

PRESENT 2ND SYMPHONY CONCERT MONDAY NIGHT

Carlos Salzedo, Harpist, Is Soloist; George Swigart Plays in Afternoon

The second concert of the New Trier Orchestral association series by the Little Symphony orchestra of Chicago, George Dasch, director, will be given in New Trier High school auditorium Monday evening, December 5, at 8:15 o'clock. The customary Children's concert will be given in the afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the auditorium.

Carlos Salzedo, harpist, will be the soloist at the evening concert. Mr. Salzedo gained his artistic training at the Bordeaux Conservatoire (1892-1895), winning there the first prize in sofeggio and piano, and in the Paris Conservatoire, where he studied sofeggio under Schwartz, piano with Charles de Beriot and harp with Hasselmans. From 1901 until 1905 Mr. Salzedo made concert tours as harpist in France, Switzerland, Spain, Portugal, Germany and Austria. From 1909 until 1913 he was solo harpist at the Metropolitan Opera House, New York. In 1913 he formed the Trio de Lutece with G. Barrere, flutist and P. Kefer, violoncellist. As a harpist, his artistry and virtuosity have never been equalled by anyone in any period of history.

The program of the evening concert will be as follows:

Cards, Food Sale Great Event Today at New Trier High

by E. M. E.

When? This Saturday. Where? New Trier High school mess hall. What for? In order to raise money for the New Trier High School Girls' club scholarship fund for the purpose of send deserving girls to college.

Cast your dollars upon the waters and they will return to you a hundred fold. There will be prizes that you will be glad to win—one for every table.

A check room has been established for your convenience where you may leave your wraps without cost. Then you may sit at one of the 250 tables for bridge playing, or at one of the bunco tables and enjoy a thoroughly delightful afternoon. When you care to (during dummy hands, etc.), you may wish to wander to the Petite Patisserie to buy (from girls in chic French peasant costumes) delicious homemade cakes, pies, breads, and puddings to take home. During the course of the afternoon refreshments will be sold. Costumed girls will wait on you. A beautiful, new, large, silver samovar will help create a party-like atmosphere.

The card playing will continue from 2:30 o'clock until 5. The hour and a half from 5 to 6:30 will be open to the public so that the people may purchase delicacies at the Petite Patisserie. Twenty-five girls will be serving at the Food booth from 2:30 until 6:30 on hour shifts.

Door tickets will be sold. Everyone is welcomed to the party. Besides giving yourself pleasure you will be helping to send worthy girls to college.
