Kenilworth Voters to Cast "White Ballot" for Trustee

Kenilworth voters will formally approve at the polls next Monday the selection of Richard Wolfe, 414 Essex road, Kenilworth, as Village trustee to fill the vacancy caused by the untimely death of former Trustee Alexander M. Lovedale, who passed away following a short illness on August 29.

The election will be held in connection with the election on the proposed establishment of the Mosquito Abatement district. Attention of the voters is called to the difference in time set for balloting in the two elections. The Village election will be held between the hours of 7 o'clock in the morning and 5 o'clock in the afternoon, while the mosquito polls will open at 6 o'clock and will close at 4 o'clock. In order to receive ballots for both elections it will be necessary therefore to vote between the hours of 6 and 4. The polls will be located in the Village Hall. Attention is also called to the fact that any voter may vote at the established voting place in any of the affected municipalities on the mosquito proposition.

GOING EAST

Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. Galloway of Private road, Hubbard Woods, and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley E. Bowman of Evanston are leaving Sunday morning for an eastern trip. They will go first to Montreal, then will spend two days in New York City, and will visit Dr. Galloway's and Mrs. Bowman's parents in Xenia, Ohio, before returning Monday, December 12.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Lucke of 394 Elder lane spent Thanksgiving with their son, William, at St. John's Military academy in Delafield, Wis. They were accompanied by their daughter, Gertrude, and Miss Winifred Dewar.

Give Club Musicale

A most delightful program was given at the Winnetka Woman's club Tuesday afternoon, November 29, by the music committee which is headed by Mrs. John W. Hansel.

Miss Marian Keeney, a Winnetka girl, who has danced with the Allied Arts of Chicago, and a member of the Ravinia ballet for two seasons, and who is at present conducting her own school of dance in the village, danced three numbers and was charming and delightful in all. Her costumes were most attractive and she made a lovely picture. Her dancing was received by the audience with much applause. The music for Miss Keeney's dancing was played by Miss Audiss Waite, pianist, and Miss Carol Clapp, violinist. Miss Waite gave two groups for the piano while Miss Keeney effected a change of costume. She is a young artist pupil of Henriot Levy and played well.

Jaroslav Gons, the celebrated Bohemian violoncellist, who opened and closed the program, was a joy to hear. He plays with a warm, vibrant tone and plenty of temperament and is a master of the instrument he plays.

