Patrolman Luensman Captured by Cupid; Wedding November 16

Patrolman John H. Luensman, who joined the Winnetka police department May 16, has finally been ensnared—captured, and without the slightest degree of resistance surrendered to one whose past record, finger prints and all, are on file in the Winnetka police department.

Luensman's captor is listed in the card index under the C's. His name is Cupid. His first name is Daniel and few escape him.

Sixteen, the day of the month in May on which Luensman placed his lot with Winnetka's official family, having proved so very satisfactory, he decided it would be a good day of the month for his wedding.

So on Wednesday of next week, in compliance with the terms of his complete surrender, at Orion, Ill., he will lead to Hymen's altar, Miss Marjorie Esther Huston.

The wedding will be solemnized at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John William Huston.

Sisters Rank Well as Equestriennes

From left to right Marjorie and Evelyn, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Shuman of 44 Indian Hill road, Winnetka, said to be two of the best riders of their age on the north shore. Evelyn, aged 10, will ride "The Countess" in the Third Annual Horse Show of the Chicago Riding club, which opens Tuesday, November 22.

Junior Allied Arts Salon to Hold Meeting Tomorrow

The next regular monthly meeting of the Junior Allied Arts salon will be held Sunday at 3 in the afternoon, at the home of the president, Miss France Maybelle Rochlitz, 215 Harbor street, Glencoe. One of the guests of honor will be Chester E. Klein of Chicago, who studied under Mme. Guyon Hess. He will read Rudyard Kipling's "Betrothed" and "Pro and Con," which is anonymous. The other guest of honor, Miss Harriet Phillips Burnham, who studied at the Valatka studio and was with the "Smilin' Through" company, will give "As the Moon Rose."
