

Some Day—Soon— Spires and Gables Will Rise from SKOKIE ACRES

Skokie! Today—a rural section of rare beauty. Tomorrow—a suburb of fine homes and thriving business centers.

Today—a secluded valley, brought in close by a fast, new electric line costing eleven million dollars, where the city man can give his family the benefits of bracing country air, outdoor sports, and a natural environment supreme. A few years hence—a vast, built-up community, with property values at a level that means profit to the families that moved there early.

Here is a region of opportunity, where the westward overflow of the thickly populated North Shore naturally follows wide, well-paved motor roads. Here, Quinlan & Tyson can offer you three, four and five acre homesites affording a wide margin of profit. This organization, specialists in all the varied opportunities of the North Shore, is well equipped to assist you in developing a profitable Skokie investment.

Our new booklet contains other facts concerning the Skokie Valley. Get your copy of "In Greater Chicago—Where to Invest." Come in, phone or write—and let's discuss Skokie.
