C. W. Eckhardt, executive manager for the Fox Film corporation with studios in New York City and Hollywood and offices throughout the world, has purchased the attractive residence of Louis H. Wolff located at 1128 Greenwood avenue, Wilmette, and will take occupancy about November 1.

The house is of stucco construction containing eight rooms, sun parlor, sleeping porch, breakfast nook, two baths and attached garage.

Mr. and Mrs. Wolff are moving to Indianapolis to be with their children who are living in the Indiana metropolis. Mr. Wolff was for many years special state agent for the Aetna Fire Insurance company for the state of Indiana.

Mr. Phillips announces that several other leading film executives from the East who are moving to Chicago are interested in establishing homes on the north shore.

Prof. Hatfield to Sail for America in October

Prof. James Taft Hatfield, of the department of German, Northwestern university, is expected to sail early in October from Germany where he has been for a fortnight, visiting various cities and attending the celebration of the Wilhelm Mueller centenary at Dessau.

Because of extensive important research work which Prof. Hatfield has done in assembling the writings of this German poet, he has been a guest of honor of the German government at the celebration.
