

A State Bank

"A mighty pleasant place to bank—"

THE SPIRIT of a bank cannot be put on like a garment.

IT MUST grow from a desire to do big and little things both well and pleasantly.

IT'S THE Spirit of a bank more than anything else which makes it—

"A pleasant place to bank"

Banking Hours: 8 to 3; Saturdays 8 to 12:30

Monday Evenings 7 to 8

WINNETKA TRUST and SAVINGS BANK

Elm Street at Center

At the Opera

The claim upon public interest made by the opening bills of the Chicago Civic Opera season characterizes the repertoire and casts chosen for the immediate future at the Chicago auditorium. Favorite operas have their due place in the list, which is further enhanced by the inclusion of several notable revivals.

The first repetition of the season, "Aida," this Saturday evening will be marked by three alternations in the cast, Claudia Muzzio being scheduled to appear as Aida, Giacomo Rimini as Amonasro, and John Sample, an American tenor new to the company, to make his debut as Radames. Moran-zoni will conduct.

"Tannhauser" will be repeated as the bill for the big special suburban Sunday matinee November 13, with Leone Kruse, Cyrena Van Gordon, Forrest Lamont, Heinrich Schlusnus and Alexander Kipnis in the cast and Henry G. Weber conducting. The ballet will dance the Bacchanale in the first act, Marie Yurieva and Vochlav Swoboda appearing as soloists.

"Il Trovatore," which enjoys an immorality it shares with only a few other operas, will be staged Monday evening, November 14. The cast for this performance includes Rosa Raisa, Augusta Lenska, Antonio Cortis and Richard Bonelli. Henry G. Weber will conduct.

"Martha," another work highly cherished in popular favor, will be sung Tuesday evening, November 15, by Edith Mason, Tito Schipa and Virgilio Lazzari; Moranzoni conducting.

Wednesday brings a repetition of "Loreley," with the same cast which re-introduced the work to the repertoire.

The third complete week will open Thursday, November 17, with a double bill in which "Le Pagliacci" will be coupled with Massenet's short and intense dramatic work, "La Navarraise."

Bronze and Yellow Predominant Shades at Recent Wedding

The marriage of Miss Frances Lindsay Zipf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Zipf of 243 Warwick road, Kenilworth, to Frank Bernard Lambert, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Lambert of Rogers Park, was solemnized Thursday at the Zipf home at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon. The Rev. Paul Lambert of Philadelphia read the service, following which a reception was held.

The bride wore a gown of ivory velvet and a Juliette cap of D'Alencons lace held the tulle veil in place. She carried lilies of the valley and orchids. Mrs. Robert J. Kullman of Chicago, the bride's only attendant, was dressed in beige and carried a bouquet of Per-net roses. Charles Moran served as best man. The autumn shades of yellow and brown were carried out in the clusters of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums that were used in decoration of the Zipf residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Lambert left on a honeymoon trip to California and will be at home after the first of the year at 830 Mulford street, Evanston.

The affairs given for the bride included the luncheon and kitchen shower given by Mrs. Charles J. Moran of Chicago Friday, October 28; the tea Sunday, October 30, given by Miss Marguerite McManenin of Chicago; the luncheon and miscellaneous shower by Mrs. Robert J. Kullman Wednesday, November 2; the dinner dance at the Edgewater Beach hotel, November 3, given by Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Moran of Chicago. Mrs. Lawrence T. Morand was hostess at a tea Sunday, November 6, at her home in Wilmette, and the following day Mrs. C. R. Faunt entertained at bridge at her home in Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Lambert were hosts at a dinner for the families and visiting guests.

PARENTS IN MEETING

The parents of the ninth grade of the North Shore Country Day school held their first monthly meeting Wednesday. All parents of new children in the school were invited to the meeting at which Perry Dunlap Smith, Head Master, gave a talk on the aims and purposes of the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Ridgeway and Dr. and Mrs. Rufus Stolp celebrated their wedding anniversary by taking a motor trip last week to their old homesteads in southern Illinois and Ohio.

B. C. Hawkes was brought to Kenilworth from the St. Luke's hospital on Wednesday. Although very much improved in health, Mr. Hawkes will be confined to his home for some time to come.

C. GRAY
Heraldic Artist

Book Plates

Crests

Coats of Arms

Etchings

Artistic Lamp Shades

Studio

17 Rapp Building
Winnetka

MUMS

are now at their best, enjoy them while you may. Cut and potted in many colors.

Prices Are Reasonable

EVERGREENS
for Tubs and Winter Boxes

Edwards' Florist

917 WILLOW ROAD

TELEPHONE WINNETKA 885