Book Is Praised

Miss Ethel Preston of Evanston has been recently honored by the publication in Paris of a book about the technique of Balzac which has received highest praise from French scholars and which has been reviewed by important American critics, among them Ernest Boyd who reviewed the volume for the Boston Independent.

The title of the book is "Recherches sur la Technique de Balzac," its subtitle in English, "Reappearing Characters in Balzac's 'Comedie Humaine.'" Previously, in collaboration with Miss Elsie Schobinger of the Harvard school, Chicago, Miss Preston edited for the University of Chicago Italian series, Farina's "Fra le corde D' un contrabasso."

Miss Preston, who is a sister of the

Resume Swimming Classes for Children in N. T. Tank

The swimming classes, conducted every fall and winter for children of the north shore at the New Trier High school natatorium, will reconvene Saturday, October 29, it was announced this week. As in previous years the classes will be under the direction of Edgar B. Jackson, New Trier swimming coach, who has had charge of the high school natatorium for the past eleven years and has supervised all New Trier swimming activities during that period.

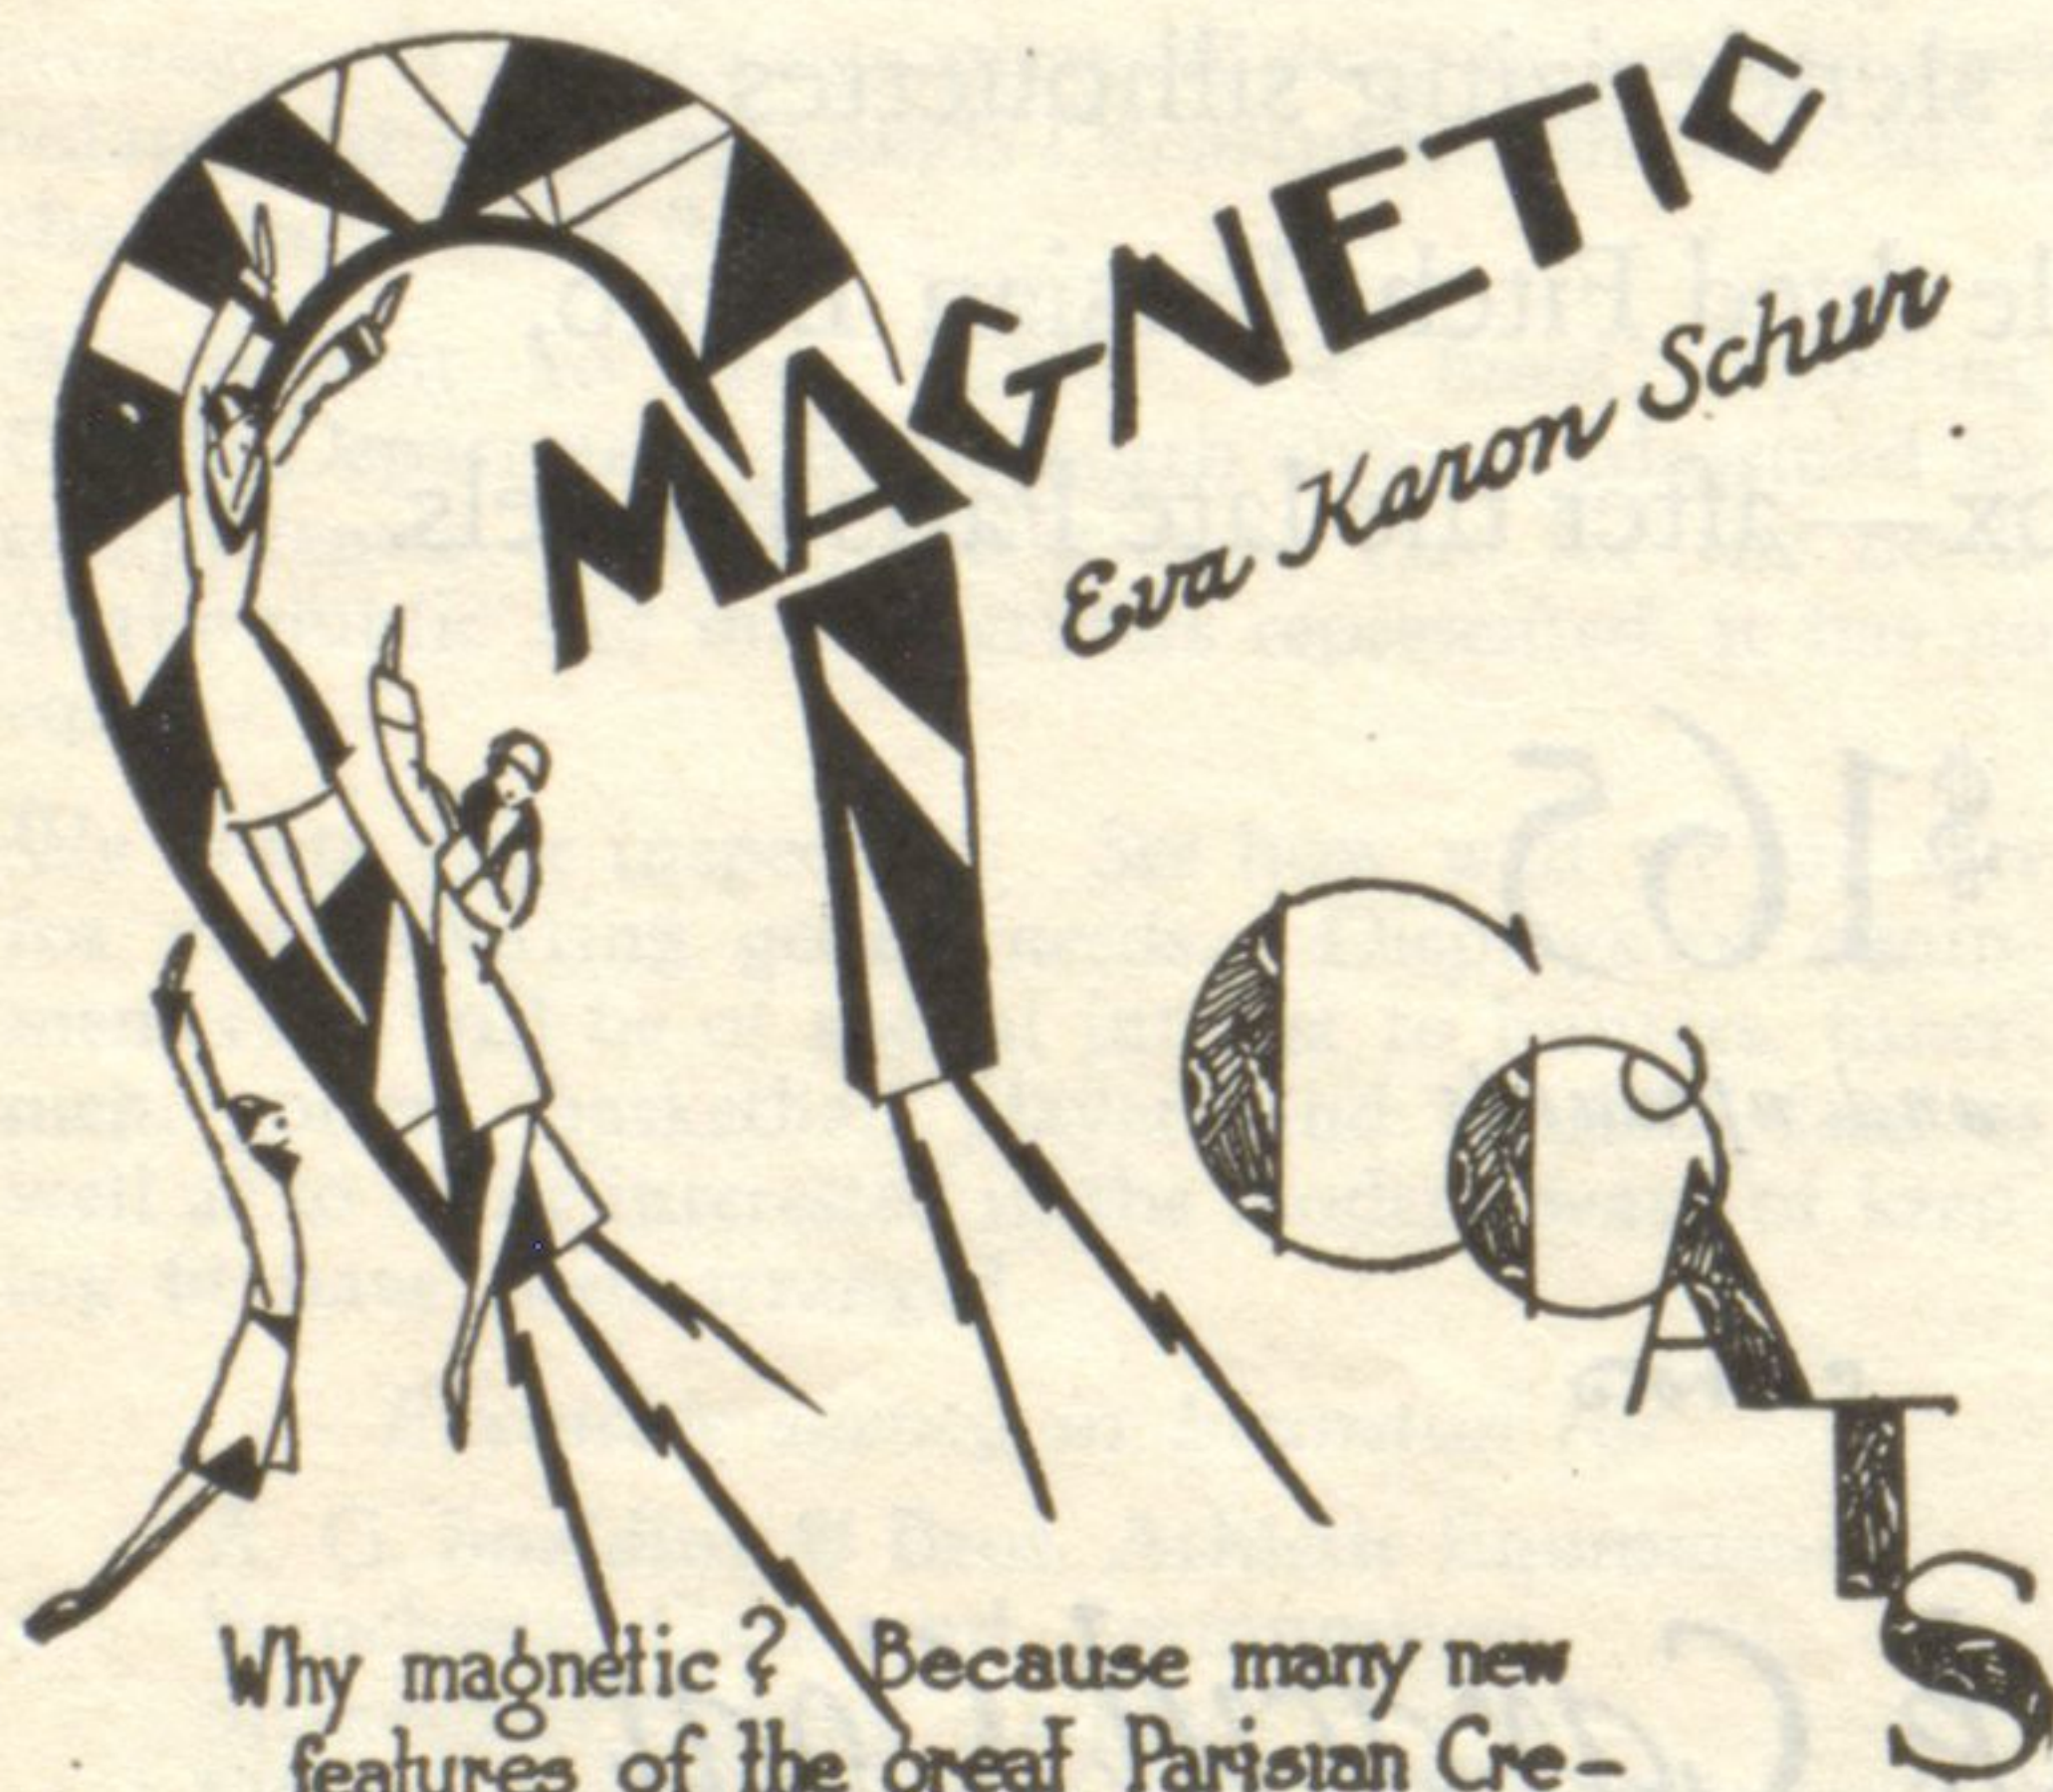

Both beginners' and advanced classes will be given for girls and boys six years and older and diving will be taught to all groups. The classes, for which a small fee to defray the expenses of operation will be charged, will be given in courses of ten lessons and will be held each Saturday morning. Pupils may register any Saturday and are invited to call Mr. Jackson at Winnetka 2400 daily or in the evening at University 6448.

GIVES BUNCO PARTY

Miss Florence Faber, who is president of the Mallinckrodt High school alumnae, gave a bunco party on Thursday at her home at 911 Seward avenue, Evanston, the proceeds of which were donated to the building fund of the new Mallinckrodt school building which is soon to be built.

Joseph Pick of Omaha, brother of Albert and Hugo Pick of Winnetka, is spending a few weeks here and is residing at the Georgian hotel in Evanston.

late Keith Preston, teaches French and Italian at Roycemore school. She is president this year of the Chicago Society of Romance Language Teachers and is vice president of Le Club Francais D'Evanston, and a member of the Music Study club.

Why magnetic? Because many new features of the great Parisian Creators find their way into these coats now for the first time. Only one feature is perennial—the uniformly low price level.
