

DRESSED CHICKENS

—MILK FED—

35c PER POUND

BROILERS—FRYING—ROASTING—STEWING HENS

All one price

YOUNG GUINEA HENS $1.00 EACH

Please call at our killing room and see us dress your poultry

HARRISON'S POULTRY FARM

ON WAUKEGAN ROAD, SOUTH OF LAKE AVE.

Opposite Schoolhouse
GLENVIEW, ILL.

Of the Women You Know

How Many Do or Supervise Their Own Washing?

JUST think a moment and call to mind your women friends who have time for an easy chair and a book, a round of golf, games with the children. How many of them do or supervise their family laundry?

We'll wager that most of them have turned washday into a day for living. They breathe sunshine and happiness, not steam-clouds and suds.

3,000 housewives enjoy this "washday-holiday" by giving the family laundry bundle to Bill the Washington Laundry Man, the representative of Quality work. He has relieved them, not merely of the washing and ironing, but of all the strains of supervision. Why not join them?

We offer services in keeping with every family need and every family budget. All-ironed services, Partially-ironed services, Services in which the clothes are returned damp for ironing at home.

The Washington Laundry

700-704 Washington Street EVANSTON, ILL.

Phone Wilmette 145

National College Group Preparing for Benefit

Much enthusiasm prevails among alumnae and friends of the National Kindergarten and Elementary college as they plan for the bridge to be given Saturday, October 15, at the college building, Harrison hall, 2770 Sheridan road, Evanston. Several of the larger rooms will be in use.

Proceeds from the affair will be added to complete the $10,000 pledge the north shore alumnae have made for the college building fund.

Mrs. Harry G. Phillips of Evanston and Mrs. Fred Porter of Ravinia are co-chairmen of general arrangements. Mrs. George Groves, Mrs. P. B. Kohl-saat, and Mrs. Robert R. Jarvie are on the refreshment committee, and Mrs. Alfred R. Bates is in charge of prizes.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Coyle, 1097 Cherry street, and their daughter, Mary Louise, recently have returned from a motor tour through the East. They stopped a few days in New York City and Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hole, and their two daughters, Janet and Mardean, who formerly lived in Winnetka and have been in Cleveland for a year and a half, have returned and are now at their home, 935 Tower road.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edgar Boyd and their daughter, Gene, of 803 Foxdale avenue, have moved to the Orrington hotel, Evanston, for the winter.

DANCING AND DINING

7 to 9 P. M.

Ye Olde Haylofte

$1.00 Dinner - No Cover Charge

ODD FELLOWS LIVEN UP TOWN OF BARRINGTON

A. T. Sherman Lodge Carries North Shore Go-Get-'Em Spirit to West

By A. H. H.

That A. T. Sherman Lodge No. 892, I. O. O. F., is very much alive as was demonstrated last week Thursday when over forty of its members made a trip in a chartered bus to the Odd Fellows' Lodge at Barrington.

A short lodge session was held in the hall in Wilmette at 6:30 p. m., and then the crowd left at 7:15 for Barrington, picking up members at Winnetka, Hubbard Woods, and Glencoe. It was a jolly bunch that crowded into Barrington's small hall at 8:20 that evening. With the members from the north shore those from Barrington and Palatine, there were over 100 Odd Fellows at the meeting.

The A. T. Shermanites started in immediately to liven things up. After facetious remarks from a number of the Sherman boys, there was community singing that could have been heard all through that quiet little town. But the police force did not molest us—for he was an Odd Fellow too. Besides, we had part of Winnetka's police department with us. Recitations by several members, stunts of various kinds by others, violin and accordion duets, banjo solos, story-telling, and music by the A. T. Sherman orchestra made the evening pass altogether too quickly. The refreshments of sandwiches and coffee, furnished by the visitors, were relished by all.

Miss Nancy McCloud of Kenilworth entertained on Saturday afternoon, October 1, celebrating her fifth birthday.

Fashions OF THE MOMENT THE MOMENT THEY ARE Fashioned

That is the supreme achievement of

Eva Karon Schur

In these models the inspiration of Paris & the ingenuity of New York combine to make unsurpassed loveliness in apparel—a combination restraining prices to the compass of the most modest purse.

EVA KARON SCHUR

Gowns and Sportswear

NORTH SHORE HOTEL - 1605 CHICAGO AVE.

EVANSTON