Lead Junior Leaders Encampment

"Hi Ho the Merrio—The Cabin in the Woods," they will be singing as they hike across the Skokie, headed for a Two Day Junior leaders' Encampment at the "Cabin in the Woods." There will be twenty-four of them, picked boys, who are carrying responsibility of leadership of others in their local troops. Their two days program is being planned by a group of Junior leaders under the guidance of W. Ted Grant, field executive of the North Shore Area.

The program, in addition to lots of fun in connection with the cooking, and living together for two days, will include demonstrations and practices of various games and stunts and outdoor activities that troops might well utilize. The slogan of the encampment is "get something to take back." Each boy who attends, goes with the purpose, not only of having a good time, but also of learning something that he can take back to make his troop one of the best.

"Hi ho the Merrio—The Cabin in the Woods."

WINNETKA SCOUTS

The Troop committee of the Winnetka Boy Scouts conducted a Court of Honor session at Community House on Friday evening, November 18, at which eight boys were inducted into the organization as Tenderfeet, one scout was promoted to second class standing, two were made first class scouts and a third was awarded his Eagle scout badge.

Philip Swabacher of Troop No. 3 was the scout who was given Eagle scout standing, having been a first class scout for a period of at least one year and having qualified for 21 merit badges. Among these badges were awards in first aid, life saving, personal health, public health, cooking, camping, civics, bird study, pathfinding, pioneering, and athletics or physical development.

Tom Larson and Roy Davis of troop 3 were promoted to first class standing. George Beyers of troop 2 was made a second class scout and Billy Rothschild, Sewell Greeley, Billy Duncan, Loring Farwell, Don Kurtz, Donald Easterberg, Morris Swabacker and Robert Greenhalgh were received as Tenderfeet.

At the next meeting of the Winnetka troops which will be held on December 1, an initiation of all new, first, and second class scouts will be held. The meeting will start at 8:30 and will be held at Community House.

The crack first aid team from the public utilities company will give a demonstration for the benefit of the local scouts. The meeting will start at 8:15 o'clock and will be attended by all Winnetka troops.

Hold Public Scout Court

All parents and friends of Scouting are invited to attend a public Court of Award held for the four Boy Scout troops of Glencoe Tuesday evening, December 20. Heretofore Glencoe has held only a Board of Review each month, but plans for the new year call for a monthly Court of Award in which badges will be presented publicly. Franklin deBeers, chairman of the Court of Honor and the other members are making plans for the enlarging of the examining board which will do its work individually before the Court of Award.

Those who attended the big area-wide Court of Award last Friday, at which John V. Clinkin presided, received an inkling of some of the fine things the Scouts are doing in their advancement work.
