To Exhibit Handiwork of Mountain People of South

Miss Anne Pavey has arrived in Winnetka to stay with her brother, William B. Pavey, of 845 Lincoln avenue, through the holidays. Miss Pavey is well known on the north shore through her frequent visits here. Last year she conducted a shop in Winnetka in which she exhibited the handiwork of southern mountain people. This year, from November 28 to December 3, she will hold her exhibit at the Lincoln avenue address. She will show beautiful linens, baby blankets, scarfs, shawls, and lovely small hooked rugs. Some of the articles will be sold for the benefit of southern mountain schools in which Miss Pavey is greatly interested. She spent almost five years in the mountains, dividing her time between Pine Mountain school in Kentucky, the Martha Berry school in Georgia, and the school in Berea, Ky.

Mrs. Alfred Washington, 91 Beach road, Glencoe, entertained the Morning Glories at luncheon yesterday.

Richard's Sermon on Thanksgiving Topic

The service at the Winnetka Congregational church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock will be in preparation for Thanksgiving week, it is announced.

In response to a general request, Rev. James Austin Richards will preach on "The Mind of Christ Concerning the Possession and Use of Wealth."

"At Thanksgiving our people rejoice that they possess so much," Rev. Richards says, "and it certainly is a time to ask what Jesus would say about it."

The service Sunday evening at 8 o'clock will be conducted by Rev. R. Malcolm Ward, assistant pastor of Christ church, whose sermon topic will be "Young Men's Visions."

Union services will be held on Thanksgiving day, at Christ church, regarding which more detailed information is given in another column.

J. S. Cline is seriously ill at his home in Kenilworth.

Children Express Thank Spirit With Gifts of Harvest

(Contributed)

Sunday is Harvest Home Festival day for the school of the Winnetka Congregational church. This observance has been built upon the principle which was given to the Christian world long, long ago, that "it is more blessed to give than to receive." As a nation we are grateful at the end of the harvest for all the rich gifts which come to us as a people who dwell in a land of plenty. Yet even in our own land there are those who, through the force of circumstances and, sometimes, accident, are cut off from a generous share of the things that many of us accept as so common. Harvest Home is an opportunity to share a bit what we have. Lowell said,

"It is not what we give but what we share,

For the gift without the giver is bare."

Today and Sunday the members of the Church school will bring gifts of canned and fresh fruits, vegetables, jams and jellies. These will be placed in the front of the church, symbolizing the recognition of the goodness of God.

These gifts will then be taken to the Protestant Children's Home in Chicago.

Kenilworth Board Sets Trustee Election Date

A special election to be held for the purpose of electing a trustee to fill the vacancy on the Village Board of Trustees of Kenilworth caused recently by the untimely death of former trustee Alexander M. Lovedale, was set for December 6 by the Kenilworth Village board at its meeting last Monday night.
