Evanston's Christmas shopping season opens officially on the 26th. Need we say—when we have so long been urging early shopping—that we are ready?

We merely repeat it here. Ample Christmas stocks, chosen from the best markets of the world—and plenty of well-trained and courteous salespeople.

Tailored Wool Frocks of exceptional style for girls from 8 to 14 $10.95

French Serges from the Jack Tar people—who, as every mother knows, make exceptionally nice-looking dresses for girls. One with a red-dotted tie, an inverted pleat at front and at sides, is in this group. Another navy blue is of jersey, with an odd long neckline, and rich-colored embroidery. Another navy jersey is cross-stitched in red wools—and a tan jersey, with a plain skirt, has a slipover blouse honey-combed in various tans and browns.

Other Dresses to $23.50

November Toy Sale Draws to a Close!

By next Monday the Toy Section will have moved to more spacious quarters in the East Room, Second Floor. We want to clear as much of our toy stock as possible before then—to save moving it! Hence these prices:

Parcheesi, $1.15

India's Royal game still a favorite with old and young in the western world!

Musical Tops

50c and 65c—a constant source of joy for smaller children. Every youngster should have at least one.

Mosaic Blocks

develop a sense of balance and color—and they may be had here in various designs and sizes, 50c and 95c.

Teddy Bears

Fuzzy plush bears—grizzlies on wheels. $5.50 and $9.75.

Toy Phonographs

Only $1 for these—and they play real records. Better than letting the children use the big ones!

Tool Chests

are priced from $3.25 up—according to the number and quality of tools they contain.

Monoplanes, $1

Pressed steel transatlantic monoplanes, attractively silvered and decorated.

Doll Dishes

Many elaborately decorated with flowers and conventional designs. 65c to $3.95 includes a splendid assortment.

Drums

With fiber, sheepskin or calfskin head. Decorated with historical pictures. 50c to $10.

Kiddie Kars

Good, strong ones—$2.40 to $6.50. A toy that provides good healthful exercise.

Laundry Sets

Washing basin, rubbing board and dryer—all for 65c. And little girls love them!

Express Wagons