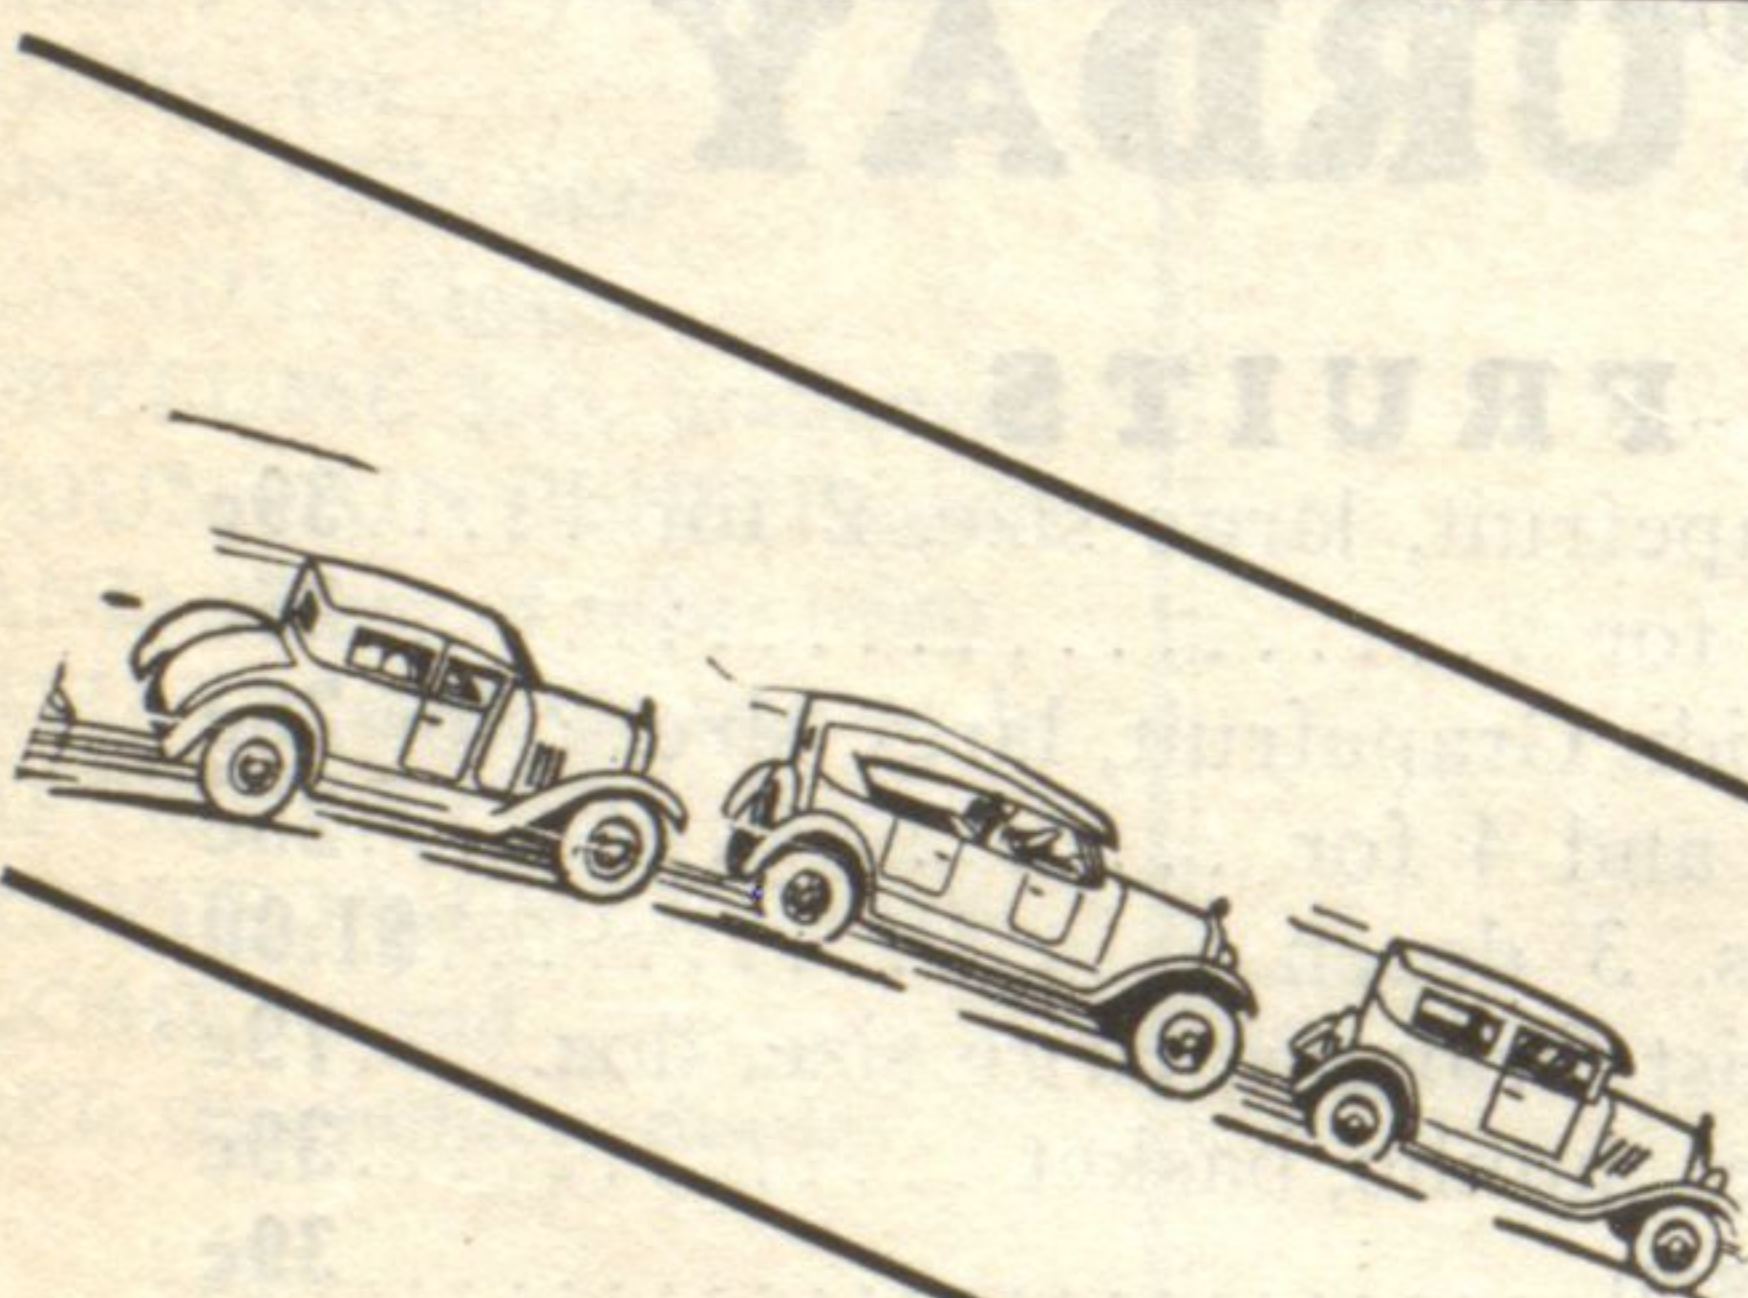

He was much applauded and was most generous in giving an encore.

He was accompanied at the piano by Evelyn Hattes Fox. The program given by these artists follows:

1. Theme in the Style of Rococo and Seven Variations—Tschaikowsky. Mr. Gons.
2. Tango Trianero—Sopena. Miss Keeney.
3. a. Prelude in G Major—Rachmaninoff.
b. Hopals—Moussorgsky.
c. Polichinelle—Rachmaninoff.
Miss Waite
4. Blue Danube Waltz—Strauss. Miss Keeney.
5. Rondo in G Minor—Beethoven. Miss Waite.
6. Pionette—Finck. Miss Keeney.
7. a. Fond Recollections.
b. Harlequin (A Masked Ball).
c. Valse Triste.
d. Tarantella.

How are the hose connections on your radiator, better have them looked over—Anti-Freeze is too valuable to let leak out.
