North Shore Men Expose Vote Frauds in Chicago

North Shore men have taken an active part in exposing Chicago and Cook county vote frauds, through the medium of the Citizens' Association of Chicago, of which Leslie F. Gates, 723 Eighth street, Wilmette, is first vice-president, and Shelby M. Singleton, 1104 Forest avenue, Wilmette, is secretary.

A bulletin issued recently by the association gives a detailed account of the action taken against vote frauds.

Other north shore men on the board of directors of the Citizens' association are: Joseph Donnersberger of Wilmette, Roy C. Osgood of Kenilworth, and Wilford C. Shurtleff of Wilmette.

The association bulletin congratulates the Chicago Bar association upon its "disinterested and effective activity for the suppression of ballot frauds under the presidency of William C. Boyden," who is a resident of Winnetka.

Mr. Durham had resided in Kenilworth for about ten years, having come here from New York City in 1918. He was born in Madison, Ind., on September 2, 1844 and resided with his parents, who had come to Indiana as pioneers, until about 30 years of age. In 1874 he came to Chicago where he maintained his home until 1915 when he removed to New York City. Mr. Howard Durham is the only survivor of the immediate family.

May Wood-Simons Is Chosen as Head of Woman's U. Club

The election of Mrs. May Wood-Simons to the presidency of the Woman's University Club of Chicago, the membership of Mrs. Arthur L. Whitely and Miss Eleanor L. Hall on the board of directors, and the appointment of Miss Hall as chairman of the membership drive about to be launched, gives north shore representation among its important officials.

Mrs. Simons succeeds in the presidency Mrs. Annie Peaks Kenny who is leaving Chicago. Mrs. Simons received her degrees from the University of Chicago and Northwestern university and is a member of the faculty in the department of economics at Northwestern, living at 2319 Sherman avenue. She is a leader in local civic and economic interests as chairman of the social service department of the Woman's club of Evanston, leader of the League of Women Voters' forum, a member of the University Guild and Drama club, and of the Woman's City club of Chicago.

Mrs. Whitely was formerly on the faculty of the School of Speech, N. U., and lives at 416 Greenwood boulevard. She took her college work at Northwestern and at the University of Minnesota. She is a prominent member of the Drama club and of the Catholic Woman's club, and is a dramatic reader of ability.

Miss Hall, the daughter of Mrs. W. T. Hall, 1509 Hinman avenue, received her degree from the University of Chicago, is a member of the board of directors of the Woman's Advertising Club of Chicago, a member of the American Association of University Women, the Chicago College and the Cordon clubs. She has recently resigned the position as manager of the women's department of S. W. Straus & Co., which she has held for the last three years, to devote her entire time to the interests of the club, as manager of its prospective membership drive.

The number of Evanston and North Shore university women who are members of the club will attend the first members' dinner to be given this evening at 6:30 at Maillard's.
