

"Revolt of Youth" Author to Address Uptown Forum

The Uptown Forum, meeting in the People's church, at Lawrence avenue and Sheridan road, Chicago, will hear next Sunday evening, Stanley High of New York on "The Decline of Docility in the Non-white World." Mr. High is a young journalist, who several years ago drew nation-wide attention by his book on the "Revolt of Youth." He has just returned from a year's trip around the world, in which he was fortunate in being able to penetrate some of the dramatic episodes of racial movements on three continents—Europe, Africa, and Asia.

On this occasion he will discuss the awakening of the blacks in Africa, and of the peoples in India, China, and Japan. He reports events of world-wide importance, indicating the passing of domination by the white race over peoples in all parts of the world. Mr. High's address will be followed by a question period. Fred Atkins Moore of the Chicago Forum council will preside.

Rate Boilermakers Slight Favorite Over Purple Men

Northwestern's grid team, smarting under two successive defeats, will make a determined effort to break back into the win column this week and against Purdue at Lafayette, Ind. The Wildcats feel that the jinx which has been hovering over their lair for several weeks has been at last removed and that with their full strength available they should be ready for the Boilermakers.

That Coach Phelan's proteges will be sturdy foe is not being overlooked. The Boilermakers have always been a formidable opponent and with their best team in years they can be counted upon to put up a staunch fight. The Hoosiers will pit Wilcor, Koransky and Welch against Lewis, Gustafson and Holmer in their bid for a victory. Enthused over their victory over Montana State, plus the added advantage of playing before a homecoming crowd, the Boilermakers can be considered favorites in the forthcoming clash.

Maroons and Wolverines Set for Deciding Clash

Chicago and Michigan will resume their historic football series this Saturday when the Wolverines come to the Midway for the first game the two teams have played since 1920. From the time that Michigan left the conference, until 1919, the team of Stagg and Yost did not meet, but in 1919 the Maroons won, 13 to 0, and in 1920 Michigan won, 14 to 0.

Chicago's defeat by Ohio State, 13 to 7, and the victory of Illinois over Michigan, 14 to 0, last Saturday, has not put either team definitely out of the conference race as yet, but a second defeat means elimination of one of the pair. Chicago was guilty of some stupid football in the Ohio game, and undoubtedly will play a better game Saturday, while Michigan, with Gilbert back in the lineup, will be at full strength again.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis F. Tuells, formerly of 38 Abbottsford road, Kenilworth, with their daughter, Helen, have moved to 918 Linden avenue, Winnetka. Miss Phoebe Tuells is attending Rockford college and Miss Ruth Tuells, Carlton.

Mrs. E. Stearn of 371 Green Bay road, Glencoe, is spending a few days in French Lick Springs with her sister, Mrs. Harry B. Kempner of Chicago and Homewood.

Read What a Home Washing Machine Manufacturer Says About Laundries

"To protect themselves against loss, through customers' claims, they must not wear out or damage garments."

They claim their washer operates on the gentle cylinder principle adopted by every laundry and dry cleaning establishment as the fastest way of washing clothes without damage.

The people that sell the home washing machine tell you that they can only give you the same gentle method of washing that the laundry does.

Quality and Service have built for us the largest and finest equipped laundry on the North Shore. It makes us happy to know that we are using a method in washing your clothes, that you yourself would require—"the gentle cylinder principle."

All that any home washing machine can give you is equivalent to our service, called Wet Wash, which we sell for five cents a pound. Surely, you can not do it at home for such a figure when you consider your investment, electricity, soap, and a dozen other incidentals. Besides, it's disagreeable, mussy and bothersome.
