

Barrington Acres Afford Country Comforts 44 Minutes From Chicago

Have you discovered Barrington?

It is a region you should know because of its favored natural environment, and midway position between Chicago and the lake region.

Chicago is 44 minutes away to the southeast—Lake Geneva is 40 miles away to the northwest. Paved roads, including the new County Line road, lead direct to the city and Evanston. A 900 foot altitude gives Barrington dry air and southwestern breezes. A flourishing shopping center is nearby to supply the home-owner's needs.

Quinlan & Tyson have followed the rapid development of Barrington from the first, and are well posted on the present activity there. They have available homesites as small as four acres or as large as 300 acres.

Prices, while attractive now, are on the rise. Let us tell you something of Barrington's bright future. Drive out and look the ground over. Come here for full information. Call, phone or write.
