New Trier Tri-Ship Club Plans for Entertainment

Plans for the "Forty-Niner's" entertainment which will be presented by the New Trier Tri-Ship club on October 29, are going forward rapidly under the supervision of a committee of which Curtis Tatham is chairman. The entertainment will be a reproduction of the old west and will be featured by old time dances. Trick roping and stunts of a western nature will also be a part of the program. Profits from the entertainment will be turned over to the Tri-Ship club educational fund.

Mrs. Charles Sommer of 425 Provident avenue, gave the musical program on Wednesday, October 15, at the opening meeting of the Hull House Woman's club. She sang two groups of songs.

Big Throng Enjoys Harvest Dance at Vista del Lago

Threatening skies and occasional rain squalls failed to dampen the enthusiasm of Vista del Lago members and friends last Saturday evening on the occasion of the club's Pre-Halloween costume dinner dance, which was attended by some two hundred and proved one of the most enjoyable affairs of the year.

The somewhat bizarre yet beautiful coloring of the club's Esplanada was completely eclipsed through the harvest decorations of pumpkins, corn shocks, squash, and other fall products, which came from the Wetten Farms through courtesy of one of the club's life members and attorney, Emil C. Wetten.

Among the surprise events of the evening was the presentation to the club by Thomas J. McKearnan, life member, and director of the Russel Studios of Chicago, of a beautiful oil rendition of Commodore J. Stuart Blackton, the club's first president.

Several Hollywood persons of prominence were present Saturday evening, including the film star, Miss Beverly Bayne, who was among the guests of L. L. Arms, the club's directing manager.

Prominent as hosts at the larger tables of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. John Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Errett Marion Grable, Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. Warrick, and Mr. and Mrs. C. Ernest Guyton of Evanston; Miss Henriette Langston, Mr. and Mrs. John Millen, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey A. Craig, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Thompson of Wilmette; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hollis and Mr. and Mrs. Allan Houston, Jr., of Winnetka; and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. McKearnan of Northbrook.
