Noted Author

As an author, Dr. Kuo was editor-in-chief of the largest Anglo-Chinese dictionary now in existence. He is the author of several books in English, including "The Chinese System of Public Education," regarded as the best treatment of Chinese education in English.

Dr. Kuo is in constant demand as a public speaker. He has lectured before all types of audiences including The League for Political Education, Williamstown Institute of Politics,

Foreign Policy association, public forums, universities, colleges, men's and women's clubs and various other organizations. He is a forceful, eloquent and magnetic speaker, as evidenced by the remarkably fine reports of his addresses.

Wilmette Boy Wins Place in Players' Organization

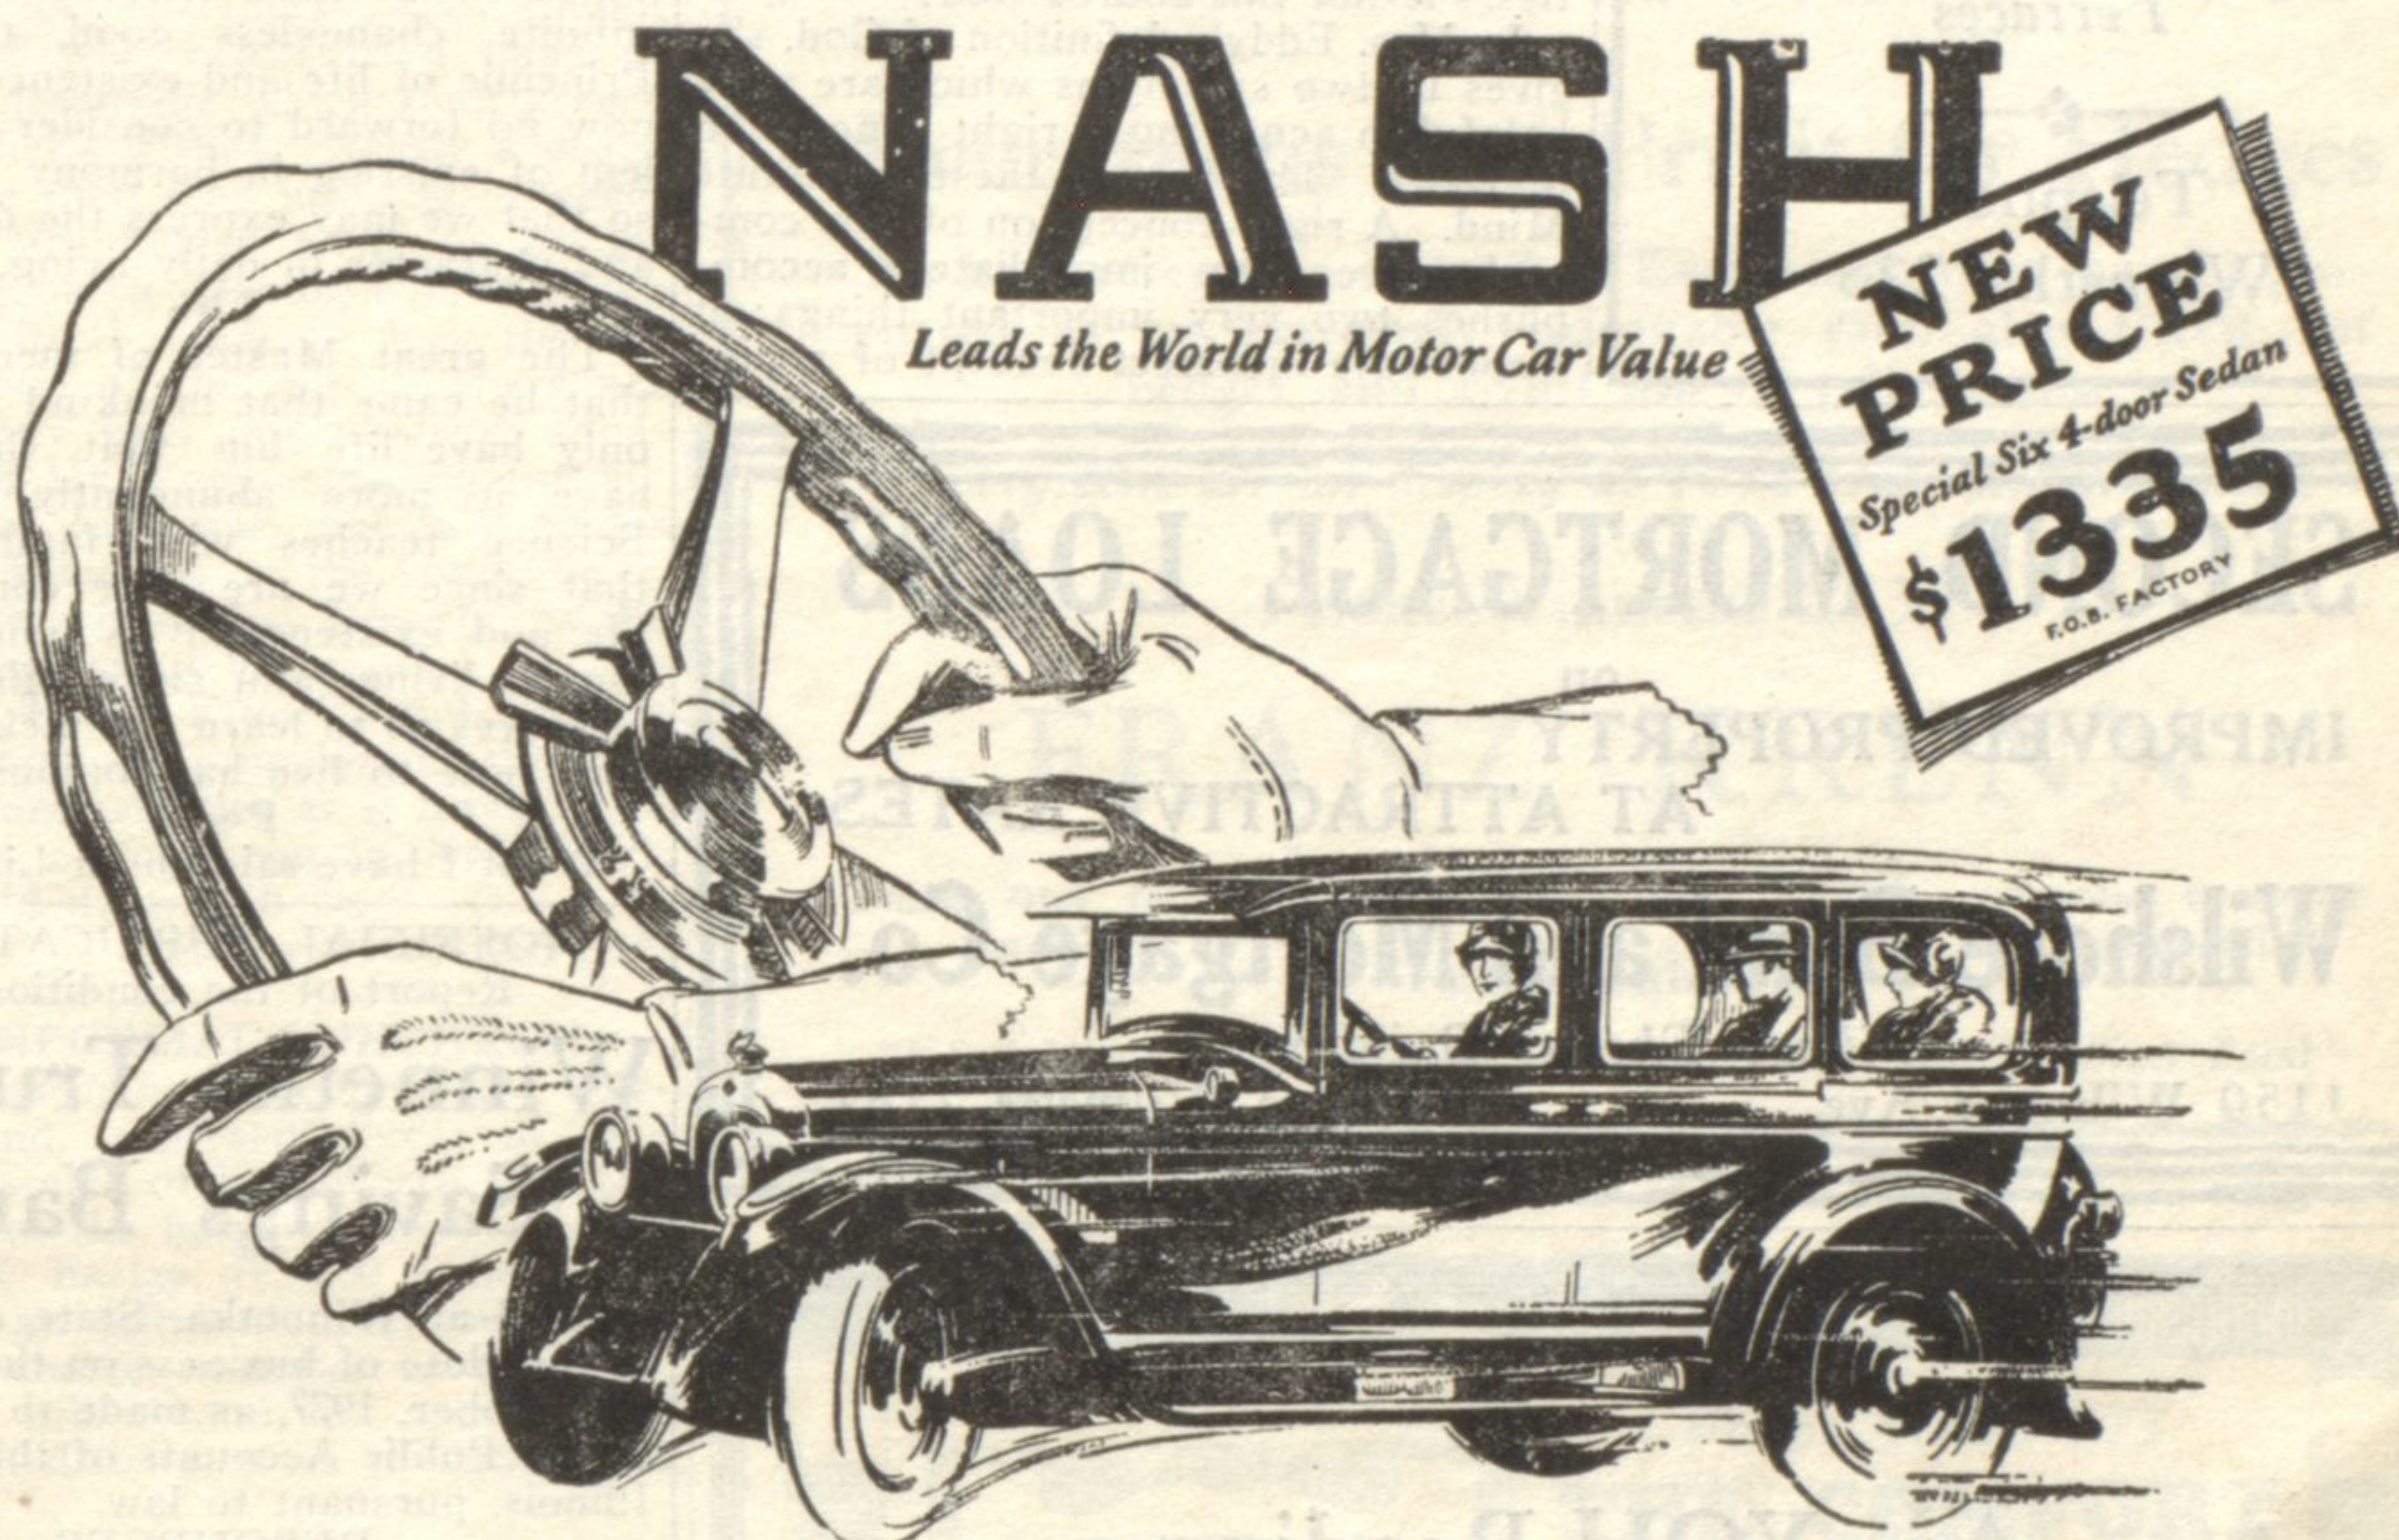

Francis Hughes, son of Bishop and Mrs. Edwin Holt Hughes of 941 Sheridan road, Wilmette, is one of thirty freshmen selected for membership in the Freshmen Players, dramatic organization at Ohio Wesleyan university. One hundred freshmen applied for membership in this group.

