

Frolic at Club Dinner Dance

Members and guests of Vista del Lago, shore club located at the lake front in "No Man's Land," enjoyed a genuine autumn frolic Saturday evening, October 1, the occasion being the club's first costume dinner dance. In the upper picture we see Thomas J. McKearnen of Northbrook, presenting an oil painting of Commodore Blackton to the club. It was executed in the Russel studios of Chicago, of which Mr. McKearnen is director, and will be hung in the club's Sorolla Lounge.

Christian Science Church

"Unreality" was the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday, October 2.

The Golden Text was from Jeremiah 3:23, "Truly in vain is salvation hoped for from the hills, and from the multitude of mountains; truly in the Lord our God is the salvation of Israel."

Among the citations which comprised the lesson-sermon was the following from the Bible: "See that none render evil for evil unto any man; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men Prove all things; hold fast that which is good. Abstain from all appearance of evil" (I Thess. 5:15, 21, 22).

The lesson-sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Since God is All, there is no room for His unlikeness. God, Spirit, alone created all, and called it good. Therefore evil, being contrary to good, is unreal, and cannot be the product of God." (p. 339).

Miss Margaret Boynton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Boynton of 604 Cherry street, was elected first alto in the freshman women's Glee club Oberlin college. She was chosen from an entering class of about 275 girls.

Miss Priscilla Guthrie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Guthrie of 730 Walden road, has left for the East, to spend a few days with relatives in New York before entering the Dwight school at Englewood, N. J.

Butler May Be Stumbling Block for Illini Eleven

Among the non-conference colleges that appear regularly on the early season football schedule of the University of Illinois, none is more respected by Coach Bob Zuppke than Butler which plays Saturday, October 8, in the Illini stadium.

Butler was beaten last season 38 to 7, but the Illini can remember some five years ago when a smart team from Indianapolis drubbed the Illinois eleven while Zup was away on a scouting trip. Since that game the Illinois coach has taken no chances and he is welding his best combination for the October 8 tilt.

Forty-two candidates reported for the Butler team, coached this year by George (Potsy) Clark, quarterback on Zup's famous 1914 championship team. Potsy has seen his new charges twice in action, against Muncie Normal and the University of Louisville, while the Illini have met one opponent, Bradley Tech.

Miss Isabel Scott returned recently to her home in Hubbard Woods after a visit with her sister, Mrs. F. Langdon Hubbard (Emily Scott).

Miss Mary Tibbals of 511 Hawthorne lane, has entered her freshman year at Lake Forest college. She graduated from New Trier High school in June.
