Scouts Receive Examination and Entertain Dads

At the regular monthly meeting of the Winnetka Boy Scout Troop council the following boys passed their Tenderfoot examination:

Troop 1—Clyde Murphy, John Elliott, Richard Hoffman, Dwight Green, Donald Reilly, Lawrence Trumbull, Teddy Lundy.

Troop 4—Frank Seyl, John Danley, Robert Hodge, Kimball Renwick, Robert Harding, Lewis Williams, Jr.

William Kidd passed his merit badge in craftsmanship in metal.

Last Thursday night the parents visited the troop meeting from 7:30 until 8:10. Then the four troops assembled with their parents in the gymnasium. The troops were inspected and "Chief" Davies spoke briefly on the meaning of Scouting. Troop 4 was under the leadership of H. Sherman Aldrich and Robert Brown, which included the fathers of Troop 4. Troop 3, under the leadership of James Goetz, then gave an exhibition in wall scaling. Troop 2, under the leadership of Robert Doepel, put on an O'Grady drill down. Troop 1, under the leadership of Dr. George Eisenbrand, put on exhibitions of Scout work by patrols.

The troops were then formed in a hollow square with the colors front and center and, after the formal closing exercises, the Scouts served refreshments to their parents.

What Chickens!*WITH SURPRISING NEW DELICIOUSNESS

Here is chicken specially raised for good eating. All the science of chicken breeding and feeding is used to make these chickens tender, meaty and full flavored. To eat them is to know a new joy in your favorite food for these are really a new kind of chicken—as different from ordinary chicken as good old-fashioned home made pie is from factory made.

WAPSIE VALLEY CHICKEN

Such chickens can only come from one place—from the very heart of America's poultry country—from the rich, fertile farm lands of Iowa. Here the Wapsie Valley Chickens are carefully raised and scientifically fed. When ideal for eating they are individually dressed, "dry pickled." Never are they allowed to soak in water. They are all chicken from start to finish. Separately wrapped in clean white parchment paper, crated and shipped direct to your dealer, and to the famous club and restaurant kitchens of the world.

NOTICE

Any claim to have "Fresh Direct Shipment" of Genuine Wapsie Valley Brand Poultry by dealers other than the ones mentioned is a misrepresentation; accept no substitution.
