

North Shore Chamber Music Season Opens on October 23

Muenzer Trio on First of Chamber Music Programs

BY JEAN TEN BROECK

Five seasons ago chamber music was unknown to the north shore. In so short a span of years, however, because of the enthusiasm and faith of the little group who were responsible at first for its introduction here, because of the insistent appeal the charm of this type of music has, and because north shore persons are discriminating, the musicales sponsored by the North Shore Chamber Music association have become one of our own institutions. So securely has the association and what it stands for taken root in our life here, the writer is certain that with the advent of autumn days each year she can present to the north shore readers word of a new series of chamber music programs. Such an announcement comes to us this week.

The North Shore Chamber Music association will sponsor a series of four concerts for the season of 1927-28, the first of which will be given Sunday afternoon, October 23, at the Kenilworth Assembly hall. The Muenzer trio will present the program assisted by Frederick Rittner, who will play the viola in a Brahms quartet.

Tea will be served at the close of the first program.

Circle Happenings

The Walden Road circle will entertain the members and their husbands at a card party Monday evening, October 10, at the home of Mrs. George Powers, 725 Walden road. Mrs. Wirt Farley is chairman of the evening's arrangements, assisted by Mrs. Powers and Mrs. Robert Price. Entertainment will be provided for those who do not care to play cards.

The committee hopes that all members will avail themselves of this opportunity to meet their neighbors. Members are requested to notify Mrs. Powers of their acceptance.

The Oak Street circle will meet Tuesday, October 11, at the home of Mrs. William Carey, 883 Oak street. Miss Lillian Struggles will be the assistant hostess.

The Rosewood circle will hold its first fall meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles Aspenwall, 1195 Tower road, Tuesday, October 11, at 2 o'clock. The Misses Catherine and Anna Rohrig will be assisting hostesses. Mrs. Aspenwall hopes all members and neighbors will attend the meeting.

Mrs. A. W. Payne of 367 Sunset road will be hostess to the members of the New Trier circle at its first meeting this season on Tuesday afternoon, October 11. Mrs. R. J. Darby will be the assisting hostess. Mrs. K. H. Hinrichs, chairman, asks all members and new neighbors to attend.

The Ash Street circle will meet on Tuesday, October 11, at 2 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. V. E. Hopkins, 915 Ash street. Mrs. L. Knackstadt is to be the assisting hostess.

The Cherry Street circle is to have the first meeting of the season Tuesday, October 11, at 2 o'clock, at the home of its chairman, Mrs. R. B. Webster, 466 Provident road. Mrs. C. P. Jaedecke will be the assisting hostess. Each member is asked to bring her own sewing, as the first meeting is to be merely a social afternoon.

Mrs. Harold Wilder will open her home at 508 Maple avenue Tuesday,

Introduced at Joint Reception

Photo by Koehne

A twin debut is something novel in affairs of society. An event of this kind occurred early this autumn in Winnetka, when Miss Virginia Wallace, a resident of that village, and Miss Ashton Wilson, formerly of Winnetka, were presented to society at a tea given at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Wallace, 815 Mt. Pleasant road.

Miss Wilson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Wilson, now of Fayetteville, N. C., has been staying with the Wallaces for an indefinite period

October 11, for the first fall meeting of the East Elm Steet circle. The meeting will begin at 2 o'clock, and the afternoon will be spent in sewing for the infant Welfare society. Assisting Mrs. Wilder will be Mrs. Charles B. Officer, Mrs. Francis E. Senear, and Mrs. N. Landon Hoyt, Jr.

The Indian Hill circle meets Wednesday, October 12, at 2 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Harold G. Wilson, 475 Orchard lane. As this is the first meeting of the season, plans for the year will be discussed.

The Hawthorn Lane circle will have its first regular fall meeting at 2 o'clock on Tuesday, October 11, at the home of Mrs. E. O. McNair, Jr., 265 Woodland avenue. Mrs. Walter W. Doerr of 389 Elder lane is to be assistant hostess. Work for the coming year will be planned and sewing will be done. Mrs. McNair will serve tea at the end of the afternoon.

