

CHURCHES TO OBSERVE GOLDEN RULE SUNDAY

Annual Day of Contributions for
Near East Relief Orphans
Comes December 4

More than 500 churches in Chicago and vicinity will observe Golden Rule Sunday, December 4. The pastors or volunteer speakers in these churches by Near East Relief, which sponsors will tell of the work being carried on the day for the 33,415 children still under this American organization's care in the Bible lands.

Various events of Golden Rule week will lead up to Sunday's observance. The radio stations have responded generously. KYW will broadcast a Golden Rule talk this week; WHT is putting on a talk about the Near East at 2:10 P. M. each day this week. Dr. Frederick Shannon of the Central church will give his annual Golden Rule sermon at Orchestra hall Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and this will be broadcast. So will the talk made by C. V. Vickrey, general secretary of Near East Relief and founder of the welfare organization, in the evening at Orchestra hall. Another prominent speaker will talk at and broadcast from Paul Rader's huge tabernacle Sunday evening.

Such prominent Divines as Dr. Charles Gilkey of Hyde Park Baptist; Rev. Fred D. Stone, Irving Park Methodist; Rev. M. B. Boynton, Woodlawn Avenue Congregational; Rev. Charles Gorman Richards, Rogers Park Congregational; Rev. E. Ashley Gerhardt, Christ church, Winnetka; Rev. L. H. Danforth, Church of the Holy Comforter, Kenilworth, and many others will observe Golden Rule Sunday in their churches.

Families are asked to eat a Golden Rule meal on this Sunday, consisting of soup, cocoa, and corn meal, or similar simple fare and then share generously with these unfortunate waifs who are being fed, clothed and given religious instruction in their various creeds by American philanthropy. These children are all under 15 years of age and are being taught practical trades and given an academic training so that they can re-establish themselves in their native countries. Those wishing to aid these Golden Rule orphans may contribute to their local churches or direct to regional headquarters, 37 So. Wabash avenue, Frank O. Lowden is Illinois chairman of Near East Relief and George M. Reynolds, banker, is treasurer.

New Trier Swimmers Begin Season With Good Prospects.

Seventy-five prospective New Trier swimmers answered the call of Coach Jackson last week, of which fifty were finally chosen. These tankers will hold practice three times a week. The swimmers were divided into junior and senior teams before the first meet which was with Deerfield-Shields High school December 1. Read, Grandstrom, Sprenger, Crawford, Holloway, Bennett and King of last year have already reported. Besides the regular practice, there will be two general swims a week for all boys. Mr. Jackson expects to begin some form of intra-mural swimming soon, although he has made no plans as yet. Allan McNaughton is manager of the team for this year.

SELL HANDIWORK

The members of the Presbyterian Home had their quaint and unusual articles on sale at Macpherson's, Sherman avenue at Grove street, Evanston, November 29, 30 and December 1. The articles were made by the members who will receive the proceeds.

Northwestern Arts Club Honors Wilmette Member

Miss Lillian Fitch, 1033 Elmwood avenue, Wilmette, has been elected social chairman of the Art club of Northwestern university, which held its annual election this week. Miss Fitch is a junior in the College of Liberal Arts.

The club, composed of students interested in fine arts, proposes an active program for the year, including the study of design, sketching and craftwork, it is announced. The membership plans frequent attendances at new plays in Chicago to study stage settings and effects.

Mrs. Charles M. Holmes, 200 Warwick road, Kenilworth, and her family, who have been on their farm in Wisconsin for the summer and fall, will return to their home within the next few weeks.
