

ROSENBERG'S

Davis Street—Downtown Evanston

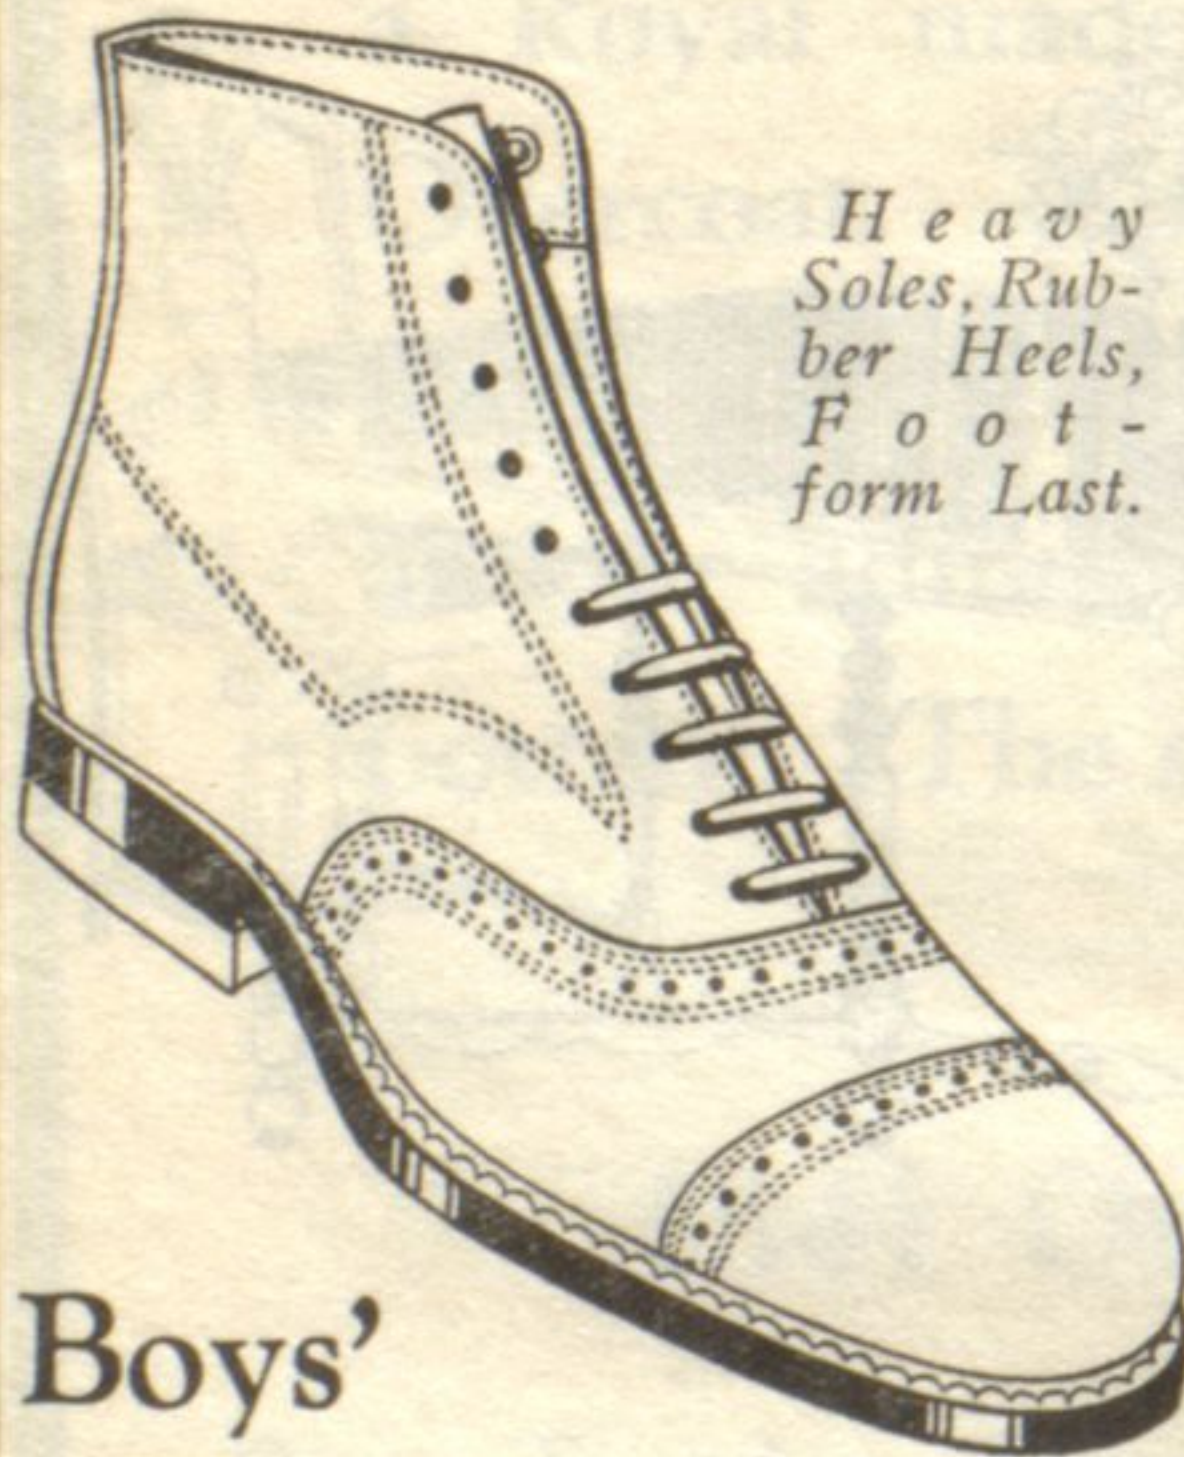

All the Boys
Are Getting
These Boots

14-inch
Boot, Extra Heavy
Soles,
Heels.

The Very Finest Made
at $6 to $8.75

A moca toe provides real comfort . . . and they'll wear
'till next Spring! Knife free.
Sizes 12-13½, $6; 1-6, $7.50;
and 6½-8, $8.75.

Heavy
Soles, Rubber Heels,
Foot-
form Last.

Boys'
Shoes at $5.50

Choose your pair from a large stock of calf-skin and elk-skin shoes . . . black or tan.
Soles are Goodyear-weltd. That means wear!

Rosenberg's Shoes—First Floor

CHOIR SOLOIST IN CONCERT

John Rankel, who was for a number of years soloist at Christ church, Winnetka, will appear in a joint recital with Arthur Becker, organist, at Kimball hall Sunday afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

Have you seen The Pictorial Mappe of Northwestern University?

It is most attractive and very gaily colored.

On Sale

CHANDLER'S
in Evanston

For Information

1033 ELMWOOD AVE.
WILMETTE 1647

Form Unique Building and Loan Association

A new building and loan association with several entirely unique features has been formed in Evanston. The authorized capital to be accumulated by the new organization, the Building and Loan association of Evanston, is $1,000,000 and the nine directors elected are: Nels M. Hokanson, David C.
Malin, H. Morton Bodfish, Herbert Jenks, Horace D. Bent, C. P. Hodge-son, Meyer J. Sturm and Victor Ort-lund. Officers will be elected at a meeting of the directors in the near future.

Mr. Hodgeson and F. C. Winship, who is acting secretary, are Wilmette men.

Among the features which are not to be found in any simliar organization anywhere in the country is the option given of paying regular or irregular dues. No fines or forfeits are provided.

