Mrs. Downer McCord, soprano, Calvin Lampert, Miss Martha Oliver, reader, and Miss Grace Sieberling, pianist, will appear on the program. Mrs. McCord is teaching on the staff of the Sherwood School of Music. Mr. Lampert is conductor of the Chicago Mendelssohn club and Miss Oliver is of the school of speech of Northwestern university. Miss Sieberling is a graduate of the Mary Wood Chase school and has studied in Europe.

Dr. Stewart Outlines Anglo-Catholic Move

Speaking to the Craig club of Northwestern university at its meeting in Harris hall last week, the Rev. George Craig Stewart, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church, Evanston, outlined the history of the Anglo-Catholic movement in the Church of England.

"It has passed," he said, "through the successive stages of scholarship, ritualism and intense social service, and now has entered upon a period of deep philosophy and devotion."

In dealing with the future of the movement, Dr. Stewart said that any religion which was to live must be sufficiently catholic in its appeal to reach the whole of a man's nature. "It must have," he affirmed, "aesthetics in its ritual, music that will grip the soul; it must afford man union with God through mysticism, and it must appeal to his reason with a coherent theology. It must also have the concept of man as a social being, one's self, God and one's fellowmen."

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Otis of 644 Oak street are leaving today for the West. They will go out by way of New Orleans and will be with their daughter, Louise, in Tucson, Ariz., until she has her Christmas vacation from the University of Arizona. The family will go on to California for a while, and Mr. and Mrs. Otis will return to Winnetka about January 15.

Mrs. Charles Moore Robertson of San Antonio, Texas, formerly of Hubbard Woods, is the house guest of Mrs. George Suker of 1028 Starr road.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. McKeon of 935 South Private road have been called to Boston on account of the serious illness of their daughter, Alice Jean.
