

Autumn Brides and Benefits Hold Interest of Society

Indian Summer's Touch Lends Its Charm to Wedding

BY VIRGINIA HEDRICK

One of the really very lovely weddings of Kenilworth was that of Miss Alice Shipman to Lester Branch on last Saturday evening. There had been various announcements of this event and friends had looked forward to it with eager anticipation. Even the weather seemed to lend itself to suit the occasion, for it was a perfect Indian summer's evening.

The Church of the Holy Comforter, where the service was read, filled to capacity, seems especially well planned for ceremonies of this kind. The long center aisle was lighted on either side by tapers, and on opposite sides of the altar were huge masses of pink and lavender chrysanthemums and autumn leaves shining above the branches of lighted candelabra. The Rev. Leland Danforth officiated.

The bride was very beautiful in her mother's wedding gown of heavy ivory satin, trimmed in Chantilly lace, which has been in the family a hundred years. Her bouquet was of lilies-of-the-valley, sweet peas and orchids. Her bridesmaids were each in pink chiffon velvet gowns, made very simply, without ornament, in a quaint old fashioned style, and they carried old fashioned bouquets of pink roses, sweet peas, and snapdragons. The maid of honor, Elizabeth Shipman, sister of the bride, was in orchid velvet, carrying the same type of flowers with the added touch of lavender sweet peas and delphinium to carry out the color of her gown. Each attendant had a band of tulle about her hair caught with a single rosebud.

The little ring bearer, Bobbie Branch, nephew of the groom, was dressed in white satin. Mrs. George Shipman, mother of the bride, was in flesh colored chiffon, ornamented with pearls and brilliants.

The large reception which followed the wedding service, at the Kenilworth club, gave evidences of the popularity of these young people and of the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Shipman. Among those from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Hinsey, Ottumwa, Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Amsbury, Champaign, Ill., Mrs. David Proctor, Peoria, Ill., and L. C. Merriman of Canton, Ohio. The club rooms were beautifully decorated in roses and greens and the guests were entertained by soft violin music throughout the evening.

Although no formal announcement has been made as yet it is understood that Miss Jeannette Cherry will be a bride in the very near future. She will marry Marshall Branch, brother of the groom of last Saturday.

Engagement Announced at Luncheon Last Monday

Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Case of 160 Sheridan road, Hubbard Woods, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Carolyn, to Lawrence Everett Norem of Winnetka. The announcement was made at a luncheon given Monday for a number of Miss Case's friends. The date of the wedding is indefinite.

Miss Case, who was graduated from Smith college in 1926, made her debut early last December. She is a member of the Chicago Junior league. With her parents, she spent the past summer traveling in Europe, returning to Hubbard Woods in September.

Mr. Norem was graduated in 1922 from the University of Wisconsin. He is a member of Alpha Tau Omega.

Walling Home Opened for Infant Welfare Reception

Mrs. Willoughby G. Walling opened her charming home in Hubbard Woods on Wednesday afternoon for the annual Infant Welfare tea. Mrs. Lawrence Howe presided and expressed the gratification of the board that this year the entire budget of $7900 has been raised with an expense of only $26.

Mrs. E. V. L. Brown introduced the speaker of the afternoon, Mrs. Franklin McLane, who is herself a doctor and head of the Woman's bureau of the Public Health institute and assistant director of the Social Hygiene council in Chicago. She has just returned from a year in an American hospital in China, where she did obstetrical and pre-natal work among the Chinese. Her talk gave an interesting glimpse of that work which is the nearest to our Infant Welfare now existing in China. In closing, she mentioned the necessity for more psychiatric work in Chicago in connection with the Infant Welfare. At present, the society is doing excellent work for babies and for expectant mothers, but it has only one psychiatrist, who goes from one to another of the twenty-three stations.

The Winnetka branch of the Infant Welfare society of Chicago announces that it is very pleased with its report for the year and is grateful to its many subscribers for their generous support.

Winnetka Girl Introduced to Society at Tea Today

Miss Betty Pain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Pain of 1417 Tower road, makes her debut today at a tea given at the home of her sister, Mrs. Arthur C. Sullivan of 830 Hill road. The tea is to be held from 4 until 7, and will be followed by a dinner dance, also to be given at Mrs. Sullivan's home. About forty guests will attend the dinner dance.

Assisting at the tea will be Miss Virginia Wallace and Miss Margot Atkin, both Winnetka debutantes this year, and Miss Mary Carman, Miss Margaret Sinclair, Miss Josephine Monroe, Miss Rosemary Morrison, Miss Muriel Veigler, and Miss Ruth Farnum.

Mrs. James Prindiville of 717 Rosewood avenue will entertain at luncheon on November 3, for three of this year's debutantes: Miss Pain, Miss Ethel Harmon, and Miss Margot Atkin, who is to make her debut on Thanksgiving afternoon.

Miss Pain attended the North Shore Country Day school and later went to Dobbs Ferry.

Guests at Luncheon

Mrs. James N. Rawleigh of 933 Hill road and Mrs. Ernest Lee Hughes of Cedar street were guests of honor at a luncheon Friday of last week at the Drake hotel. Fifty guests were present at the affair, which was given by Mrs. William Burton, mother of Mrs. Rawleigh and mother-in-law of Mrs. Hughes.

Hosts at Dance

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Farwell of 1412 Scott avenue and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph M. Snyder of 1311 Asbury avenue entertained one hundred of their friends at a dance at the Winnetka Woman's club Thursday evenings, October 20. Cope Harvey's Indian Hill orchestra played for the dancing.

The next meeting of the North Shore Vassar club will be held at the home of Mrs. Roy Jay Cook, 2131 Orrington avenue, Evanston, Wednesday, November 2, at 2:30 o'clock.

