

NEW TRIER GRID TEAM PREPARES FOR WHITING

Coach Aschenbach Polishes Up Defense and Offense for Game With Indiana Eleven

With the week-end un-encumbered by the usual football engagement, New Trier coaches and gridders are already at work preparing for the invasion of the Whiting, Ind., eleven on Saturday, October 29. While it is not expected that Whiting will present a very formidable line-up, there were several defects in the New Trier work in the Waukegan tilt last Saturday that must be polished-off to assure a perfect performing machine in the coming game. There was a slight lack of speed last Saturday in the charging of the line and the backfield was also somewhat slow in their offensive play. Then the New Trier eleven became a little loose in defense, and in the second quarter this resulted in the Waukegan touchdown that won the game. With these problems in mind, it is probable that Coach Aschenbach will put his boys through a pretty steady work-out during the coming week.

Lose to Waukegan

While New Trier lost to Waukegan on a 7-6 score last week, the game was far from a set-up for the Wisconsin eleven. Breaks—in this instance unfortunate breaks—and not a lack of stiff, conscientious drive and determination lost the tilt.

The first period of the game went all New Trier's way. New Trier kicked off to Waukegan but soon recovered possession of the ball and with machine like precision marched down the field to drive across the goal line for a touchdown in the first four minutes of the game. Fred Smith, New Trier fullback, carried the ball.

Late in the second quarter Levandusky of Waukegan received a New Trier punt and was downed on his 33 yard line. There immediately followed a splendid exhibition of football and in the face of strong New Trier opposition, Gordon, halfback, plunged through for a Waukegan touchdown. He followed through with a correctly placed goal, placing Waukegan in the lead 7-6.

Pass Called Illegal

The third quarter was a battle royal, neither team gaining greatly over the other. In the final period, however, New Trier plungers wrecked havoc on the Wisconsin line and the local line proved an insurmountable obstacle to the opposing tackles who strove to break through and get the ball carrier. Finally working the ball down to the Waukegan 10 yard line, Nelson, New Trier halfback, received the pass from center and dropping back a few paces, dropped the pig skin into the waiting arms of Markley who dashed across the line. And here was where "Lady Luck hung the Indian" on the locals for Referee Rich ruled that Nelson had not been far enough behind the line of scrimmage when he passed the ball and forthwith called it back. The ball was handed to Waukegan and the Wisconsin eleven drove back to mid-field where New Trier again gained possession. Determined not to allow the mishap to take away the laurels of victory, the locals bucked the line passed and again ran the ball to the 10 yard line but with the winning goal within reach, the "Indian again took his seat" and the game ended in Waukegan's favor.
