"I err greatly if I suppose that the age of miracles is over and gone. If I and my fellows would but remember the abiding presence and power of the risen and exalted Christ, the old word would be realized again: 'They went forth, and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word by the signs that followed.'"

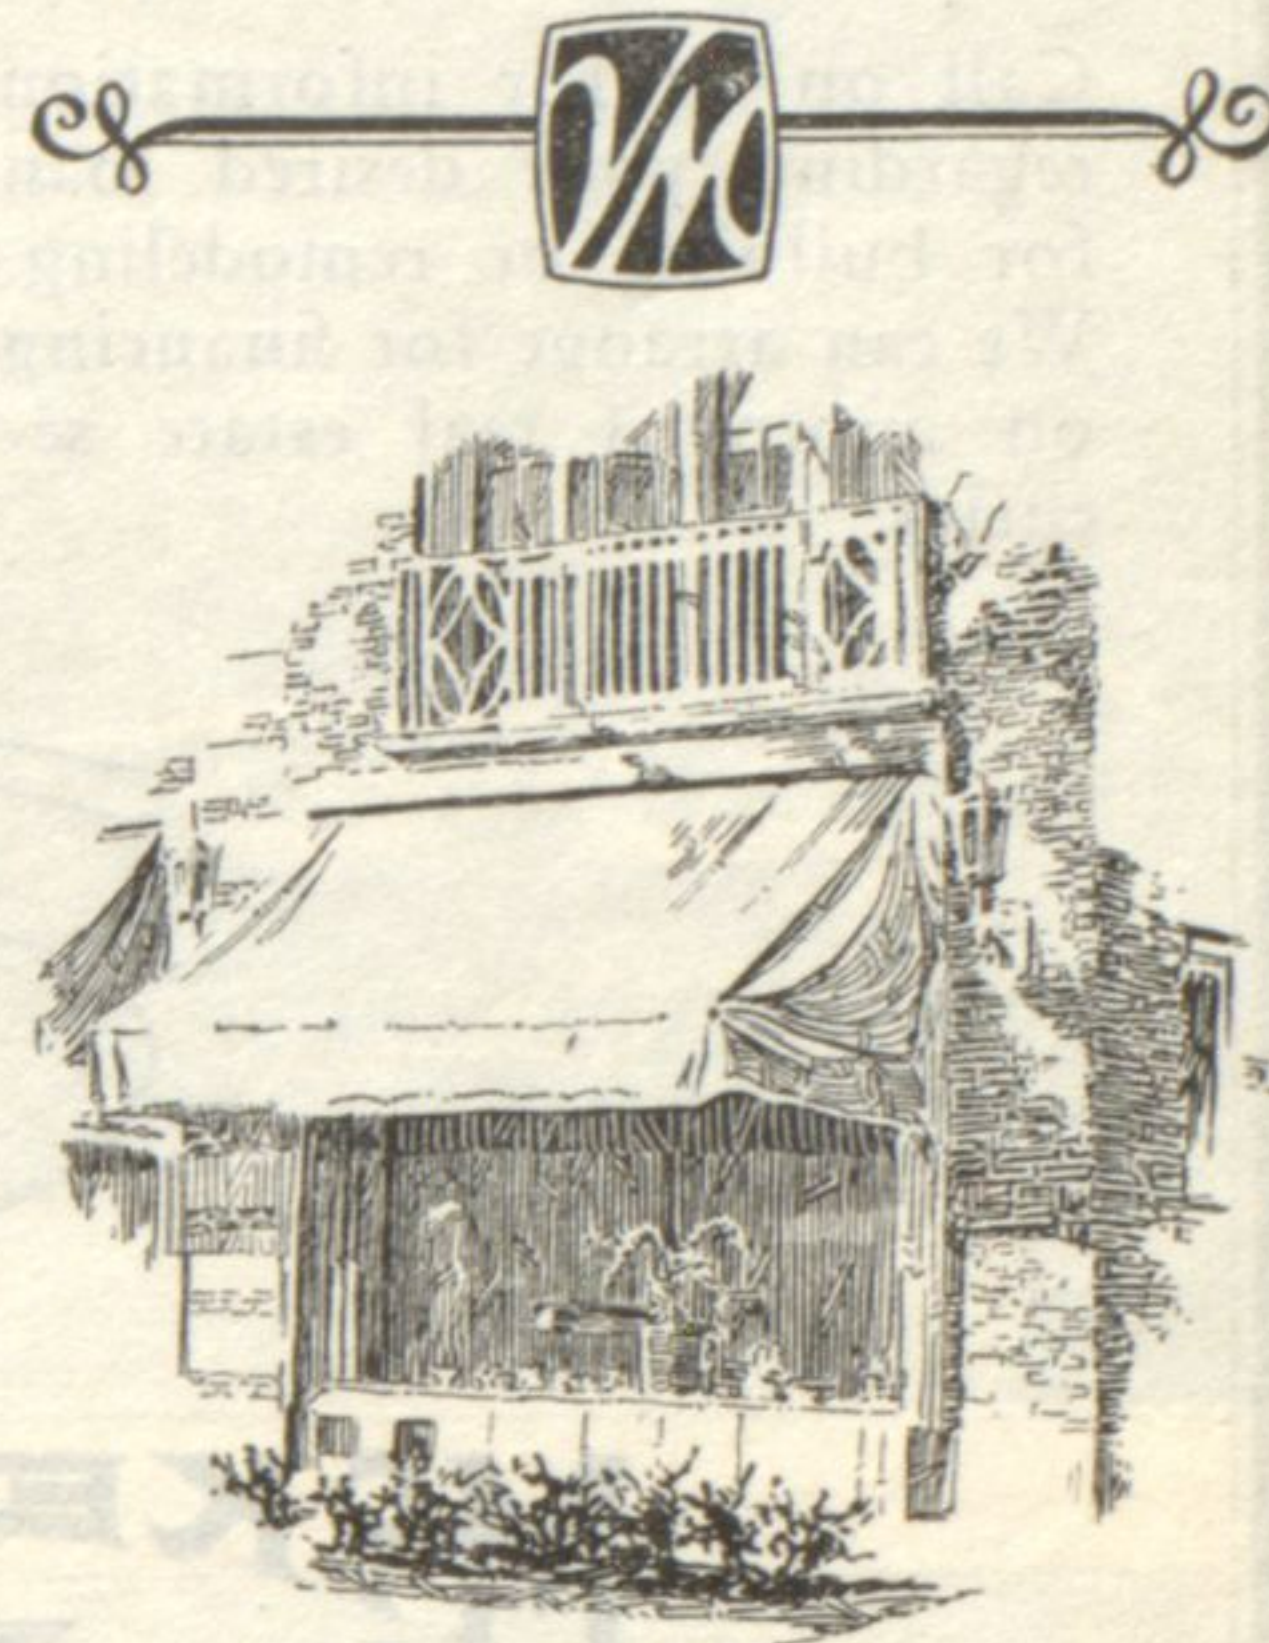

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Marx have returned from a ten days' trip to Boston and New York. They visited their son, Walter, Jr., a student at Williams college, Williamstown, Mass., and stopped en route to see Frances Oleson at The Hillside school, Norwalk, Conn. While in Boston they visited Miss Wheelock's school in which Jean Marx is planning to attend next year.

BROADCASTS MONDAY

Mrs. Floy Little Bartlett of Winnetka will give the program to be broadcast Monday morning, October 31, at 9 o'clock, over the Daily News station, WMAQ, for Chicago School assemblies.

Mrs. Bartlett will be assisted by Noreen Whitney, violinist, of the Whitney trio of Chicago. Their program on Mozart will be sent over the air for children of the primary grades.

Dr. Herbert Willett continues his very popular informal evening talks on "The Books of the Bible," every Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

A familiar Evanston corner

NOW Evanston has another street intersection as well-known as Fountain Square itself—it's the Vera Megowen Corner, Davis Street and Hinman Avenue.

For here is a delightfully smart tea room in a block of smart new shops. Here is a cuisine such as one would willingly go far to seek, yet The Vera Megowen is fortunately a neighbor to the important centers of social interest.

Truly an institution of life on the North Shore!

Luncheon: 11:30-2:30
Afternoon Tea: 2:30-5:30
Dinner: 5:30-8:30
Sunday until 9:00