Junior League Troupe Is to Perform in Winnetka

The Junior League Children's theatre is coming to Winnetka this year with its winter repertoire. The plays are to be given at the Skokie school. The first will be on Wednesday afternoon, November 20, at 4 o'clock.

The Junior league is an organization recruited every year from the season's debutantes. Candidates are proposed by members and are passed upon by the board and then serve term on probation, during which time they must attend lectures and classes of various sorts. Membership in the league is eagerly sought and regarded as a real privilege.

The field of service is large and includes social service and charitable works of nearly every possible sort. Every year a large sum of money is raised. The Chicago league a few years ago took the interesting viewpoint that it was not enough to raise the money for a worthy end; that it should also be raised in a way that was in itself an educational project. Out of this idea grew the Children's theatre, producing the most valuable plays for children in the most charming, whimsical manner. The league now has an experienced troupe to which it is constantly adding.

The opening play this year is an adaptation of Thackeray's delicious "Rose in the Ring." Miss Marian McFadden will be the irresistible "Giglio," Mrs. Charles Fargo the haughty "Angelica," Miss Daisianna Smith the charming "Betsinda," and the famous "Gruffenuff" will be played by Mrs. John Winterbotham, Jr. These will be supported by a large and able cast.

The plays in Winnetka will be given for the benefit of the Winnetka Nursery school.

Debutantes Will Sell

Cigarets at Big Ball

A group of debutantes will have charge of the sale of cigarettes at the ball to be given for the benefit of the Vocational Society for Shut-Ins on Saturday, November 5, at the new Lake Shore Athletic club. Mrs. Walter Paepke is chairman of the cigaret girls, and has working under her: Miss Rue Winterbotham, Miss Janet Fairbank, Miss Louise Carr, Miss Jane Condon, Miss Jane and Miss Betty Scriven, and the Misses Emily and Marion Smith of Highland Park. Mrs. John Farwell is also among the group.

The ball promises to be a great success, with Paul Ash's orchestra providing the music for dancing, and entertainers from a number of Chicago theaters presenting their acts throughout the evening.

Mrs. Charles Officer, Winnetka 2151, and Mrs. James W. Marshall, Winnetka 1128, have tickets for this affair. Mrs. Laird Bell of Winnetka is selling boxes, and Mrs. Albert S. Gardner of Winnetka divides the general chairmanship of the ball with Mrs. Eric Scudder and Mrs. Clair E. More.

Announce Marriage

At a reception given last Saturday evening at the Indian Hill club, Mr. and Mrs. James White of 1341 Tower road announced the marriage of their daughter, Margaret, to John Henry Glenn of Fargo, N. D. About three hundred guests attended the reception. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn are now at home in Allendale, N. D.

Mr. and Mrs. William P. Sidley, 739 Humboldt avenue, are entertaining about forty guests at a Hallowe'en dancing party at their home this evening.

Local Residents in Campaign for Y. W. C. A. Funds

Plans are being made for the $200,000 drive which the Chicago Young Woman's Christian association opened on October 21. The funds to be secured in the drive are needed to cover the budget difference between the income which the work provides and the expense of maintaining the many services which the association offers to every Chicago girl through its housing, education, recreation, emergency help, and employment programs.

Clarence S. Pellet is general chairman of the campaign. Associated with him are Eugene Buffington, president of the Illinois Steel company, as head of the industrial division, which will get in contact with large industrial organizations by people connected with them; John Stuart of Hubbard Woods, president of the Quaker Oats company, as head of the special gifts committee; David Forgan, vice chairman of the National Bank of the Republic, as treasurer of the campaign; William C. Boyden of Winnetka, Chicago attorney, as chairman of publicity; and Frank Loomis of Glencoe, secretary of the Community Trust, as chairman of the loop division, which is organized into forty-two teams of seven men each, a total of 294. The business woman's organization is headed by Mrs. Ora Snyder. Mrs. Mabel Reinecke, collector of internal revenue, is chairman of the city organization, which will conduct the campaign outside of the loop, and Miss Harriot P. Houghteling is in charge of the work in the suburban communities. Mrs. Clifford W. Barnes is chairman of meetings.

Speaking of the need for the cooperation of the public in the Y. W. C. A. service program, Mr. Pellet says "It would appear unnecessary to argue for the value of a Y. W. C. A. in a city like Chicago. It has definitely established itself as a necessary institution. It has a splendid record of progress. Naturally as the city grows, the work must grow, and just as naturally as our ideas of service grow in all lines of business and endeavor, the work of the Y. W. C. A. must grow. Therefore, it becomes necessary occasionally to make an appeal for larger funds, and such an appeal is to be made in the last week of October and the first week of November. The amount to be raised, $200,000 seems moderate for the work to be undertaken."

Mrs. Warner Cary Lewis of Kenilworth, is chairman of the work in that village, and Mrs. Wheaton Augur, also of Kenilworth, is one of the Evanston captains. Mrs. William P. Sidley, 739 Humboldt avenue, Winnetka, is chairman of the Winnetka and Hubbard Woods workers, Assisting her are Mrs. Ernest S. Ballard, 811 Auburn road, Mrs. Morris K. Wilson, 429 Sheridan road, and Mrs. Marcus D. Richards, 1240 Tower road.

Makes Bow in November

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lamson will introduce their daughter, Elizabeth, to society at a tea to be given at their home, 940 Sheridan road, Winnetka, on November 17.

Assisting at the debut tea will be Miss Margot Atkin, Miss Marjory Janney, Miss Virginia Wallace, Miss Betty Pain, Miss Elinor Dennehy, of Winnetka, and Miss Marjorie Miller of Glencoe.

Miss Lamson was graduated this June from Bradford Junior college, in Boston. Before going to Boston, she attended the North Shore Country Day school.