The October meeting of the Winnetka Heights circle will be held next Tuesday at 2 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. W. P. Reed, 1075 Pelham road. From then on, the meetings will continue to be held on the second Tuesday of each month.

Riding Club Will Dine and Dance on Saturday Evening

One of the delightful society affairs of the season will be the autumn dinner and dance given by the Indian Hill Riding club Saturday evening, October 15, at 7:30 o'clock. The event is being arranged for members and their guests. Reservations may be made for tables seating four, six and eight guests, and may be sent to Indian Hill club, where the event is to take place.

The entertainment committee, which is composed of Godfrey H. Atkin, the chairman, and Peirce C. Ward and Frederick H. Scott, announces that excellent dance music will be provided and, in addition, moving pictures of many of the club equestrians will be shown during the dinner hour.

The Riding club activities always include many affairs of a social nature and this autumn party is given in response to many requests.

The club, which is headed by Ernest Hicks, opened an active season early in September with a group ride, followed by tea, and from that time on, its equestrians have been seen frequently dotting the countryside. Wednesday and Friday afternoons find many of the women members and children cantering along the bridle paths, escorted by the club's new riding instructor, Major Roy Nordheimer, formerly of the Royal Canadian Dragoons.

Military Touch Lends Color to Benefit Ball

The inaugural ball of the new North Shore Military academy, held in the ballroom of the Orrington hotel September 29, was a brilliant sight, with the light gowns of the women, the black evening clothes of the civilian men, and the uniforms of the visiting officers, Maj. Gen. William Lassiter, commanding general of the sixth corps area, and his staff, and Brig. Gen. Michael J. Lenihan, commanding general of Fort Sheridan, and his staff. The high point of the evening was reached when, with a few appropriate words, Maj. Gen. Lassiter, acting for the Ladies' auxiliary, presented the colors to M. C. K. Little, president of the academy, who responded for the academy.

The program consisted of dancing to Duke Bigelow's Orrington hotel orchestra, card playing, and a number of entertainments throughout the evening. Saida A. Ballantine had charge of the evening's program. Among the entertainers were the Ferri Operatic Concert troupe, of which the members are Katherine Boyer, Margot Hayes, Senor Ferri, and George Graham; the Catarsi Spanish trio, who sang and played the harp; the de la Vega Spanish sisters, who gave a number of their native songs; Maude Deist, concert soloist; Lucia La Costa, coloratura soprano; and Robert Ballantine, radio harmonica player.

The Ladies' auxiliary sponsored the ball, and the proceeds are to be used to equip the dormitory for the first unit of the academy. Judging from the size of the crowd present at the ball, this dormitory should be very well equipped. Mrs. James W. Benett of Wilmette is president of the auxiliary, Mrs. Edgar Foster Alden of Winnetka is vice-president, Mrs. Sarah Langfitt is treasurer, Mrs. Joseph J. Coffey is corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Henry Scarborough, Jr., is recording secretary.

Announce Patron List for Watson Lectures

The North Shore Art league announces the list of those who are to be patrons and patronesses for the lectures by Dudley Crafts Watson given under its auspices. This group includes Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tenney, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Otis, Mrs. Franklin Rudolph, Mr. and Mrs. Carleton Washburne, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Durham, Mr. and Mrs. Laird Bell, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Hale, Mr. and Mrs. Ayres Boal, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bersbach, of Winnetka; Dr. and Mrs. L. Harrison Mettler and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Case of Hubbard Woods; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin H. Cassels, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce MacLeish, and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Stafford, of Glencoe; Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Ingerle of Highland Park, and Mr. and Mrs. Van Wegenin Alling of Lake Forest.

The first of the series is to be given in Matz hall, Community House, the locale for the course, Monday evening, October 10, when Mr. Watson will discuss in his inimitable way, "Art and Life in Spain."

Those who have not yet procured their tickets, may purchase them at the door.