One dollar entered under the names of your youngsters and written in a Bank Book, will look as big to them as a thousand does to you. Time and again you're apt to see them peeping at the figures for "just another look, Daddy, to see how much money we've got."

Their's is a youthful pride worth encouraging . . . leading to cultivation of the Thrift habit which means so much to them later in life. Teach them the value of it by opening an account for them in our Savings Bank.
