Big Boosters of the North Shore

TAKE CARE OF SCREENS

The time has come when the screens may be taken down and put away for the winter. After they are taken down give them a good brushing with a stiff broom and store them in some dry place. If you have room in the basement, all the better, because then one can paint them at odd moments and have them in first-class condition for putting up again in the spring.

H. P. Conway in New Home on Bluff Street, Glencoe

H. P. Conway, formerly of Wilmette, has moved into his new home on Bluff street, near Milton, recently completed by Max Ekemann. This is a nine room brick house, in keeping with the many fine new residences which have featured Glencoe building operations this season.
