Like a Falling Leaf

Without money, man is not unlike the falling leaf of autumn. Like the winds, his best friends "carry him along for a while" but... sooner or later... he's left to drift for himself as best he can, down Life's pathway.

Risk not being separated from the comforts and luxuries of life you now enjoy. SAVE every dollar you can and you'll never have cause to sigh "what might have been."

Hubbard Woods Teachers Guests of P. T. A. Head

A tea for all of the members of the faculty of the Hubbard Woods school will be given by Mrs. Robert Brown, chairman of the school Parent-Teacher association, at her home, 806 Locust street, Hubbard Woods, next Monday. At that time the teachers of the various rooms of the Hubbard Woods school will meet the chairmen of the room P. T. A.'s and plans for association activities will be formulated.

The organization of the Hubbard Woods school P. T. A. is now practically completed, room chairmen and sub-chairmen having been appointed by Mrs. Brown. Mrs. Brown's assistants as sub school chairmen are Mrs. Walter Nelson and Mrs. Weber. The room chairmen are as follows:

Mrs. Laird Bell, chairman of Mrs. Bernhart's sixth grade; Mrs. J. Blaine Korrady, chairman of Miss McKay's sixth grade; Mrs. Stanley Simpson, chairman of Miss Cox's fifth grade; Mrs. Donald Jeffries, chairman of Miss Leap's fifth grade; Mrs. Herbert Weil, chairman of Miss Mona Graham's fourth grade; Mrs. Leo Schoenbrun, chairman of Miss Ruth Damberg's fourth grade; and Mrs. Charles Byron, chairman of Miss Rose Damberg's third grade P. T. A. Mrs. Byron is assisted by Mrs. Frank Kranich.

Mrs. H. L. Woolhiser, chairman of Miss Lula Graham's third grade P. T. A.; Mrs. D. Bligh Grasset, chairman of Miss Lulu Johnson's fourth grade; Mrs. George L. Friedstedt, chairman of Miss Mitchell's sixth grade; Mrs. Ben Pfeiffer, chairman of the second grade P. T. A.; Mrs. George R. Bayard, chairman of Mrs. Barnett's first grade; Mrs. Howard Walsh, chairman of Miss Swartz' second grade; Mrs. Stewart Weston, chairman of Mrs. Hughes' second grade; Mrs. Albert W. Tweedy, chairman of Miss Free's first grade; Mrs. Charles Harding, chairman of Miss Van Cleve's first grade and Mrs. Robert Hammond, chairman, and Mrs. Edward Lewis, assistant chairman, of Miss Weedon's Kindergarten.

Miss Barbara Poole formerly of Kenilworth but now residing in Ithaca, N. Y., passed through Chicago on Wednesday on her way to Leland Stanford university.
