

Bride Wears an Imported French Gown at Wedding

When Miss Virginia Suydam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Derr Suydam of Chicago, became the bride of Dr. Carroll William Johnson of Glencoe, Wednesday evening, September 28, she wore a French gown she brought with her from a recent trip abroad. The dress was of oyster white chiffon, beaded in crystal bugle beads and tiny French mirrors, and hung over an under-dress of nude crepe. Instead of a veil, she wore a tight cap of silver lame, beaded with bugle beads and heart-shaped French mirrors.

The ceremony took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Leonard Roche of 801 Central avenue, Wilmette. The house was decorated with autumn flowers, with yellow predominating. The Rev. D. H. Cornell of the Glencoe Union church read the ceremony at 8 o'clock before a small number of friends and relatives. At 8:30, a reception was held for 200 guests.

Mrs. Roche was the bride's matron of honor, and Dr. Johnson's cousin, Loren Emerson Taylor of Tulsa, Okla., served as best man.

BAPTISMAL SERVICE

There will be a service Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the Winnetka Congregational church, when children may be presented for Christian baptism.

Opens Sunday Club

Lorado Taft, noted sculptor, has been secured as the speaker for the opening program of the Wilmette Sunday Evening club on October 2. Mr. Taft, who is well known to all north shore residents, has appeared before the Sunday Evening club in previous seasons and has gained a wide popularity in this vicinity. His lecture this Sunday will be illustrated with stereopticon views.

Halliburton to Lecture Before Voters' Forum

Young Richard Halliburton, author of the "Royal Road to Romance" will speak at Orchestra hall, Chicago, on the night of October 17, under the auspices of the Chicago League of Women Voters Forum. North shore units of the Voters' league are interested in the lecture.

The daring adventure portrayed in Halliburton's two books of travel, together with his individuality, and intimate fascinating style as a platform speaker, has made him a decidedly popular man among contemporary authors and orators. Here we find again that irrepressible spirit of impetuous youth.

Though only twenty-seven years of age, Richard Halliburton already witnesses a rapid-fire sale of his "Royal Road" in America as well as the publication of editions in England, Germany, Holland, Sweden and Denmark.

As early as July the columns of several Chicago papers carried an announcement that the Chicago League of Women Voters' Forum would present Richard Halliburton at Orchestra hall and at once lovers of adventure, travel and romance became keenly interested.

Under the leadership of Mrs. W. A. Roberts, newly elected president of the Forum, and Mrs. C. L. Hibbard, chairman of the lecture, much is being done to make this program one of the big club events of the year.
