

"Oh, It's Simply Gorgeous!"

Dirigold

HOW often we have heard women enthusiastically exclaim their admiration upon seeing Dirigold for the first time. And, indeed, tableware as irreproachably beautiful, as exquisitely luxurious, as surpassingly serviceable as Dirigold, deserves this high tribute direct from the feminine heart. See our display and you will be determined to have Dirigold on your table.

Hallmark Jewelers
809 Davis Street, Evanston
The Dirigold Corp. Display Salon
70 E. Jackson Blvd., Chicago

Alpha Chi Omegas Have Arranged Busy Program

The Alpha Chi Omega chapter at Northwestern university is planning a number of activities. The sorority will give a large subscription dance next Friday evening at the Georgian hotel in Evanston. The alumni are sponsoring a two-piano concert to be given by Arne Oldberg and Carl Beecher at the Evanston Woman's club on Thursday evening, November 15. Both these men are on the Northwestern faculty. The Mothers club gave a card party at the house in Evanston last Monday.

ELECT OFFICERS

Rhoda Kauffman was elected president of the Friendship circle, club for girls employed in Winnetka homes, at a meeting held last Tuesday evening at Community House. Mary Lou Fidens is the new vice president, Grace Skinner is secretary, and Dorothy Vivoda, treasurer. These officers will assume their duties at the next meeting of the circle on Tuesday evening.

Gas is used exclusively for baking ice cream cones in Chicago, where more cones are baked than in any other city in the world.

Black-White Grid Squad to Engage Wyandottes Sunday

The Winnetka Black & White football team last Sunday once more dealt out defeat to its opponents, this time being the well-known Chicago Kiwanis, who came to Winnetka boasting an extremely good slate. When the final whistle blew, the locals walked off with the best end of a 6-3 score.

The game was just as close and interesting as the score indicates. The battle started with the Kiwanis taking the pigskin to the local's 20 yard line, where their march was checked to a halt. At this point, Capt. Wagner, of the visitors, stepped back and drop-kicked the oval between the goal posts, for their lone tallies.

From this point until the last quarter, it was a battle, the visitors having a slight edge. However, as Michigan and Chicago had their grievances over the loss of their Gilbert and Rouse, likewise were the Black & Whites practically lost without the line services of Carlson, Dahl, Matson, and Waves Connor, who were out of the fray on account of injuries.

Nevertheless, the spectators admitted the scrub line put up a stubborn defense against the much heavier line of the Kiwanis.

At the start of the fourth quarter, the Kiwanis made an expensive mistake by trying to run up a score on the locals through the aerial route. On one of these attempts, Flynn hurled his body into the air and made a spectacular interception. With only one man between him and the goal, he raced down the sideline for a touchdown, bringing back delightful memories of the famous Grange. Capt. Martin failed in the attempt for the extra point. From this stage until the final whistle, the locals played a defensive game, finally stinging the city boys with a 6-3 defeat.

Football fans are invited to come out and see a fighting team in action, and see two of the best linemen, Connor and Jensen, in the Mid-West league perform.

Next Sunday the Chicago Wyandottes invade the stronghold of the locals and are going to attempt to hold them from winning their sixth straight victory.

Expert to Give Course on Camp Fire Movement (Contributed)

Have you a daughter of Camp Fire age? Are you interested in girls? Miss Estelle Farley, Camp Fire field executive in the Chicago district, will put on a three weeks' Camp Fire course in Community House, beginning Monday, November 21. There will be two talks a week, each Monday and Thursday at 2 o'clock.

While this is an opportunity of helpfulness to Camp Fire Guardians, it also offers to mothers of girls and friends of Camp Fire a chance to acquaint themselves with the things that Camp Fire stands for, and to better understand the appeal which it has for the growing girl.

Miss Farley is well equipped for this work, having been a Camp Fire Girl, a Camp Fire Guardian and a district worker. It is hoped that many may take advantage of this opportunity. There is no charge for the course.

AT CHURCH BANQUET

Ernest Ballard, 811 Auburn road, was one of the speakers at the banquet held Monday evening, November 7, at the Auditorium hotel. The dinner was sponsored by clergy, wardens, and vestrymen of the Episcopal church. Charles D. Dallas, 1124 Pine street, president of the Church club, presided at the meeting.

5000 YARDS SILK REMNANTS

Our finest qualities represented in this lot of lengths from all our four Shops.

Prices: 50c - $1.00 - $1.25
and $2.25 per yd.

ON SALE MONDAY
EVANSTON SHOP ONLY

EDGAR A. STEVENS, Inc.

THE SILK SHOPS

1638 Orrington Avenue

EVANSTON