On Arden Board

Mrs. John H. S. Lee was elected to the board of directors of Arden Shore association at its recent meeting, representing Evanston and succeeding Mrs. Frank Warner Kingsley who was forced to resign work with the association on account of ill health. Mrs. Lee is also working with the group of matrons and young women sponsoring the sale for benefit of Northwestern university settlement to be held today at the Georgian.

LEGIONNAIRES PLAN AMBITIOUS PROGRAM

Expect to Have Visit From Howard P. Savage Soon; Appoint New Committees

A meeting of the executive committee of Winnetka Post, No. 10, American Legion, was held Monday, November 28 at the Legion club rooms in Community House. An organization program covering activities of the Post was discussed and formulated.

It is hoped that Howard P. Savage, past national commander, will be a guest speaker of the Post early in the coming year, as his command of the Second A. E. F. has proven him to be one of the outstanding figures of the American Legion.

The following committees have been appointed:

Membership committee, W. Lincoln Rogers, chairman; A. Lee Adams, William G. Carter, C. F. Dehmlow, George D. Full, C. Schafehen, H. G. Sperling, C. L. Swanson, Dr. C. Roy Terry.

House committee, Ernest Campbell, chairman; Howard Carpenter, Marshall Knox, Axel Peterson.

Publicity committee, Thomas Lynch, Lloyd F. Hollister, F. O. Mason.

Entertainment committee, Robert C. Meleney, George Bartlett, Robert F. Doepel, R. R. Fairclough, Rev. Thomas A. Goodwin, G. Matteoni, George B. Massey, G. A. Schoenrock, Dr. F. H. Woods.

Additional committees will also be appointed in the near future covering civic affairs, public relations and graves registration.

The next regular meeting will be held Monday, December 5, at Community House.
