compelled to resort to the telephone to reach as many as an hundred individuals during the last three days preceding the first concert. Anyone who has ever undertaken the task of reaching successfully by telephone even fifteen persons will appreciate what this means. With it goes the worry and responsibility of selling to capacity if the concerts are to continue. In this connection we wish to correct a false ticket are not available. The fact is we need some new subscribers as well as old subscribers now to take up their subscriptions now.

With all this now understood, we are confident, that those who have subscribed for the coming season, but have as yet failed to respond, will promptly take up their subscriptions, or notify the secretary, Mrs. B. K. Smith, 517 Orchard lane, Winnetka, telephone, Winnetka 216, of their intention to abandon them, and that those who have not subscribed but consider doing so, will hasten to give Mrs. Smith their names, addresses and checks. We even hope that those of our subscribers who earnestly wish to retain the symphony orchestra as an institution here, will, to that end, actively assist in securing new subscriptions.

Cite Educational Value

The educational value and importance of these orchestral concerts has induced the officers and committee of this association after careful consideration, to appeal directly to your civic pride in maintaining them. To hear them at a point a little more than a stone's throw from our homes is a rare opportunity; to maintain them for the education of our children is one of our myriad civic duties; and to spare the officers and committee of the association unnecessary labor and worry is a courtesy in which, now being in our confidence, none will fail.

Business Girls' Group Plans Social Evening

Tuesday evening, November 1, the Business Girls' club is planning a social evening in Community House. This group of young women meets regularly each Tuesday evening for an hour in the gymnasium under the direction of Mrs. Edgar Dale, after which the members hold their regular club meeting, with Mrs. Dale and Miss Margaret Carswell as leaders.

Plans are afoot for social times this winter, and these will be outlined and discussed Tuesday evening. The latter part of the evening will be given over to bridge and dancing, followed by refreshments.

Our years of experience in this territory are of invaluable assistance to those seeking guidance for the investment of funds large or small. We have circulars describing a number of select Real Estate Bond offerings.

LA SALLE

Types and Styles for Every Taste and Need

No member of the family escapes the wide appeal of the La Salle. You have undoubtedly admired individual models as they flashed by. But step into the showroom and study the whole line. Note the varied body types, ranging from two-passenger roadsters and coupes to spacious seven-passenger sedans—spirited models for individual use and distinguished sedans for the larger needs of the entire family. Yet each truly a La Salle, Cadillac designed and built and powered with the famous 90-degree, V-type, 8-cylinder engine and each a product of General Motors, which means that the value per dollar invested is beyond compare.

Priced from $2495 to $2895, f. o. b. Detroit

You may possess a La Salle on the liberal term-payment plan of the General Motors Acceptance Corporation—the appraisal value of your used car acceptable as cash
