items on our menus are priced to make it possible for one to dine here regularly at no greater expense than at home. If you are planning to entertain telephone Francis, Greenleaf 4100. He will assume responsibility and the success of your party is assured.
