

Hold Cook County Teacher's Institute in Evanston Monday

The Winnetka and Glencoe schools will be closed next Monday in order that the teachers may attend the Cook County Teacher's institute which is to be held at the new Haven school in Evanston. The meeting is held annually under the auspices of the Cook County Teachers' association for the purpose of discussing various problems that come up in school administration and curriculums and to give the teachers the opportunity of hearing prominent educators upon subjects of general interest.

The program will start at 9:30 in the morning and will last until about 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The Haven school is located two blocks southwest of the Central street station of the Chicago and North Western and is situated on West Railroad, Lincoln and Prairie avenues. It is anticipated that about 500 teachers will be served in the school cafeteria at the noon intermission and at that time motion pictures will also be shown in the school auditorium.

The program for the meeting will be as following:

Morning Program

9:30-9:45 — Wilmette Grade School Orchestra.

9:45-10:00—Singing, directed by Fred W. Carberry.

10:00-10:40—"Common Errors in Arithmetic," Guy T. Buswell, Professor of Educational Psychology.

10:40-10:45—Intermission.
