Friday, October 21 marks the formal opening of Chandler's new Sporting Goods Department.

We present to the public the finest Sporting Goods Department on the north shore. Measured by completeness of stock, facilities to care for the needs of the public and manufacturers represented, it has no equal.

Winberg Big Show as Kemper Eleven Thrashes Opponents

Howard Winberg, in a series of 75 and 90 yard runs for touchdowns has been furnishing the high spots of the season in the Kemper Military school victories over its football opponents. He is a former New Trier Student.

On October 29 Kemper goes to Culver, Ind., where it is confidently expected Fullback "Swede" Winberg will attain still greater fame. The Booneville, Mo., team and associates from the school will make the trip to Culver in a special coach coming via Chicago.

W. W. Winberg, father of the Kemper fullback and a number of his north shore friends will motor to Culver to witness this game.

Saturday of last week the Kemper team was victorious, 38 to 0, in its first annual football tilt with Principia academy at St. Louis. Four hundred Kemper fans accompanied the team on a special train, and had the pleasure of witnessing their favorite fullback, "the repeating gun," as he was termed by the St. Louis papers, score 5 of his team's 6 touchdowns.

In a former game with the Ozark Wesleyan eleven, in which Kemper won 33 to 0, Winberg was announced as one of the outstanding players for the winners. On the kick-off, with splendid interference, he ran ninety yards for a touchdown.

In another game, in which the Kemper cadets thrashed the Jefferson City Junior college eleven 6 to 0, Winberg was also the outstanding offensive player, according to the Kemper college paper, when, upon receiving a punt, he ran 75 yards for a touchdown.

Just for Those Early Teens

THERE was a time when the teen-age girl envied the vogueish footwear of her older sister. But that was before Pool & Piper introduced the Modern Miss Shoe.

Now grown-up sister may well envy the junior girl for the comfort of the precise juvenile lasts of Modern Miss Footwear—and for its style that is so thoroughly in the approval of the eye of discerning youth!