The association adopted bylaws according to the Ohio or permanent plan and 75 members subscribed to 1,064 shares of $100 each.

Ernst Wienhoeber and his daughter, Miss Edna Wienhoeber, of 791 Bryant avenue, have left Winnetka for Tryon, N. C., where they will spend the winter.

R. M. Ostermann Buys Kenilworth Residence

R. M. Ostermann, vice-president of the Capital T Superheater company, has purchased the home of E. L. Essley at 234 Warwick road, Kenilworth, for an undisclosed consideration. The property comprises an Italian residence surrounded by almost an acre of ground, this being one of Kenilworth's show places. Mr. Ostermann, who now lives in Evanston, plans extensive alterations and, when completed, will occupy it as his home. C. P. Rorick and company of Winnetka were the brokers.

North Shore Girls Win Places on Hockey Squad

There are many girls from the north shore on the soccer teams at Smith college which have been chosen this week after practices and tryouts since September. The teams include Virginia DeLay, Frances Ranney, Mary Parker, and Elizabeth Babcock of Winnetka, Caroline Kimball of Glencoe, and Dorothy Dickinson of Hubbard Woods. All these girls are New Trier graduates.

GOLFLEX

Big Games . . . Holiday Reunions . . .
This Is the Time for a Lovely

Golflex Frock: Special $42.50

HERE is a Frock you can wear smartly for any day occasion—from attendance at football to family dinner. It is made of an exclusive new lightweight worsted, as supple and pleasant to wear as silk, yet which holds tailored lines as only a worsted can.

You will want just such a Frock to wear under fur or cloth coats—its weight is exactly right for comfort in steam-heated homes, hotels, or clubs. Also special showing of new evening gowns from $39.50 to $150.00.

N. A. HANNA and CO.

1168 WILMETTE AVENUE
912 SPANISH COURT

MILLINERY -- ACCESSORIES
GOWNS -- COATS