

DR. STEPHEN S. WISE SUNDAY CLUB SPEAKER

Internationally Famous Church, Welfare and Educational Leader
on North Shore Nov. 27

Dr. Stephen S. Wise, rabbi of the Free Synagogue of New York, outstanding leader in the Zionist movement, founder and president of the Jewish Institute of Religion and trustee of the Near East Relief, will be the speaker at the Wilmette Evening club, November 27. Dr. Wise will discuss the subject, "The Retraction of Henry Ford: Some lessons for Jew and Christian."

Dr. Wise, one of the great orators of the era, has appeared before the Wilmette Sunday evening club on previous occasions and never fails to attract a capacity audience. His addresses are always timely and replete with vital interest, for he possesses a brilliant analytical mind and a virile personality.

After graduating from Columbia university in 1892, he began his colorful public career as pastor of the Congregation of the Madison Avenue Synagogue in New York. Later he went to Portland, Ore., as pastor of Beth Israel. He founded the Free Synagogue of New York in 1906 and has since been the directing genius of that great church.

Dr. Wise's activities in the field of welfare and educational advancement have brought him international recognition. Listing a few of his more important connections, affords one an insight into the wide scope of his interest and influence:

Founder and first vice-president of the Oregon State Conference on Charities and Correction; founder and first secretary of the Federation of American Zionists; former commissioner of Child Labor for the state of Oregon; vice-president of the Free Religious mission of Safety, New York; chairman in succession to Justice Brandeis of provisional executive committee for General Zionist affairs; member of the American Jewish Relief commission; founder and director of the League of National Unity; member of the Committee of Labor of the Council of National Defense; director, Peace society of New York; founder, Eastern council of Liberal Rabbis; vice-president, American Association of Labor Legislation; trustee, National Child Labor commission; founder, Zionist organization of America; honorary chairman of the United Palestine Appeal; vice-president of the executive committee, World Zionist organization.

Decorated by France

He was chairman of the Zionist commission to the Peace Conference and one of the delegates to Paris of the American Jewish Congress. In January, 1919 he was awarded the Cross of Chavalier of the Legion of Honor for "eminent service to The Republic." He is an author of note and is in constant demand as a public speaker.

Miss Anna Nyberg, violinist, will give a program of music at the Sunday club meeting this week.

Mrs. John D. Pahlman of 2655 Asbury avenue, Evanston, formerly of Wilmette, entertained her bridge club "The Happy Twelve" last Monday evening.

Hubbard Woods Children Stage Thanksgiving Plays

Two plays were given at the Hubbard Woods school in celebration of Thanksgiving. The third grade children in Miss Lila Graham's room dramatized the story of the "First Thanksgiving," in two scenes. The first scene showed Elder Brewster and Governor Bradford talking together. They decided to set aside a day in which to give thanks to God for the successful harvest and to invite the friendly Indians to the feast. In the second scene the Indians arrive and give a war-dance and the curtain falls on the scene of the First Thanksgiving with Indians and Pilgrims feasting together.

Mrs. Bernhard's sixth grade room gave an original play, entitled, "The Winning of the Kirn." It was based on an old English custom. Before the last stalks of grain were cut, workmen were blindfolded and vied with each other to cut these last stalks. The man who succeeded was said to have "won the kirn." The winner of the kirn was the hero of the harvest celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Haight and their son, Edgar, 815 Bluff street, left Wednesday for Sycamore, Ill. to spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Haight's sister.

TEACHERS PLAN DINNER

Plans are now being formulated for a dinner to be held by the Wilmette public school teachers sometime in the near future. While the committee in charge has not as yet announced either the time or place, it is expected the dinner will be one of the outstanding events of the current school season. It is estimated that about eighty teachers and their guests will attend.

Who Wants an Orphan Doll?

I am an orphan dolly calling for my mama. Won't you have me? I am so good and dressed so sweet. I would just love to have you see the pretty dresses my doll lady is sewing and smocking for Santa Claus. He even ordered Doll Houses, all kinds of them, Log Cabins too. Come, I'll show them to you at the Doll House.
