

MRS. MAURICE KENT DIES

Funeral services for Mrs. Margaret Blodgett Kent, wife of Maurice Kent of the Northwestern university coaching staff, were held Monday afternoon at the chapel at 703 Washington street, Evanston. Mrs. Kent died Sunday fol-g-ago.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wheelock, 132 Oxford road, Kenilworth, left the first of the week for New York, where they will remain for a short time.

OPENS HOME FOR DISPLAY

Mrs. Ernest H. Fleischmann of 235 Leicester road, Kenilworth, is opening her home from every afternoon from 2 until 6 o'clock to women of the north shore, for a display of Miss B's exclusive toilet preparations, arrayed in honor of the season, in attractive Christmas garb.

Judge Sidney Corning Eastman of Kenilworth is in the Presbyterian hospital. He is reported as gaining and it is hoped that he will be able to return to his home this week.

Muenzer Trio Will Give Chamber Music Program

Announcement is made of the second of the series of Chamber musicales Sunday afternoon, December 4, at 4 o'clock, in the Kenilworth club.

The Muenzer trio will again give one of its delightful programs, the numbers of which will be "Trio in B Major" by Germsheim and a "Quartette" by Vincent D'Indy. Frederick Rittner, a member of the Chicago Symphony orchestra, will be the assisting artist, Mr. Rittner will play the viola.

Genevieve Forbes Herrick to Address Voters' League

Tuesday morning, December 6, at 11:45 at the Kenilworth Assembly hall, the Kenilworth League of Women Voters will hold its first meeting for the winter season. There is an effort being made to increase the membership of the league and each member is urged to be present and bring a guest or new member. Genevieve Forbes Herrick of the Chicago Tribune will be the speaker and she is both brilliant and interesting. Mrs. Herrick is a graduate of Northwestern university and the University of Chicago and has had a fascinating career in newspaper and social-service work. She has gone to the heart of things. Interested in immigration, she at one time dressed as an Irish peasant immigrant and allowed herself to be detained at Ellis Island. From facts learned at that time she was able to go to Washington D. C., and have new laws passed to benefit the immigrant.

The meeting is at 11:45 to enable those attending the art and literature meeting of the Neighbors to attend this meeting of the League of Women Voters.

