Norshore Presents Al in "Jazz on the High C's"

Al Kvale and his Jazz Collegians are to be seen in a new production at the Norshore theater starting Sunday, September 25. Al is calling his show "Jazz on the High C's" and there will be "gobs" of fun for all who see it.

This production is to be a sea of syncopation with singing and dancing sailors. Al and his Jazz Collegians will sail through some of the latest and prettiest melodies of the day and the huge cast of featured entertainers that he has selected to round out this show bids fair to make it one shipload of rollicking good fun and revelry.

Among those who will be aboard when Al sets sail in the High C's are Milton Watson, Florence Brady, Markel and Faun, Billy Gerber and the Abbot Co-Eds.

Along with this splendid stage show Al has arranged to have "Adam and Evil" with Lew Cody and Aileen Pringle on the screen. As the neglected wife of Lew Cody she inadvertently meets her husband—who disguises himself as his own twin brother. Their misadventures in these unusual roles are at once dramatic and clever

Teatro del Lago Books Two Great Films for Week

The two pictures listed as features for the coming week by Teatro del Lago, are representatives of the best in two classes of productions. For "Beau Geste" has been slated as the film for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, and "The Bugle Call" has been listed for Thursday and Friday.

About "Beau Geste" have been said many things—all of them favorable. To repeat, it is a masterful tragedy drama of brotherly love, beautifully filmed, splendidly directed and superbly cast.

Beyond a doubt it is one of the greatest productions that have appeared in recent years and is one of Ronald Coleman's best presentations. It ranks higher in real value than any other one of his pictures with the exception of the "Big Parade." If you do not see "Beau Geste" you will be sorry for a long time to come.

"The Bugle Call," is a Jackie Coogan film. It is the advent, however, of a new Jackie Coogan—Jackie Coogan in the role that is said by many critics to have established him not only as one of the greatest child actors of all time but also as one of the great actors, regardless of age.

The story is laid in the thunderous days when the United States cavalry hammered back the Indian hordes from the Boseman Trail in 1870 to open a gateway to the West for settlers; one of the historic struggles to aid the onset of civilization.

For this Sunday, "For the Love of Mike" has been selected. Ben Lyon has the leading role in this First National production and is supported by George Sidney, Ford Sterling, Skeets Gallagher, Mabel Swor and Claudette Colbert. The story is about three old bachelors that pick up a foundling in the Hell's Kitchen district of New York city. Lyon plays the part of the foundling.
