Lumber Companies Combined to Form Mercer Corporation

Announcement is made of the recent organization of The Mercer Lumber companies, a $750,000 lumber corporation, headed by F. E. Mercer, as president, with general offices in room 309 Carlson building, Evanston, and yards and branch offices in Evanston, Hubbard Woods, Niles Center and Deerfield.

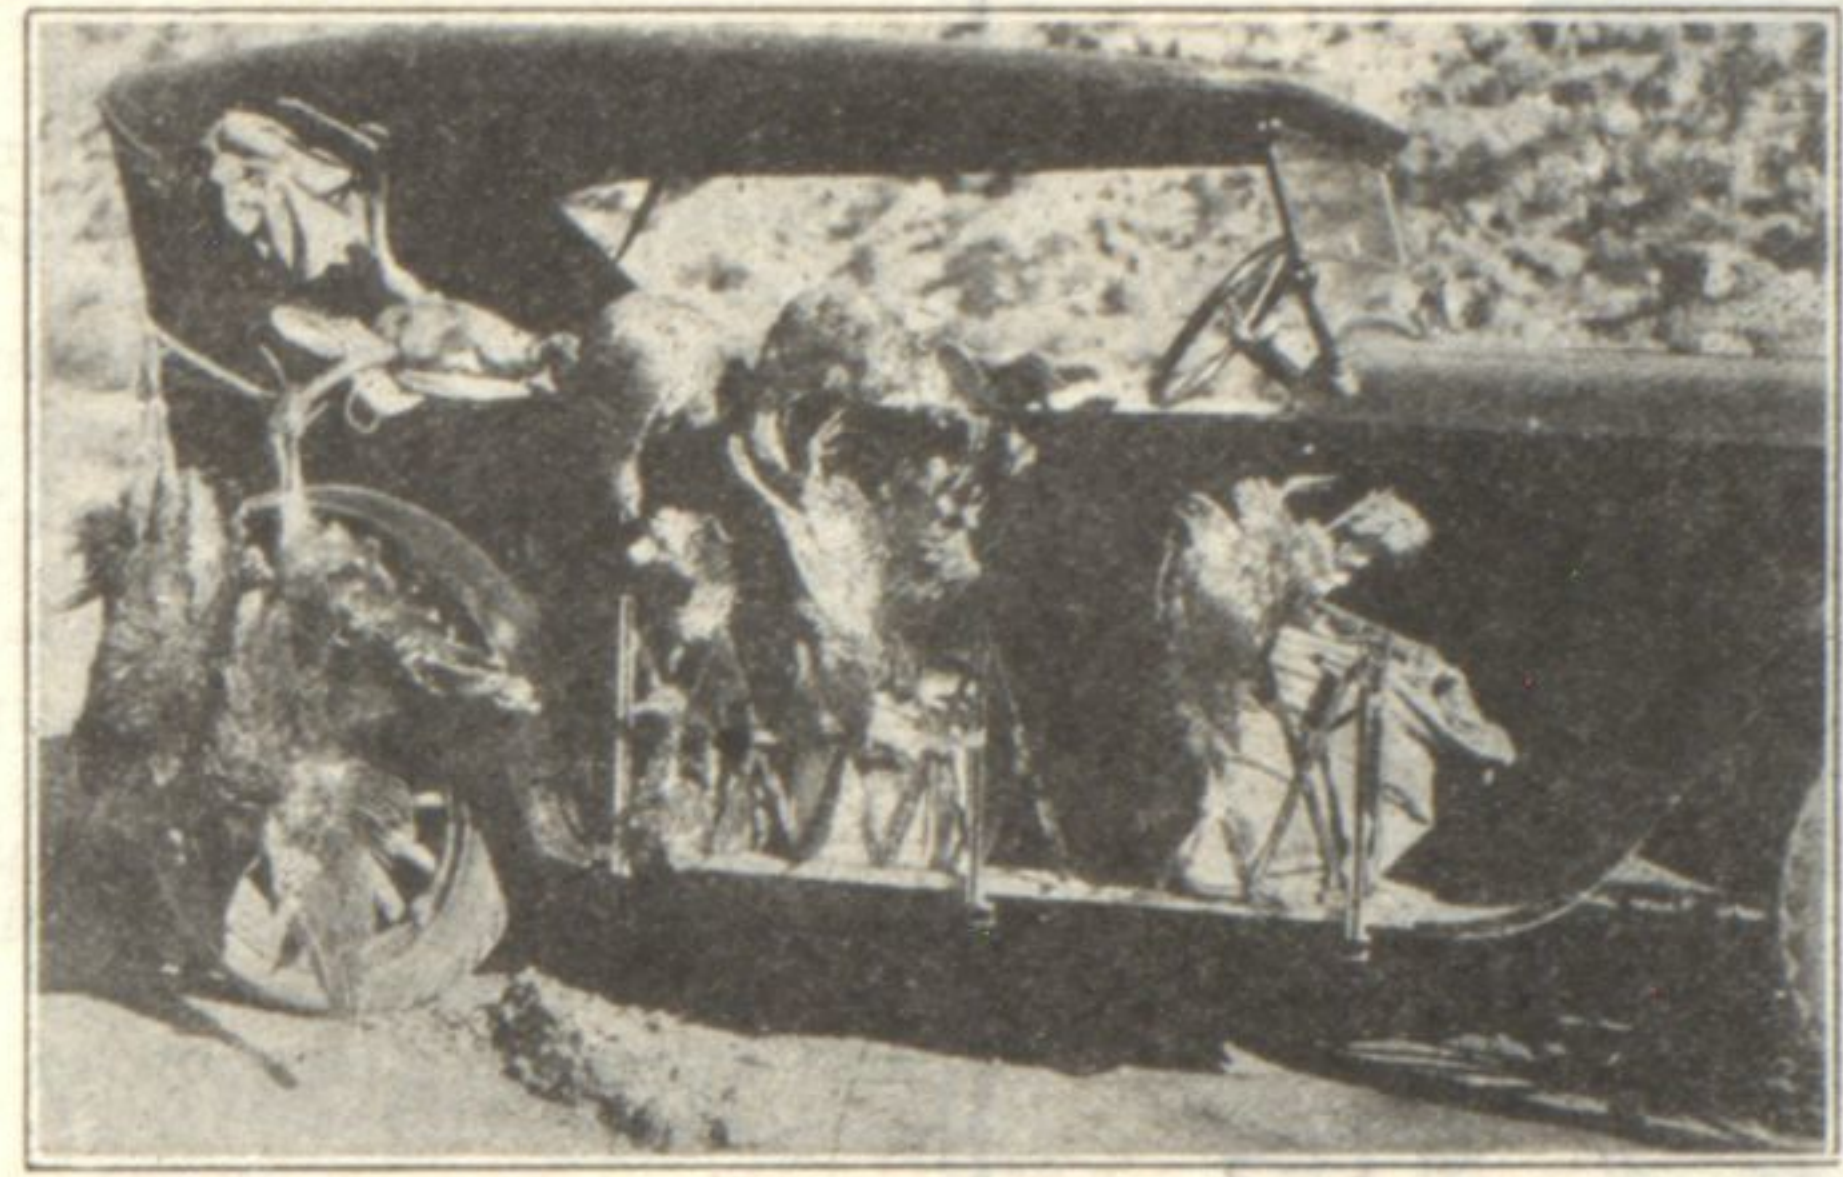

The new company combines the interests of the Evanston Lumber company, Hubbard Woods Lumber and Coal company, Niles-Edgebrook Lumber company and the Deerfield Lumber company.

The other officers of the corporation are, J. D. Mercer, vice president; George Fargo, secretary, and D. W. Mercer, treasurer.

For almost a quarter of a century lumber has been going out from the yards now combined by the Mercer interests to supply an everincreasing demand commensurate with the remarkable development of the great north shore area, and the newly organized company has made every preparation to keep pace with the future needs of the territory.

The purpose of the organization of The Mercer Lumber companies, it is announced, is to concentrate in both the buying and selling departments of the business in order to better serve present and prospective customers.

Mrs. Bentley McCloud entertained her bridge club Wednesday at her home on Kenilworth avenue.

Pack Trips Into the BIG GAME COUNTRY of the NEW MEXICO ROCKIES

Deer and turkey season in New Mexico is from Nov. 10th to 20th, and from comfortable Los Cerros, a Ranch Resort just two miles from Santa Fe, you can pack or motor into the back country where every man gets his buck and gobbler. Quail, duck and dove seasons extend much later and we can arrange complete details of pack or motor trips of any length. For a completely illustrated booklet address Edward H. Oakley,
