Urge War Vets to Apply for Bonus Insurance at Once

The time for filing applications for adjusted compensation certificates or bonus insurance expires January 1, 1928, and after that date veterans of the World war will be deprived of the opportunity of obtaining this free government insurance.

There are several thousand men in the state who have not obtained their bonus policies. Most of these men, whose service was too long to obtain a cash settlement of $50, and so short, sometimes feel that the amount of the insurance is not worth bothering with.

Every veteran should apply for the bonus insurance regardless of how small the amount. Applications may be made through the Veterans' bureau or to Greater Chicago Post No. 866 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, U. S., % Adjutant N. Lepavsky, 1326 Maple avenue, Berwyn, Ill.

Every veteran is also entitled to a Victory medal. If the veteran is deceased he is entitled to a grave stone, and his wife, mother, father, guardian or beneficiaries are entitled to the Victory medal and bonus. It is all free of charge and application should be made at once.

January 1 is the final date to file application.

One-fifth of the wood used in Illinois is grown within the state.

S. J. Duncan-Clarke Will Be Speaker at Art Patrons' Dinner

S. J. Duncan-Clarke of Wilmette will be speaker at the dinner to be given patrons of the art movement sponsored by the University guild and the Evanston Art commission, to be held at the Orrington hotel Monday evening, Dec. 5.

His subject will be "The Arts for Life." Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fayerweather Babcock and Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Camp will be other honor guests and speakers.

The date will also be that of the opening of the third art exhibit of the season sponsored by the guild. It will be a showing of works of the Chicago Association of Painters and Sculptors, directed by Mrs. Charles H. Dennis, chairman of the art committee of the guild.

Six Purple Grid Men End Football Careers

Six Northwestern football men wound up their college careers in that sport Saturday. Those who will be seen no more in a Purple grid uniform are Capt. Vic Gustafson, Tiny Lewis, Waldo Fisher, Rudy and Al Schuler and Bus Owens. The first four were regulars while the others saw service as substitutes during the last three years.

In Gustafson, Lewis, Fisher and Rudy Schuler, the Purple loses four valuable men who have performed brilliantly in the past. Each of the four were among the leaders in their positions. All have won mention as among the outstanding players of the Big Ten.

All four will be seen in other sports during the remainder of the school year. Fisher is a star forward on the basketball team, while Lewis is captain of the track team and Schuler is captain of the wrestling team. Gustafson plans to play baseball next spring.
