A Fitting Setting for B. & G. Candies

Matching with outer beauty the inner goodness of B. & G. Candies, these Christmas containers and wrappings have been created by craftsmen and artists in this country and in foreign lands.

TONY SARG, famed artist and marionette showman, has painted clever boxes, large and small, for your gift of candy. They're smart and new this year.

A TINY STUDIO in New York has produced hand-painted tin containers—novel, effective, when filled with B. & G. home made candies.

FROM FOREIGN ARTISANS come boxes wrought of hand-etched and chased brass, some embellished with finely tooled leather—Many are surprisingly low in price.

ITALIAN and German artists have created bon-bon dishes of a pleasing variety of sizes, shapes and designs.

New This Christmas

are dresser boxes of hand-tooled Lebam papers, in a variety of colors and patterns—this gift continues its usefulness after its contents are gone—and the additional cost is slight.

For those who wish distinctive wrappings for all their gifts

Lebam Design Papers

are provided in convenient rolls—These are beautiful handcraft papers, lending themselves to many color schemes.

FOR CHRISTMAS, B. & G. regular boxes will be wrapped in beautiful hand-blocked paper of red and gold, at a very small additional cost.

House Committee Suggests Cut in War Tax on Autos

Motorists are rejoicing in the decision of the Ways and Means committee of the House of Representatives to cut the war excise tax on automobiles from 3% to 1½%, according to Charles M. Hayes, president of the Chicago Motor club. Following the decision of the committee to cut the tax, Mr. Hayes received a telegram from Ernest N. Smith, general manager of the American Automobile association, thanking the club for its part in the campaign against the continuation of the tax.

Sidney Gerrard, 610 Rosewood avenue, is in California on business, and will remain there until January 1. Mrs. Fannie Roe of California, Mrs. Gerrard's mother, is visiting her daughter and expects to spend the winter here.

Catholic Woman's League In Xmas Stocking Work

Mrs. N. P. Anderson, chairman of the philanthropy department of the North Shore Catholic Woman's league, requests that anyone interested in filling and sending Christmas stockings for St. Joseph's Home for the Friendless kindly send the stockings to the following: Winnetka—Mrs. Albert Tilroe, 978 Oak street; Hubbard Woods—Mrs. William Brown, 1173 Scott avenue; Glencoe—Mrs. Leo Hillman, 345 Park avenue; Wilmette—Mrs. John S. Cook, 1017 Greenleaf avenue; Evanston—Mrs. N. P. Anderson, 809 Michigan avenue; Highland Park—Mrs. Harry Mills, 202 N. Green Bay road.

These stockings are to be sent not later than December 19.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Gonsalves, formerly of Libertyville, are living at 322 Sunset road for the winter.