The Freshmen Players is an auxiliary to the Histrionic club, dramatic group composed of upper classmen. The first-year organization will assist the Histrionic club in presenting several plays this year.

Glenview Man, Injured in Accident, Returns to Home

Urban Levernier, of Glenview, who was seriously injured in an automobile accident at Libertyville two weeks ago last Friday, had recovered sufficiently to be able to be removed to his home, Saturday of last week. Herb and Frank Rugen, also of Glenview, and Ed Meyer of Wilmette, were with Levernier when the car in which they were driving was struck by a train. The members of the party escaped serious injury except Levernier, who had several ribs fractured. He is now at home, but the physician says he will be laid up for a long time.

New ~~STEERING~~ ease light as a feather to turn

The easiest steering motor car on earth today is Nash.

There is no tedious winding up and unwinding of the steering wheel, when you turn a corner.

Parking is done without a struggle.

And, in a traffic emergency, see how your Nash gets out of the way at a mere hint from your hand on its wheel.

It is a pleasure to drive a Nash. Easy steering. Smoothness and quietness beyond comparison. Extra power from the big Nash 7-bearing motor. And easier riding on any road over the new Nash springs of secret process alloy steel.

Nash is a finer motor car. Look at the Nash Special Six Four-Door Sedan for instance. Here's luxury for five passengers—exquisite in every detail—finished in finest quality mohair—walnut panelled—solid walnut steering wheel with light control at your finger tips—all instruments in one charming, indirectly lighted, easily-read panel—new form-fitting cushions for rest and relaxation—and only $1335 f. o. b. the Nash factory.

Be your own salesman. Easy steering is only one of many Nash superiorities which a ride will reveal. Come in today.