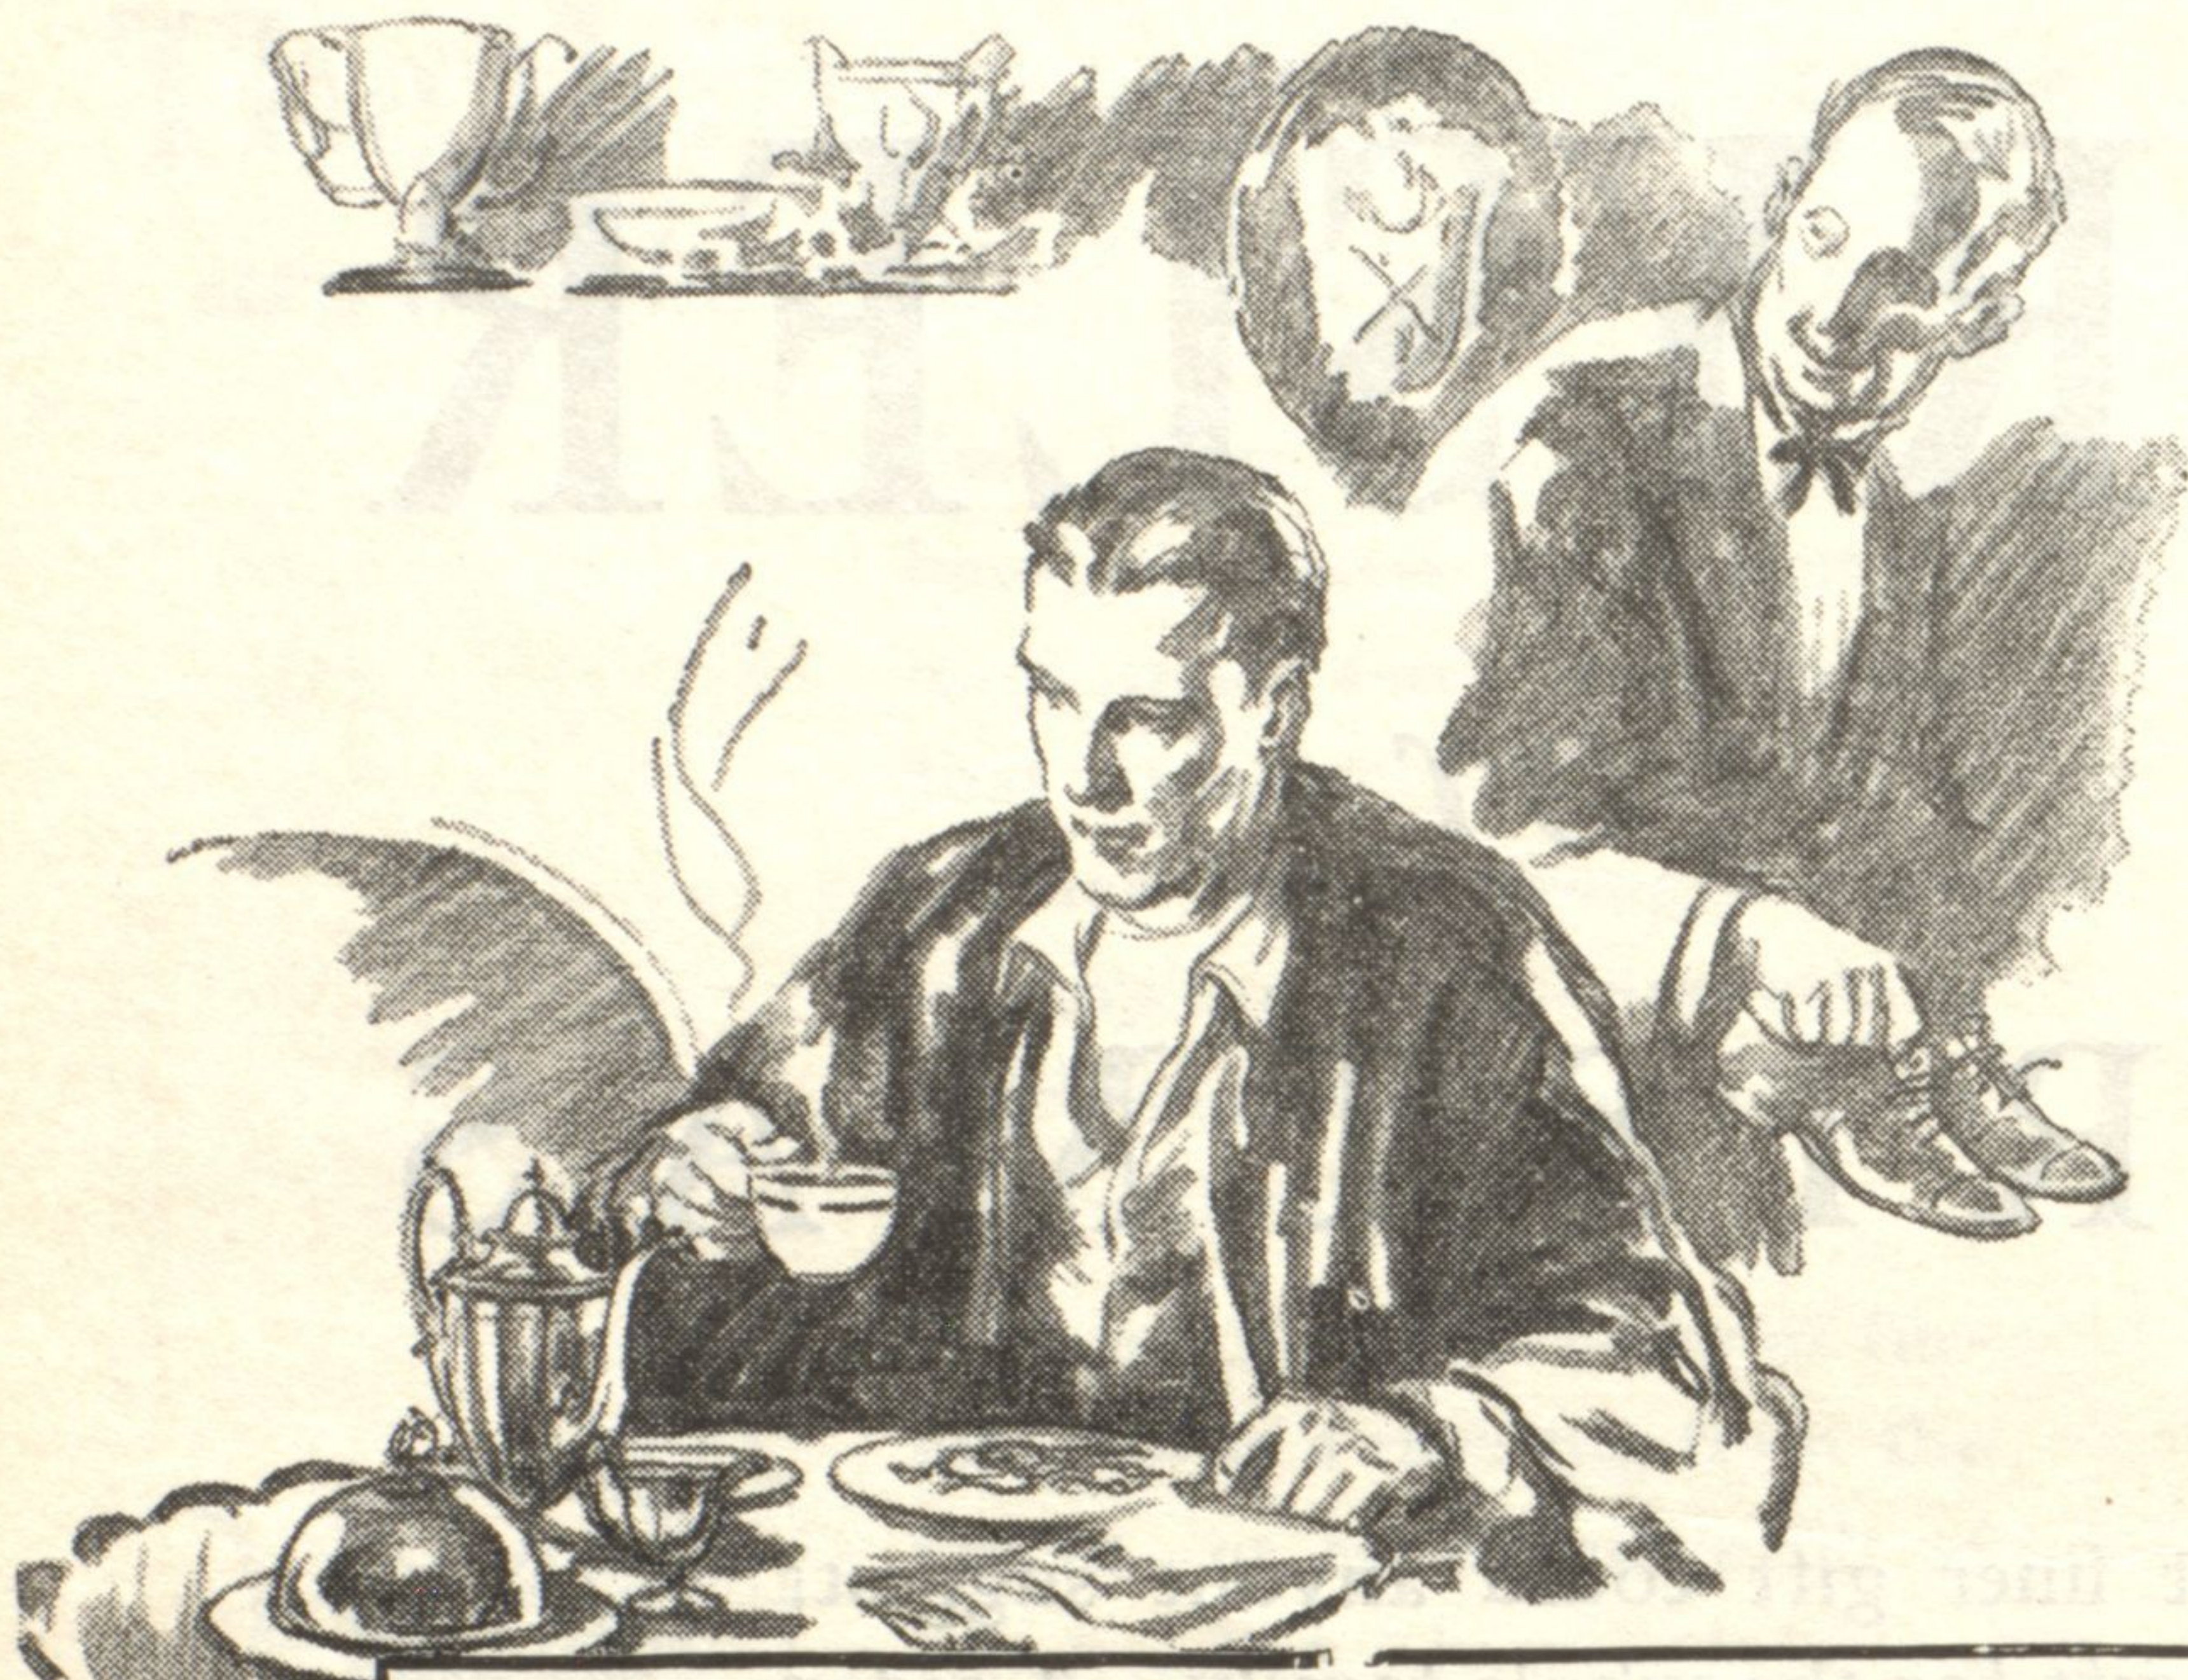

An informal luncheon will be served at the close of the talk. All wishing to attend are requested to call Mrs. Gilbert Kelly, Kenilworth 1006, so that the committee will know for how many to provide.

Mrs. H. J. Imus, 547 Linden avenue, Kenilworth, had as her guests for Thanksgiving her mother, Mrs. Katherine Kack, of Chicago and John Ving-woll of Canada.

Vibe K. Spicer is very ill and confined to his bed at his home, 312 Essex road, Kenilworth.

Mrs. Steven B. Hutchings, 206 Winnetka avenue, Kenilworth, entertained a small party of friends at a luncheon given at her home last week.

The Reading Circle met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Louis Bruch in Evanston.
