Musical Society Enjoys Pleasing Afternoon Program

At 2:15 on the afternoon of October 31 the North Shore Musical society presented an unusually pleasing program made up of numbers for violin and piano. The hostess was Mrs. E. L. Essley of Kenilworth. She was assisted by Miss Adelaide Jones and Mrs. Frances Evans. The program appears below:

I. Suite-For Two Violins and Piano Moskowski Dorothy Wing Macauley and Elizabeth Weixel

II. Petite Suite Tcherepnine March Berceuse

Scherzo Humoresque

Jean MacShane III. The Soldier's Bride ... Rachmaninoff

The Rose Enslaves the Nightingale... Rimsky-Korsakoff Madeleine Vaughn

IV. Souvenir de Moskow Wieniawski Dubinushka-Russian Craftsmen's Chantry, transcribed byRissland

Winifred Cree V. Variations in A Major . . Paderewski Electa Austin

VI. Over the Steppes Gretchaninov But Lately in Dance I Embraced HerArensky I Could Forgive ... Frances Copthorne

Alvene Ressigue VII. Ballet-Excerpts from Scherazade Arranged for four hands Rimsky-Korsakoff

Ernau Akely and Jean MacShane Accompanists-Ernau Akely and Miss Austin

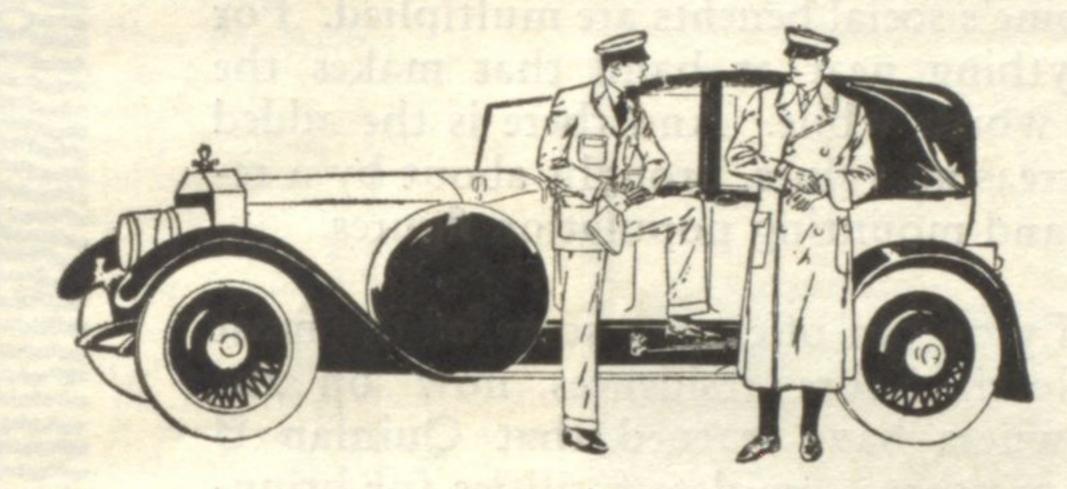

Mrs. Harold Ickes, 900 South Private road, assisted in pouring at the membership tea Monday, October 31. at the Woman's University club of Chicago. The affair was given in the Woman's City club.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pick, Jr., of 568 Cherry street are to be congratulated upon the birth of a daughter Wednesday, November 2, at the Evanston hospital.

Open Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday Evenings

Henry C. Lytton & Sons

STATE and JACKSON — Chicago ORRINGTON and CHURCH - Evanston

Correct Uniforms for Chauffeurs Suits and Overcoats

IN OUR EVANSTON SHOP

WE set a high standard in producing these Chauffeurs' Uniforms. They are smart in design and serviceable in fabric and tailoring. The Suits and Topcoats are of fine gray or tan whipcord, the Overcoats of heavy all wool. They're typical of the remarkable values here.

Caps to Match, $3 Puttees, $5 Coat and Breeches, $57.50

Fine High Plush Motor Robes, $6 to $45 Imported Wool Motor Robes, $10 to $25

Junior League Plays for Children to Be Given Here

Winnetka is to have the Junior League plays brought to its village. The plays will be given in the Skokie School auditorium for the benefit of the Nursery school. The first of the plays, "The Rose and the Ring," will for the first play will be on sale very Milwaukee.

soon. Reservations may be made now with Mrs. Dudley French, Winn. 395.

Miss Dorothy Schmidt, daughter of Mrs. Frederick M. Schmidt of 222 E. Delaware place, is general manager for the Junior League plays for children.

Mr. and Mrs. William Morse, 433 Provident avenue, entertained fifteen guests at a buffet supper Sunday evebe given Wednesday afternoon, Nov. ning in honor of Mr and Mrs. Charles 30, at 4 o'clock. The second play, Wahl and their children, who are here "The Land of Oz," will be presented from Pedro-Miguel, Panama. Out of the second week in February. Tickets town guests came from Oak Park and

*Community Service for the Correct Fitting of

ON THE SOUTH SHORE ON DIVERSEY PARKWAY IN THE DRAKE HOTEL and IN EVANSTON

Neighborhood Shops in charge of experienced Foster Shoe Men have been established to give Community Service supported by all the resources and prestige of the Foster

WABASH AVENUE STORE

*Complete Lines of Foster Hosiery at ALL SHOPS

The Foster "CAMPUS" Thistle Tie in Black or Brown Lizard Calf at $12.50

> In Brown Suede or Grey Buckskin at $14.00

Featured at EVANSTON, SOUTH SHORE, DIVERSEY PARKWAY and on

> THE SECOND FLOOR at Wabash Avenue

F. E. Foster & Company

115 North Wabash Avenue

The Drake Hotel Shop 7050 South Shore Drive 519 Diversey Parkway and Evanston