This Bank— and Winnetka

AS A BUSINESS INSTITUTION a Bank has two distinct relationships: It is a part of the country's credit machinery, promoting the exchange of goods and money, and contributing to the general reserve strength. And—

It is a local institution to which people turn with confidence for financial services of all kinds—depositing, borrowing, investing, to say nothing of requests for business information and advice.

The Winnetka Trust & Savings Bank is strong in both relationships. It has a keen feeling of its responsibilities and endeavors to merit the confidence it has won by faithful performances.

This was the third and final game of the series. Each of the teams had previously won a game, the score in each instance being 7 to 0.

Boesch pitched an excellent game for the winning team and was given faultless support.

Halpin, who was in the box for Glencoe, also pitched a good game, but errors by his mates were responsible for the loss of the much coveted game.
