Troop 3 Elections

Frank Hilfert was elected Scout scribe and Ralph Burkhart troop bugler of Winnetka Scout troop 3 in elections held last Thursday night at the regular troop meeting at Community House.

The troop also decided to hold a hike this Saturday, October 22, and were to meet at Community House at 8:30 in the morning.

Elected Scout Scribe

Arthur Brooks was elected the Scout scribe of Winnetka Scout troop 2 by the members of the troop at its meeting at Community House last Thursday night.

Hold Examinations

The Winnetka Scout Council met last Friday night with Chief J. W. F. Davies presiding for the purpose of holding an examination for merit badges and class promotions for Scouts of the local troops. A large number of Scouts were present and passed tests.

Second Richards Lecture to Be Given Next Tuesday

Rev. James A. Richards will give another of his Tuesday morning lectures in the Neighborhood room of Community House, October 25.

"This course is concerned with the teachings of Jesus about life, about God, and about Himself," comments a member of the group. "It is to think of any subject that one would like to know about and understand as one would like to know this. The first lecture presented 'What Jesus Taught about God' in a natural convincing and delightful way. It made one look forward to the rest of the course with a great deal of anticipation."

William H. Scott Establishes Funeral Parlor in Winnetka

William H. Scott, prominent north shore funeral director, announced the opening this week of funeral parlors in Winnetka at 554 Center street, in addition to those previously established in Wilmette and Evanston. Coming as it does, soon after the opening of his "Funeral Home" in Wilmette, the establishment of the parlors in Winnetka marks still another step in his program of service for the north shore.

Mr. Scott has been in the undertaking business on the north shore for more than 24 years, having affiliated himself with the late John L. Hebblethwaite, Evanston Undertaker, in about 1903. Later he left this firm and opened a business of his own in Wilmette and Evanston.

Mr. Scott comes from a family that has long been associated with the undertaking business. At the present time, in addition to himself, there are six members of his family engaged in this profession, his mother and five cousins. His "Funeral Home" in Wilmette is the first and only establishment of its type on the north shore. Mr. Scott resides at 719 Ninth street, Wilmette.

Winnetka Contractors Get Awards in Glencoe Jobs

Bids were opened and contracts awarded by the Board of Local Improvements in Glencoe Tuesday evening, for the paving of Edgewood lane from Greenwood avenue to Grove street, Glencoe, and Euclid avenue from Scott avenue to the north limits of Winnetka, a distance of only a few feet.

Paul Reschke of Winnetka, on his bid of $9,218, was awarded the contract for the Edgewood lane paving, the only other bid received being that of the E. A. Meyer Construction company of Highland Park, for $9,304.

Charles Burkitt and company, also of Winnetka, received the contract for the Euclid avenue paving, their bid being $583.90. Paul Reschke's bid for this work was $585 and the bid of the E. A. Meyers' Construction company was $626.60.

Black and White Cab Co., Adds Auto Repair Service

The Black and White Cab company, 552 Lincoln avenue, Winnetka, specializing now in cab service, announces that beginning November 1 it will have its shop fully equipped for doing all kinds of auto repair work, and particularly specializing in welding and "bump" work—straightening bodies and fenders. That is, auto bodies, Manager William Merrill explains. If it is a human body that gets bumped, you had better call an M. D., he says.
