Mme. Zendt to Sing at Charity Bridge Monday

Mme. Marie Sundelius Zendt, noted Wilmette soprano, has been engaged for a group of musical numbers at the Charity bridge to be given at the Orington hotel ball room, Monday afternoon, Nov. 14, at 1:30.

This bridge is being sponsored by Circle 3 of the Congregational church and promises to be an event of unusual interest to north shore patrons.

Mrs. H. W. Carlisle is chairman of the refreshment committee, Miss Pearl Daniels is chairman of the card table committee, Mrs. Walker Eastman has charge of the prizes and Mrs. J. H. Brockway is co-chairman of the circle. Tickets will be on sale at the door.

Hold Memorial Services for Elizabeth Harrison

Memorial service in honor of Miss Elizabeth Harrison, founder and president emeritus of the National Kindergarten and Elementary college, will be held in Harrison hall Sunday afternoon, November 13, at 4 o'clock.

The service will be conducted by President Edna Dean Baker, and will include anthems by the student choir and the singing of two of Miss Harrison's favorite hymns. The memorial address will be given by Edwin H. Lewis, dean of Lewis institute and a personal friend of Miss Harrison, and the prayer offered by Rev. George Craig Stewart, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church, who was also well acquainted with Miss Harrison and with her work.

Kenilworth Scout Troop 13 Stresses Outdoor Activity

With the organization of Kenilworth Boy Scout troop 13 completed, the registration now totals almost forty members and a waiting list of boys desiring membership, should a vacancy occur, is already being recorded.

Concurrent with the final organization, and even previous to it, the Kenilworth Scouts have been hiking regularly and scarcely a week has passed without an outing being scheduled. This unusual amount of outside activity is in accordance with the belief of Scoutmaster Robert W. Townley that the greatest benefit from Scouting is derived from actual work in the field. With his viewpoint in mind the programs arranged for the hikes are planned so as to bring in the greatest possible variation in subject matter to be studied and to create an extensive interest in nature.

The troop members by patrols are as follows:

Beaver patrol: Billy Brassert, George Burghardt, Billy Healey, Jack Howe, Robert Knowler, Edson McEldowney, Elwood Mons, John Montenegro, Murray McCloud, and Robert Dowse.
